

BA'H'A'I QUESTION ARE YOU RIGHT?

WILMETTE, Illinois — "How Do You Know You Are Right" is the question which will be posed Sunday, July 20, at 3:45 p.m. in the public meeting at the Baha'i House of Worship. Mrs. Carol Allen, recently arrived in Wilmette, will be the speaker.

"With so many avenues of belief open to the interested seeker of truth," said Mrs. Allen, "the inquiries about my religious convictions often get to the point of why a Baha'i has such strong faith, such deep assurance of the truth of these teachings. I will simply present the Baha'i perspective on today's scene, as I understand it."

Mrs. Allen is a secretary in the National Baha'i Center, and she is an entertainer in the musical field. As musician, she has performed in Japan, Formosa, Philippines, Hawaii; and as a Baha'i teacher, she has served in southern and western United States activities. She has served on local Baha'i Assemblies in Los Angeles, Pasadena, and in Tulsa, Oklahoma.

Mrs. Allen will be discussion leader for an informal fireside room dialogue following the public meeting. These question and answer periods welcome any visitors at the Baha'i House of Worship each Sunday afternoon.
