

FOR WEEK OF SEPT. 8th--SEPT. 14th

The African leaders and the emerging Africa which is facing a confrontation with the modern world will be an important part of ABC's full-evening of programming devoted to this continent — with Gregory Peck as narrator — when ABC-TV, under the supervision of ABC News, presents "Africa" Sunday, Sept. 10 from 6-10 p.m. Among the African leaders to be presented, many in exclusive interviews with "Africa" newsmen, are top left: President Joseph

Soprano Carolyn Smith-Meyer will be presented in concert Tuesday, Sept. 12, 8:30 p.m. over WTTW-TV, channel 11's "Chicago Festival." Miss Smith-Meyer, who appeared earlier in the season in the opera, "The Telephone," will sing in a variety of settings that range from Catfish Row of "Porgy and Bess", to the Japan of "Madame Butterfly."

Comedian Godfrey Cambridge assumes a serious role when he appears on the "Alan Burke" show, Wednesday, Sept. 13, over WFLD-TV, channel 32. Cambridge will discuss the role of the Negro in the arts today. Another guest on the program will be actor Cornel Wilde.
