FREDERICK DOUGLASS CENTER.

Sunday, June 20, at 4 p. m., there will be a musical recital in charge of Prof. H. T. Jackson, leader of the Coleridge-Taylor Musical Club. He will be ably assisted by noted musicians. Again we are assured of a treat worthy of much praise. Tuesday our Woman's Club was well attended, not many being detained by the cars. The year's work was reviewed by the various committees, much progress being shown. The election of officers was postponed until fall, when all members could be present. Mis Ellen Snyder will spend a week at the center as resident worker until the return of Mrs. Celia Parker Wooley.
