

Prof. Benjamin Washington of the Armstrong Manual Training High School at Washington has taken a summer course at Armour Institute in electric engineering. Four weeks of the six Professor had the society of Mrs. Washington. Chicago has never had a more charming couple in its midst than Prof. and Mrs. Washington. They left Wednesday morning for Washington, D. C. Prof. and Mrs. Washington were the guests of their brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Washington, during their stay here.

Attorney and Mrs. W. I. Jamison of Topeka, Kans., are the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Miller of 3552 Forest avenue.

Mrs. L. A. Avendorph, after a three weeks' stay in Marquette, Mich., returned home Tuesday night, feeling much improved from the trip.

Dr. Shelby L. Boynton of Atlanta, Ga., is the guest of Mrs. Jenkins of 3241 Calumet avenue. Dr. Boynton is a graduate of Maharry and is one of the few women physicians with a large practice.

The way to get good bread, ask for the "Kentucky Loaf."

Frank Robinson of St. Louis, Mo., one of the few bona fide architects of this country, is in the city. Mr. Robinson will be the guest of Julius N. Avendorph at breakfast Sunday morning.

St. Mary's A. M. E. church, 4926 Dearborn street, Rev. James Higgins, pastor. Dollar money rally Sunday, Aug. 20. Monday evening, August 21, musical. Mr. Louis Owens, the sweet tenor singer, assisted by home talent. Sunday, August 27, woman's day.

Miss Sarah Lee, Miss Annie Rollin and Miss Lee from Memphis, Tenn., and Mr. E. S. Campbell from Edmondson, Ark., came last Sunday and are stopping with M. A. Arnold at 6730 Champlain avenue.

Mr. Charles L. Reese, the tenor soloist of Bethel church, has gone to New York autoing. He arrived at Buffalo, N. Y., today (Thursday).

Miss Nannie Perry, school teacher in the public schools of Louisville, Ky., is visiting her cousins, Mrs. D. Jobe and Mrs. R. A. Parham at 5145 Lake avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Moore of 6252 Sangamon street left for Washington, D. C., old Virginia and Morganton, N. C., for a two months' stay.

Mr. Frank Alexander of Garnett, Kans., is in the city visiting his sister-in-law, Mrs. Delbert Roberts, 2970 Dearborn street.

Mr. S. Adams of 3752 Rhodes avenue went to the hospital for an operation Thursday.

Mrs. Sarah Davis, daughter of Mr. Thomas Gains, and her father-in-law, Mr. Davis of Paducah, Ky., are in the city at 5140 Wentworth avenue.

Mrs. Gus Givens and Miss Hibernia Lunderman of Paducah, Ky., are stopping at 3105 State street for a week.

Mrs. Elvira Franklin, lady barber, 3149 State street, gave her friends an automobile party last Sunday to the aviation grounds. The guests were Mary Baldwin, Kicks Lambkin, Misses Olive Knight, Ursilla Adams and Margaret Reed. After the pleasure ride a sumptuous dinner was awaiting them.

Mrs. S. W. Wimby of Atlanta, Ga., is visiting her son, S. W. Wimby, Jr., and relatives at 3152 Forest avenue.

"Guide for Health"—A valuable treatise on diseases of women and how to effect their cure; non-surgical. Dr. Goodwin, specialist; address or consult Mrs. Clara Lawson, representative; office hours, 9-10 a. m.; 146 West 27th street; phone Calumet 1019.

Miss Ethel Jordon of Nashville, Tenn., teacher in the high schools of Florida, is stopping at 3159 State street, the guest of Mrs. Mitchell.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Crawley of 6232 Ada street entertained Mrs. Gray of Louisville, Ky., at progressive whist Wednesday evening.

Among the prominent visitors registered at the Keystone hotel are Mr. George Alling and Mr. Wm. Abernathy of Detroit, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. George Porter, 5 East 36th place, have returned from their extended honeymoon trip, which included Newport, Providence, New York and Philadelphia.

Mrs. George H. Walker and children returned home from Franklin, La., Sunday night, accompanied by Miss Maud Taylor of New Orleans.

