

Mrs. Della Neal of 5229 Wabash avenue gave a delightful dinner party on Friday night in honor of her birthday. A party of friends were invited and had a most delightful evening. Among those present were Miss L. Evelyn Harris, Miss Mary J. Anderson, Prof. J. H. Rainbow, Wheeling, W. Va., and Mr. R. S. Abbott, editor of the Chicago Defender.

Mr. C. H. Calloway of Kansas City, Mo., attorney, was in the city for a few days. He left on Wednesday for the West Michigan resort.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Smith returned from a three weeks' visit in Boston, New York, Philadelphia and Washington. They had a delightful trip.

The Sunday afternoon meeting at 4 o'clock August 3 will be in charge of the University club with an excellent musical and literary program. All are welcome. Frederick Douglass Center, 3032 Wabash avenue.

Mr. Tom Clark of St. Paul arrived in the city during the week to accept a position with the Marquette club.

Mrs. Ruth E. Combs of Marion, Ill., late of Chicago, passed through the city on business. She spent one night in town as the guest of Mrs. C. C. Willis, 3422 Dearborn street.

The W. A. Wallace Bakery Co. make the "Kentucky Loaf" and Wallace Rolls.

Mrs. Edward D. Wimp, son and daughter, after spending their vacation here, have returned to their home in Buffalo, N. Y.

The Young People's Improvement club of Quinn chapel will have their outing at Jackson Park Tuesday, August 15.

Miss Dollie Russ of 918 East Locust street, Little Rock, Ark., is in the city visiting Miss Annie A. Booker at 8 East 33d street.

John R. Winston of 4015 Cottage Grove avenue, the railroad news reporter for the Chicago Defender, is serving on jury this week, beginning August 7, for ten days.

J. A. Walden has been appointed secretary of the Negro Fellowship league.

George L. Douglass, formerly of the Pekin stock company, has returned from the west.

Schiller Emerson is now pianist at Hoskin's Iowa club.

Vincent and Cutler appeared at Riverside park four weeks ago to a draw. Thirty minutes was the limit.

Mr. Spotts and family will leave Saturday for a ten days' vacation. They will visit Mount Pleasant, Iowa, and Dixon, Ill.

Miss Julia Nesbit, a young school teacher of Athens, Ga., is spending her vacation with Mrs. J. T. Henry, the hair dresser of 15 West 27th street.

Dr. P. J. Scott, the ocular specialist of 2636½ State street, has just received a $1.10 x-ray ophthalmometer for measuring the eye ball and looking all through the head.

Miss Cherry Atkinson of New York city and Florence Letcher of Memphis, Tenn., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bunch at 2830 Wentworth avenue.

Mrs. W. E. Butler has returned from a trip to Columbus, O., and expresses herself as delighted with her visit.

Mrs. D. Gibson is once more among us, having been away several weeks visiting friends and relatives in Fulton, Mo.

Chicago has had the extreme pleasure of having within her gates Mrs. Gertrude Garnett-Johnson, a former resident of this city. Mrs. Johnson is one of our prominent society matrons and a musician of no small ability. She was for several years the leading contralto in Bethel church choir of this city. Her voice is of exceeding beauty and the choir lost a valuable member when Mrs. Johnson left us to join her husband in Des Moines, Ia., where they now reside. Many social events for Mrs. Johnson of necessity were abandoned as she was here in attendance on her aunt, Mrs. Bell, who is seriously ill. Chicagoans wish for Mrs. Johnson every prosperity and on her return to the city will graciously extend to her every hospitality to show their appreciation of a woman of her worth.

Mr. Joseph Webb of Galliton, Tenn., is in the city. Mr. Webb is an experienced tinsmith and until recently worked at his trade in his home town. But being a live man he was compelled to protect himself by giving an exhibition of his muscular development and a southern gentleman's (?) face was the punching bag. Luckily he did not receive a necktie of hemp. But no one in the town would engage him to work and necessity forced him to leave his wife and family in Galliton, while he searched for kinder fields of labor. Is it not a shame that a man must not protect his manhood? Let us cry, Unite! Unite! till the thunders roll it, the lightnings flash it and from shore to shore each passing breeze whispers it. Yes, until every man of us takes up the cry and acts upon it. "United we stand, divided we fall."

Mrs. S. B. Piercson of Pittsburg, Pa., is in the city visiting her sister, Mrs. Craighead of 6243 Morgan street.

Miss Lillian Woolfork is in the city the guest of Miss Carrie Pryer of 1347 West 61st street.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Smith of 6022 Aberdeen street left for Belvedere, Ill., Wednesday morning.

