

CINCINNATI NEWS

Cincinnati, Ohio, Oct. 22.—Last June Miss Elsie Austin graduated from high school at the early age of 16 years. This year she entered the University of Cincinnati and because of her extra credits in Spanish and French she received advanced standing. Miss Austin is the first girl to receive advanced standing at the University of Cincinnati. Miss Austin has the distinction of being the first girl to elect the law course at the university. She is also a member of the Pyramid club, an applicant to the Delta Sigma Theta and is eligible for a reward for her good work. Her aunt, Miss Jennie Austin, has given her a scholarship. The Alpha Phi Alpha fraternity entertained in honor of the new students at the University of Cincinnati and the new teachers of Stow, Douglass and Douglass schools. A large number were present and everybody enjoyed the affair. The Crescent club entertained in honor of Dr. Gordon Jackson, W. P. Oliver, Dr. and Lidert Leana of Chicago, Messrs. Dr. and L. A. Cornish of St. Louis and Dr. L. A. Cornish will soon leave for Washington, D. C. The Wilberforce club made its first appearance in the city at Brown's chapel Sunday afternoon, rendering a delightful program. Mr. and Mrs. F. Tome have as their guest Mrs. Harry Thompson of Dayton, Ohio, who is receiving many social favors from their friends. P. F. Smith of Cutter St. has returned from Charleston, W. Va., where he went to see the most valuable of friends to his sister, Mrs. Frankie C. Harris. Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Ellison, Thurman Ellison, Miss Julia Butler and Miss Ellis Blackburn spent Sunday in Indianapolis, Ind., with friends. Mrs. Julia Sanders of Pittsburgh spent three weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Arthur Richards of Foraker Ave. Mr. and Mrs. Miller of Lockland entertained in honor of guests from Wilberforce university with a delightful luncheon Sunday afternoon at the Rehoboth. A social home after spending five weeks in Lexington, Mrs. Pinky Johnson of Georgetown, Ky., is visiting her son, James Johnson, Carnation Embroidery club No. 1 had a reception at Bethel church last Thursday. The Ideal Art club met with Mrs. S. Wilkerson of Glendale, Ohio. Mrs. Charles Howard, Miss Medley and Miss Richardson were guests. Miss Azalia Root entertained at the Rockaway club Sunday afternoon. On account of his sister's illness, Miss Roxie Miller of Madisonville is attending school here. Mr. and Mrs. William McQueen and son are visiting in Cynthia, Ky. Mrs. Lizzie MacBuckner of Detroit is visiting her husband, William Buckner. Miss Julia Robinson and Harry DePolo were married recently. Mr. and Mrs. Chattle Moss of Lexington are guests of Mrs. Livingston. Miss Eva Gaines is visiting at the Orland, Cal. after graduating from Technical high school of that city. Mrs. R. A. Fowler of Kerper Ave. has returned from her visit to relatives and friends in Louisiana, Alabama, Georgia, Tennessee and Kentucky. Dr. Gordon Jackson returned to Chicago Wednesday. He and friends were guests of Mrs. Edith Miller, who entertained them elaborately Tuesday evening. The guests present were Dr. Jackson, George Gillespie, Dr. G. W. Higgins and P. Oliver of Chicago. Henry Higgins had as dinner guests Monday night at the Crescent club Dr. G. W. Jackson, Mr. Oliver, Dr. Lezana and W. P. Dabney. Everyone had an enjoyable time. The Orpheus Mixed quartet furnished an excellent program Sunday at the Y. M. C. A. branch at Lockland, Ohio. Mrs. Lillian Silless, a lyric soprano and soloist; Miss Mary Fairfax, contralto; Charles H. Kelly, tenor; Martin Van Roberts, bass; Fred Charles, Jr., baritone and J. A. Fenton, Dr. James P. Fenton has been returned to his congregation to serve his ninth year. Mrs. Lucy E. White has moved to Foraker Ave. Among the multitude of social engagements given in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Cornish, who will leave this week to reside in Washington, none stands forth more brilliantly than the reception tendered them Sunday by the Misses Ray at Dr. Schooley's residence. Earl Steward post No. 127 paid a grand tribute to Dr. L. A. Cornish. Clara Steward, of St. Louis, Florence Steward and last Wednesday, Teresa

Tuesday evening the membership committee, under direction of Miss Lila D. Rickman, chairman, launched the new members' drive at a beautifully appointed luncheon. The house girls organized their club for the coming year and elected the following officers: President, Mrs. Eva Washington; vice president, Miss Laura Burrs; secretary, Mrs. Mabel McGhee; corresponding secretary, Miss Willie K. Brummitt; treasurer, Miss Minnie Hall; chairman, program committee, Mrs. M. B. Lytle. Twenty minutes of the club hour will be devoted to Bible study, using their textbook, "The Meaning of Prayer." Thirty minutes will be devoted to needlework.

