FREDERICK DOUGLASS CENTER.

A very enjoyable social evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Douglass and Prof. Emanuel Johnson was spent Thursday the 21st. A delightful musical program was rendered, of high artistic merit, in charge of Mr. Johnson, with two beautiful piano numbers by himself. A clarinet solo by Albert Jones, a vocal selection by Mr. Browning from Los Angeles, and one from Mrs. Talbot from the same city, who is spending the winter in study in Chicago; two recitations by Prof. van Buren of New York were interspersed between two violin numbers by the chief guest of honor, accompanied by Mrs. Douglass, who also gave a piano solo. A fine musical program is booked for tomorrow at the four o'clock service, with Miss Mattie Miller at the piano and other artists of merit. Rev. Elmer L. Williams of the North Side will speak on the social and municipal activities in connection with his church work. All are cordially invited. Mr. Theodore Taylor's pupils of the Coleridge-Taylor school gave an interesting recital at the Center Tuesday evening.