Mr. Oscar Storr's thirty-seventh birthday was pleasantly celebrated Saturday evening, August 12, at his home, 124 West 47th street.

Do you want good plain rolls? Ask for Wallace's.

Mrs. Annie Dobbins of South Highland, Birmingham, wants information concerning her sister, Mrs. Pink Smith. Any information will reach her through the Chicago Defender.

The Midlothian club has returned from Benton Harbor, Mich.

Mr. Edward Booth, New Orleans, is in the city the guest of his aunt, Mrs. Clara Parish, 3215 Dearborn street, and his cousin, Mrs. H. Lee, 3159 State street.

Mrs. I. D. Merriweather of Jackson, Ill., is the guest of her son, Mr. J. C. Ross, 3624 Vernon avenue.

Mr. Wm. H. Hornsby of Louisville, Ky., is the guest of Mr. Harry Robison, 3136 Rhodes avenue.

Miss Juliet Jackson entertained the Orchid Whist club at her home, 3157 Forest avenue, Thursday evening, August 10. Miss Esther Bullock and Messrs. Nathan Jackson and Herman Grommer were the guests of the evening.

Mr. Young, the restaurant proprietor of 14 West 35th street, is spending his vacation in St. Joe, Mich.

Mr. John Wagoner left for Boston on Monday to visit his daughter, Mrs. Fannie Hughes and children.

Mrs. Edward A. Lightfoot of 6336 Champlain avenue was pleasantly surprised to have a visit from her sister, Mrs. Linnie Cox-Powell of Indianola, Miss.

Miss Emma Hunley of 2623 Michigan avenue is visiting relatives in Springfield, Ohio.

Miss Annie Rollins and Mr. E. S. Campbell and wife are visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Arnold, 6730 Champlain avenue.

At the Frederick Douglass Center Sunday afternoon the meeting will consist of a piano solo by Miss Walling, a vocal solo by Miss Winslow, a ladies' quartet and an address by Rev. D. H. Harris. Last Sunday the University club gave an excellent program, many of the organized college clubs of the city taking part.

Don't forget the closing event of the season. It is St. Thomas' annual boat excursion on the lake on Monday evening, August 28. Always good;

What's the matter with the Theodore Roosevelt? She is all right! She carries 3,000 passengers and will be filled to her capacity at St. Thomas' excursion. This is no airship; but a reliable steel steamship.

By request of Mrs. C. A. Cone of the Douglass Center the University society rendered the afternoon services at that institution August 13.

Mrs. Margaret Tyler of Cairo, Ill., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Susan Meriweather, 3758 Rhodes avenue.

The Mount Glenwood Chautauqua association has recently been organized and incorporation papers taken out. A grand chautauqua celebration will be held at Mount Glenwood grove Labor day, Sept. 4. A splendid program of speeches by eminent men and also music is being arranged by the committee. Dr. A. J. Carey is the president and Dr. E. S. Miller is the secretary and treasurer of the association.

Dr. Anna R. Cooper will leave Hampton, Va., Sunday night to address a meeting on "How to Eliminate Tuberculosis from City and State."

Mrs. R. Pinn has gone to St. Joe, Mo., for a two weeks' visit.

Miss Rebecca Walker of Columbus, Miss., daughter of Mr. Robert Walker, one Columbus' leading business men and owner of Queen City hotel, is visiting her cousin, Mrs. Tennie Sherman, 5307 Lake avenue.

The W. A. Wallace Bakery Co. make the "Kentucky Loaf" and Wallace Rolls.

Mrs. James Hunley of Springfield, O., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. B. H. Wilder, 5340 Dearborn street, and Mrs. Wm. Teny of 2623 Michigan avenue.

The I. B. W. club had a very pleasant meeting at Jackson's music school, 3235-37 State street, August 10. The club was favored with a violin solo by Masters Horace Jordon, Steve Mackey and Theodore Brown, showing that Mr. W. J. Jackson is still doing great work as music teacher.

Mrs. Ida Barnett, 3656 Prairie avenue, has gone south to visit her sister, Mrs. D. W. Edwards. She will visit Buffalo and New York before returning.

