

Michigan

BENTON HARBOR

Samuel Miller, Cleveland, O., was the weekend guest of the Poro house.

Joe Mack and Grant Adams, Detroit, visited friends here.

Mrs. Daisy Lee and mother, Annie Gillum, of Muskegon, Mich., visited here over the weekend.

Rev. A. L. Preston preached to a large congregation at the A.M.E. Memorial church. Six new members were added to the roster of the church.

Funeral services were held for David Terrel, deacon of Second Baptist church. The Masonic lodge turned out for their ceremonies. Rev. G. W. Wilson officiated. Choir No. 2 sang. Mrs. Alberta Kathra was soloist.

NILES

Seaman Frank Travick returned to California. He was called here because of the death of his father.

Mrs. Mary Burt, mother of Sydney Burt and Mrs. Paul Aston, is dead.

Jeff Peals is ill.

Members of the graduating class of this year are Mary Jane Gay, Eugene Camady and Alva C. Jackson.

Mr. and Mrs. William Love are parents of a daughter.

Rolland Woodford, stationed at Aberdeen, Md. Proving Grounds, attended the funeral of Thomas Travick.

The Progressive Mothers club elected officers for the coming year, followed by a luncheon at the Golden Rest. Each member received a gift from her secret pal. Twelve members were present. The officers-elect are: Mrs. Parker Taylor, president; Mrs. Fred Shepard, vice president; Mrs. Pearl Jeffries, secretary; Mrs. Thomas Crane, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. John Childres, treasurer.

The Red Rose club met with Mrs. Florence Liggans.

Mrs. Elizabeth Jordon was hostess to the missionary society of Second Baptist church.

ALBION

Robert and Henry Haburn of the Nest, Park Trailer returned from Kentucky.

Mr. and Mrs. William Harris and William Hougue motored to Lansing.

William Tucker is ill.

The Imperial quartet rendered a program in Battle Creek.

Rev. W. L. Hunt delivered an interesting sermon at the morning service at Macedonia.

Deacon J. F. Hunter reported a grand success at the pastor's anniversary.

Jesse Washington and Willie Johnson worshipped at Macedonia.

Julius Hughston is ill.

Fred Wright motored to Battle Creek with the Imperial quartet.

Mrs. Ella Jones, Pittsburgh, Pa., died May 23. She was a sister of Mrs. Arlean Burch. Alfred and Sam Hughes, Mrs. Stella Parson and Mrs. Annie May Smith attended the funeral services.

KALAMAZOO

By Pauline B. Taylor

162 Colony Road

Miss Elizabeth Purchase of Lincoln School has been elected as president of the Teachers' Intercultural Workshop to succeed Miss Dorothy Spaulding. Miss Spaulding served two years.

Miss Rotha Calhoun, formerly of this city, has been honorably discharged from the WACs and is now making her home in Cleveland, Ohio. She has a position with the Veterans' Bureau.

Mrs. Joy Earle, Detroit, was the main speaker on intercultural relations Sunday at the YWCA meeting sponsored by members of the Baha'i group. Miss Gladys Kline was chairman.

Interesting letters have been received by this correspondent from former Kalamazooans in different parts of the country who keep in touch with old friends via this column. Among the most interesting ones have been those from Orville J. Stafford, now in Prescott, Ariz.; Theodore Pettiford, of San Francisco, Calif., and Mrs. Edward Thompson, who made her home here and in Oshtemo for many years. Mrs. Thompson now lives in Los Angeles, Calif.

Mrs. Max Le Compte entertained six guests at the Civic Theater.

Mrs. Ernest Tucker passed away at Fairmount Hospital. She is survived by a daughter, Eudora, of St. Louis, Mo.; son who makes his home in Chicago, and Ernest and Gerald Tucker of this city. Funeral was held from St. Luke's Church.