What promises to be one of the outstanding fall activities of the West end branch will be the harvest home festival Nov. 6 and 7, sponsored by the industrial committee. Special programs are being arranged with prominent speakers of the business and industrial world for both evenings. These speakers will be supported by the best talent of the business and industrial world for both evenings. These speakers will be supported by the best talent of the business and industrial clubs. Several attractive booths with the ingathering of the harvest season will be on display. Fine arts, modes in dressmaking and millinery of today and yesterday will be elaborately featured. Several industries of the city where colored women are employed will put on exhibition garments made by our women. B. H. Baker was the speaker Thursday evening at the citizenship meeting held under the community study committee. Mrs. Addie Richardson was chairman. The group present was much interested and pledged themselves to register as large a number of women with whom they could get in touch. Out-of-town guests in the residence: Misses Glazer Allen and Verna Leonard of Calesburg, Ill. Out-of-town visitors to the building: Mrs. Nannie Arthur of Richmond, Ky., and Miss Anna Swenson of Cleveland, Ohio.

Monday, Oct. 13, the Earl Stewart post No. 128, of the American Legion, at their clubrooms gave Dr. L. A. Cornish, who has been treasurer of the post for the past five years and one of its most members, a reception. A splendid musical program was rendered by the quartet and soloists. The new postmaster, Dr. J. E. Lacey, the new commander emblem was given him. Speeches were made by Commander J. H. Allen, Adj. J. E. Lacey, Dr. R. E. Beamon and F. T. Layton. Dr. Cornish made a fitting reply.

Lewis Pettiford died at his home Saturday evening. The Woman's Cultural club will give a Halloween social Thursday evening, Oct. 30, at the home of Mrs. Roy Kendall. Miss Ruth Guy is sick at her home. Madison Ave. Mrs. Ollie is sick at her home. Riverside Drive. Rev. E. L. Lizzins. It was a successful year here. Leaves Tuesday for conference. Joseph Gillman gave a radio party last week. Philomathean club will host Mrs. R. C. French. Miss Dorothy Friedrich of Middletown spent the week and here. Mr. and Mrs. Mell Friedrich and family have moved into their new home. W. Forest Sneaks of Springfield was a Pinawa visitor last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Mel Harris spent the week-end and their parents in Jackson, Ohio. Isaac Cheeks has returned from Kittery Point, Me., where he spent the summer. Mr. and Mrs. Desota Harris spent the week in Zanesville, and adjoining places. The Rev. Mr. Morris and William Mitchell, a day at the Institute in Springfield, Ohio. Mrs. Isabel Pecks and sister of Springfield spent a day with their mother. Mrs. Ida Davis. The pageant given by the B. T. P. U. of Park Ave. last night was very good. Mrs. Lenora Rose of Detroit, Mich., visited her mother last week.

MASSILLON, OHIO
The Young People's circle of the Friendship Baptist church presented the church a communion set. Miss Francis E. Tucker, of 324 W. Tremont, St. left Tuesday for Pittsburgh, where she will spend several days with friends. Rev. Richardson and family of 205 N. West St. moved to Cleveland, where he takes his new charge. Mr. and Mrs. E. Tucker of Warwick St. have returned home after attending a family reunion in Xenia, Ohio. Mrs. Chapman and daughter of Newcomertown are now visiting here. Mrs. Hubert Crell of N. Lincoln Ave. will come home after a business trip to Cincinnati. Miss Wilma Hood has returned home after spending the summer on her vacation in Michigan. Mrs. Jack Robinson and children are visiting her husband in Oberlin, where he has been ill for several weeks.