Mr. Austin Harris, recently of South Dakota, passed through Chicago on his way to California.

Mrs. Josie Alsups is visiting friends in Cleveland and Richmond, Ind.

Mrs. P. Shoemaker, 4628 Langley avenue, left on Monday for a month's stay at her summer home in Benton Harbor.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren King have moved to the city to make their future home with their daughter, Mrs. James E. Maxwell, 3128 Vernon avenue.

Miss Esther Gaskin, 3632 Prairie avenue, is visiting relatives in New York, Niagara Falls and Canada.

Mrs. W. H. Hudlin, 3639 Dearborn street, who has been seriously ill, is convalescing.

Mrs. Genevieve Coleman is in Monmouth, Ill., attending the state federation. She will visit Logansport and Indianapolis, Ind., before returning to the city.

Mrs. Birdie L. High of St. Paul, Minn., is in the city, a guest of Mrs. George A. Thornton, 4325 Forestville avenue. They will both leave Saturday evening for a week's stay in Indianapolis.

Prof. Berry and the Eighth regiment band leaves for Indianapolis, Ind., Saturday.

Robert ("Little Bob") Wheeler and Mr. John French were in town this week and enlivened "the stroll" by a hair cutting contest at Wood's barber shop.

Elisha G. Jackson and Joe Davis have opened a new laundry at 131 West 31st street, corner La Salle. Phone Yards 1663 and your clothes will be sent for.

Mrs. T. J. Johnson, the florist, has been on a week's visit to Quincy, Ill., as a delegate to the grand lodge of the Sisters of the Mysterious Ten.

Dr. Watkins and Mr. Brown of Montgomery, Ala., are on a visit in the city.

Mrs. Isabella Williams of New Orleans, La., mother of Samuel O. ("Billy") Williams, arrived in the city last week to visit her son for two weeks.

Mrs. Woodfolk has opened an excellent up-stairs dining room at 3946 State street. See her advertisement.

Mr. A. W. Adams and Mr. H. A. Keith, representing the Cohens Medicine Company of New York, are canvassing the city in the interest of the products of this new race enterprise.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Hudson, 6328 Champlain avenue, are at Moosdale Farm for a short stay.

Mrs. Emma Buckner of Alberta, Canada, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Alice Johnson, 3413 Forest avenue.

Mr. Moses Samuel, 6501 Rhodes avenue, returned home Friday night from up north, where he went to shoot bear. In the evening Mr. and Mrs. Samuels entertained at dinner Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Singleton, who are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sandy Trice, 6438 Vincennes avenue, but there was no bear meat on the menu.

Miss Estelle Burrell, Cincinnati, will arrive in the city either Sunday night or Monday morning. She will be the guest of her cousin at 3641 Forest avenue.

Miss Evelyn Cummings, one of Natchez's, Miss., belles and niece of Miss C. Williams, 3266 Vernon avenue, is in the city to spend a few months with her aunt. Accompanying her was Miss R. Radcliff, who is reputed to be the Venus of that city. Miss Radcliff is attracting much attention among society folks. Auto riding has been a pastime with them.

Mr. E. F. Simmons, P. O. clerk, and Mr. Chas. J. Russell, a merchant of Americus, Ga., reported at the Georgia headquarters, Porter & Prentice's drug store, 31st and Dearborn streets. They will be here fifteen days.

Mr. Amos Stewart, Pensacola, Fla., boyhood friend of Mr. Peter P. Jones, photographer, called on him Monday. They kissed. H-u-m!

The whist party given by Miss Gertrude J. Hart, 3236 Wabash avenue, was a huge success. Society was at its best and all enjoyed themselves. Mrs. Alice Leland won first prize, fern dish oiled air plant; second prize, Mme. Azalia Hackley, salad dish and easter; third prize, Mrs. Geo. C. Hall, fancy plate; bobby, Mrs. Brooks, spoony picture; men, first, Mr. Elma Cheek, painted cup and saucer; second, Mr. Wm. Bowman, ash tray; third, Dr. Burnett, bronze match box; bobby, Mr. J. C. Grand, Jewsharp.