Dr. Alain Locke Joins Faculty Of New York School

(Defender New York Bureau)

NEW YORK—Dr. Alain Locke, foremost Negro educator and scholar, has been appointed to the faculty of the New School of Social Research as a visiting professor of philosophy. It was revealed here this week.

Dr. Locke's tenure at the new school is to be an indefinite one. He comes to the New York school after a year on the faculty of the University of Wisconsin. Dr. Locke had formerly been head of the Philosophy Department of Howard University for many years.
