

BAHAI CONGRESS TO MEET

The sessions of the Bahai Congress and the thirteenth annual Mashreq-ul-Azkar convention of the Bahai Temple Unity are to be held in Chicago for six days beginning April 23. All meetings will be held in the banquet hall on the ninth floor of the Auditorium Hotel.

At each of these sessions Jenabi Fazel, a celebrated scholar of Persia and formerly professor in the Imperial University of Teheran, will deliver a special lecture dealing with the principles of the Bahai Temple Unity. Mr. Fazel has been touring America in the interests of closer unity between the Orient and the Occident. He is a universal mind who appeals to all types, classes, sects and religions.

The Bahai Temple Unity exists for the presentation of the universal principles of unity and peace. The first Bahai Temple of the western world is being built at Wilmette, Sheridan road and Linden avenue, by those in all parts of the world who are working for universal religion and universal brotherhood. It is called in Persian the "Mashreq-ul-Azkar" or "The Dawning Point of Praises." The model of the temple is now on exhibition at the Art Institute.
