The proposed tour to Baha'i House of Worship in Wilmette, Ill., Sunday, Aug. 12 is attracting city-wide attention and reservations are being made by interested persons of all denominations, according to Mrs. Annetta Washington, tour coordinator.

The Baha'i Temple tour is sponsored by St. James Catholic church Altar and Rosary Society. Mrs. Mary Belle Graham is president. Buses will leave St. James church, 29th and Wabash ave., immediately after the 10 a.m. mass. A dinner at 12 noon will be served at Fanny's restaurant in Evanston. After the ecumenical tour, participants will return home no later than 4 p.m.

Proceeds will go into the re-building fund set up to reconstruct damaged areas in St. James caused by fire. Father Patrick O'Malley is moderator for the society.

Among the principles of the Baha'i Faith are:
the oneness of mankind;
independent investigation of truth;
the common foundation of all religions;
the essential harmony of science and religion;
equality of men and women;
elimination of prejudice of all kinds;
universal Compulsory education;
a spiritual solution of the economic problem;
a universal auxiliary language and universal peace upheld by a world government.

Reservations for the Baha'i tour can be made by calling: Mrs. Washington evenings at 663-9589.
