

MRS. CORA CALHOUN HORNE, NOTED CLUBWOMAN, DIES

BROOKLYN, N. Y., Sept. 23.—Mrs. Cora Calhoun Horne, outstanding over a period of 27 years in the civic and social worlds of Brooklyn, died Thursday at her home, 189 Chauncey St. She was 68 years old. Burial was in Evergreen cemetery Monday.

Mrs. Horne's funeral services, held at the A. Q. Martin Funeral home, 392 Carlton Ave., conducted by A. C. Holley of the Baha'i, a religious cult, assisted by Rev. H. H. Proctor of the Nazarene Congregational church and Rev. George Frazier Miller of St. Augustine P. E. church. Only the immediate family and close friends of the deceased were admitted to the rites. A vocal solo was sung by Miss Ida Brown of Philadelphia.

Native of Georgia

Mrs. Horne, a native of Washington, Ga., was educated in the public schools of Atlanta and at Atlanta university. She became the wife of Edwin F. Horne of Birmingham, Ala., in 1887. Migrating to this city, she began her public career in 1913. During the World war she organized and directed a Y. W. C. A. unit for the American Red Cross, and in recognition of her work in this connection was appointed a member of the mayor's victory committee.

During the presidential campaign of 1924 Mrs. Horne was the national organizer and secretary of the National Republican Women's auxiliary, eastern division.

At her death she was either an official or member of the following organizations: Urban league, Big Sisters, Big Brother and Sister organizations, National Association of Colored Women, Brooklyn Urban league; Brooklyn bureau of charities.

Katy Ferguson - John Hegeman houses, New York branch of the Women's International League of Peace; Foreign Policy association and the International Council of Women of the Darker Races.

The deceased is survived by the widower, an inspector in the department of combustibles of the New York fire department; a sister, Mrs. Frank A. Smith of Chicago; three sons, Edwin F. Jr. of Pittsburgh, Dr. Frank S., dean of the Fort Valley Normal school of Fort Valley, Ga., and John Burke, a graduate pharmacist of this city. All were present at the interment.