Joseph C. Thomas of Columbus delivered a talk Friday night to a packed house at the Shiloh Baptist church. Oct. 17 Mr. and Mrs. Evans and her mother motored to Newcomerstown. The entertainment given by the Missionary society of the Shiloh Baptist church Monday night was successful. The society bestowed honors upon Mrs. Clara Acklin and Mrs. B. Ivery, who club met at the home of Mrs. Lela Brannon, 1617 Kent St., Tuesday evening. After business a delicious lunch was served. The club will meet at the home of Mrs. Clara Acklin, 205 W. South St., on the regular meeting day. Mrs. Birdie Barkley and Mrs. C. W. Weaver spent the evening with Mrs. Beulah J. Parker, where they held the first meeting of the True Blue society. Mrs. Jas. Meyers of N. Hill St., and Mary E. Bowman of N. West St. motored with Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay of N. Summit St. to Beloit and visited Mr. and Mrs. Towns. Mrs. E. Allen of 211 North St. have returned from the East. Mrs. Allen left for Pittsburgh to attend the Walls family reunion, where she met many friends and relatives. Miss Mettie Beloit of Midland, Pa., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Harry Bond, of Erie St. Rev. W. A. Blackwell of Chicago, presiding elder, is here on business. He is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. I. V. Higgins of W. Tremont St. Rev. and Mrs. T. W. Mills are in Massillon this week on business. Rev. Mills was on the program Friday night at a mass meeting at Shiloh Baptist church. He made an interesting talk.

The Thursday Afternoon club was entertained at K. of P. hall Thursday by Mrs. William Brooks, Mrs. Veda Brown and Mrs. J. C. Clouse. After a short business session an excellent program was rendered. After the program refreshments were served by the hostesses, assisted by Miss Ethel Dudley and Miss Pauline Farmer. Additional guests were Mrs. Anna Steinger, Mrs. Virginia Jones, Miss Carolina Jennings, Mrs. Ida Fulton, Mrs. Anne Johnson, Mrs. Susan Williams, Mrs. Stella Johnson, Mrs. Cyrena Johnson, Mrs. Emma Guy, Mrs. F. Williams, Mrs. Petty Williams and Mrs. Forest Starhope of Springfield, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilkes and daughter, Miss Malcomma Wilkes, spent last Sunday in Springfield at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Jordan. Sherman Mitchell of Cleveland also was a guest, Miss Vivian Fletcher, Misses Henrietta and Mary Johnson, Miss Frances Banda of Columbus, Miss Phyllis Fletcher, Miss Christina Barrett, Miss Elizabeth Cleveland and Donald Barrett, Orville Brown, Norman Adams and Melwood Stanhope motored to St. Paris Sunday afternoon, where they spent the evening at the home of Miss Amanda Carey. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dale spent Sunday and Monday in Springfield and Franklin. While in Springfield they attended the funeral of Mrs. Frank Hall. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Pettiford of Mottersville, Ind., motored to this city Saturday evening and spent Sunday with the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Gilson and family. Harold Jennings and Lester Monroe spent the week-end in Toledo. They attended a party given by the sorority Friday evening. Mrs. Bertha Tyre of Chicago is visiting relative in this city. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dale and Miss Phyllis Annabel Williams and sons spent Sunday in Bellefontaine with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Whetsel and Mrs. Emma Bass. Miss Virginia Harrison spent the week-end with her mother, Mrs. Malice Harrison. Miss Vivian Fletcher, Misses Christine and Edwina Barrett, Miss Phyllis Fletcher, Miss Elizabeth Cleveland and Melwood Stanhope motored to Columbus Saturday afternoon. The Thursday Afternoon Federation club met at the home of Mrs. Kate Dudley. After the business session refreshments were served. Additional guests for the day were Mrs. Anna Steinger, Mrs. Louise Hawkins, Mrs. Frances Williams, Mrs. W. B. Glenn and Mrs. Lillian Mosley. Mrs. Martin Cleveland entertained the members of the C. C. club in a very pleasant way during the afternoon. The guests were Mr. Ward St. Martin Cleveland, assisted by her daughters, Harriet and Elizabeth, served delicious refreshments. Additional guests were Mrs. Joseph Scott, Mrs. Darling Strawther, Mrs. Gibson, Mrs. W. Dale, Mrs. W. Fletcher and Mrs. L. Sloan, and Mrs. John Clark and Mme. Tyree of Chicago. Jesse Johnson of Springfield spent Tuesday evening in Urbana. Homer Slaughte and Cassie Smith motored to Columbus last Saturday to take in the Purdue-Ohio football game. Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Green and children of Columbus spent Sunday as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Green. John Brown and Mr. Martin of Cleveland spent Sunday in Troy. They were accompanied by William Andrews and Homer Slaughte. Mrs. Keren Hill met with a painful accident recently, but is now slowly improving. Kirk Williams is on a business trip. Jess Steward was at a Saturday afternoon guest of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Cleveland.

Mr. and Mrs. Goshawny Goins of Detroit is visiting her parents. Mr. and Mrs. Washington Armfield, Mrs. Sallie Clark entertained the Sunshine club in delightful fashion Thursday evening.

The Missionary society of the Second Baptist church met at the home of Mrs. Hattie Waugh Wednesday afternoon. The C. C. club was entertained Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Isaac Adams. Mrs. John Brown left Sunday evening for Washington for an indefinite stay. She has accepted a clerical position in the war department. Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Adams will leave soon for Portsmouth to spend the winter with their daughter and her husband. Mrs. John Logan of Springfield and Mrs. Stella Rickman Davis of Cincinnati were here Friday on business. Thomas Wright of Springfield spent Friday evening in Dayton. Mrs. Alfred Boyd and Miss Edith Chavis were called to Lima on account of the illness of Mrs. Rose Cook. Mrs. Susie Hall and daughters and son spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Armstrong. Watson Fletcher spent Saturday evening and Sunday in Xenia with friends. Wm. Jackson of Dayton was here Saturday evening. Mrs. Minnie Gray, Edgar Boyd and Henry Boyd attended the funeral of Mrs. Rose Cook in Lima. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Walker and Mrs. Tina Smith of Springfield saw the air races at Dayton Friday. Miss Virginia Harrison of Mingo spent the week end with her mother, Mrs. Mallice Harrison. Harold Deed of Kenton is visiting relatives. The following were sick last week: Miss Ethel Kennedy, Mrs. Tolson, William Suggs, Mrs. Laura Lancaster and daughter Laura, Evelyn, Miss Edith Dale and Miss Gertrude Hicks. Mrs. Josephine Barrett was called to the bedside of her husband, Charles Barrett, in Chicago. Mrs. Ida Ramey and children of Springfield spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Goins, and her sisters, Mrs. Warren Boyd and Miss Clarabel Goins. Mr. and Mrs. McDonald Highwarden of Akron spent two weeks here with

CANTON, OHIO

The Canton Urban league will conduct a city-wide conference at the assembly-room of the Canton Chamber of Commerce Oct. 29. William Ashby, executive secretary of the Newark N. J. Urban league; Nimrod B. Allen Sr., Columbus Urban league and James H. Robinson of Cincinnati will be the out-of-town speakers. The committee in charge of the conference consists of the Rev. A. L. Wilson, Miss Augusta DuMont, Otis Gillespie, the Rev. A. E. Allen and George Ake. Local speakers include the following: Judges Bowman and Alva Deal, Safety Director Roberts, Miss Carrick of the city health department, Miss Worley of the Juvenile courts and Mr. Leath of the Associated Charities. Austin Andrews, who enrolled at Walworth University at the opening of the school term, has been forced to return to Canton on account of trouble with his eyes, due to overstrain. The Menelik Culture club will meet at the home of Mrs. Clara Adkins, 1001 S. Market St. Wednesday evening. Plans for the "rainbow dance" which will be given Nov. 25 were completed. The Jolly Bunch Girl Reserves gave an afternoon Halloween party at the Community house Tuesday. At the last regular meeting of the B. B. B. club the following committees were appointed: Program—Dr. M. B. Williams, chairman; Otis Gillespie, Albert Smith, Elis Dixon and C. Lilly. Social—Johnnie Johnson, chairman; Edward Blalock, G. Palmer, George Dandridge and DeWitt Cunningham. Membership—Fred Saunders, chairman; McKissick Shanks, Cleo Smallwood, Robert Hucles and Percy Richardson. Athletics—L. L. Slaughter, chairman; Russell Hall and Owen Barnes. The following were elected to membership: Elmer Brice, Sydney Butts, Albert Smith, Roosevelt Weaver, Nathan Doyle, Donas Golns, U. S. Ellis and G. W. Palmer. The first program will be rendered Nov. 5. The Sunshine Girl Reserves gave a Halloween party Wednesday afternoon. The Needlework guild committee met at the Community house Wednesday afternoon, with the following ladies present: Mesdames Clementine Evans, Callie Hoffman and William Smith. Miss Stern, The Semper Parva Fidelity club has outlined its program for the year. At the close of the first meeting of each month an outside speaker will appear before the organization.