Misses Robinson of Michigan are in the city the guests of Mrs. Lyons of 6136 Aberdeen street.

Mrs. A. J. Hall will moved in her new residence, 6202 Aberdeen street, the 17th of this month.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Cornwell and daughter left Friday for two weeks' visit in the woods of Michigan.

Miss Elizabeth Hampton of Xenia, O., a teacher in the public school of Xenia, is visiting her sister, Mrs. E. M. Clark of 3909 Dearborn street.

Miss McFeddle of Indianapolis, Ind.; Mrs. Bates of Springfield, Ill., and Mrs. Spencer of Jacksonville were the guests of the Ideal Woman's club Friday.

Mrs. Woodfork, son and niece, spent Sunday in Benton Harbor, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Freeman of Hot Springs, Ark., are visiting here.

Miss Gertrude Hart of 3236 Wabash avenue will give a whist Thursday evening, August 17, in honor of Miss Jennie Porter of Cincinnati, O., Miss Marshall Leland, Georgetown, Ky., and Miss George Lattimore, Louisville, Ky.

Mrs. Alice Handy of 4733 Armour avenue has gone to visit her mother in Pittsburg, Pa.

Mrs. Mary Lizzie Booker and Mrs. Mason of Frankfort, Ky., are visiting Mrs. Bradley of 3352 Forest avenue.

Mrs. Turpine D. Ferguson of 5615 Wabash avenue and sister Miss Amelia Ward left Monday for an extended tour of the east, visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Ward of Boston, for several weeks.

Mrs. Mattie Richardson of Cincinnati is in the city visiting her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Clements of 5747 Lafayette avenue, for a few days.

Miss Elizabeth Clark of 3812 Wabash avenue entertained with a dancing party in honor of Miss Amelia Ward of Boston, Mass.

Master James F. Brewington, Jr., and mother of 2350 Dearborn street are doing well under the care of Dr. H. R. Smith. Master Brewington, a fine eight pound boy, was welcomed into this world August 6.

Mr. LeRoy Bird, the Negro lightweight wrestler, is back in town after a vacation of three weeks and announces that he is in good condition for the coming season. He will soon begin training in the old "gym" at Douglass Center Athletic club to make ready for some important matches. He was the guest of Mr. Russell at the Monogram last Tuesday night and highly enjoyed the show.

Mrs. Mollie Sawyer and her little granddaughter, Cordella Hyseor, of Sellersburg, Ind., who have been the guests of her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. George Hyseor, at 68 East 28th street of this city, for the past two weeks, have returned to their home.

Mrs. Mollie Sawyer and her little granddaughter, Cordella Hyseor, of Sellersburg, Ind., wish to extend thanks to the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. George Hyseor of 68 East 28th street, this city, for the kindness extended to them during their visit to the Windy City.

Mrs. M. P. Morten of 1511 65th place left Saturday for Olathe, Kansas, and the home of Mr. Morten in Kansas City, Kansas. They are having a hog-killing time.

Mrs. B. V. Hollimon of Duluth, Minn., spent two weeks with her sister, Mrs. Diggs of 2628 Wabash avenue.

Miss D. M. Sandusky of Jacksonville, Ill., head nurse of the Home sanitarium, passed through the city on her way to Washington, D. C., to the nurses' convention. She was the guest of Mrs. George Miller of 3552 Forest avenue.

Mrs. Anna Haddlun of Washington Heights is in the city stopping with Mrs. A. Rob Jackson of 447 East 32d street.

Miss Daisy Glass of Louisville, Ky., is the guest of her brother, Mr. Oliver Morton Glass of 4923 Cotze street, Austin, Ill.

Mrs. W. F. Lawton of 6316 Champlain avenue and Miss Lucy Livingston of 4232 Wabash avenue left Tuesday for a visit to Mrs. Fannie White of Arlington Heights, Ill.

The way to get good bread, ask for the "Kentucky Loaf."

Do you want good plain rolls? Ask for Wallace's.

Mr. G. B. Washington of St. Paul, Minn., spent Monday in our city, the guest of Mr. Samuel I. Lee of 5253 Dearborn street. His daughter, Miss Helen Washington, who has spent the summer with Beatrice Lee, will leave for St. Paul next Tuesday. She has had a delightful time.

Mr. Willoughby Young of Cincinnati, O., the cousin of Mrs. Nora Lee, spent this week in our city. His sister, Mrs. Angle Depriest, is also here, having completed a course at the Chicago university. They are having an excellent time.

Mrs. Julius N. Avendorph, accompanied by her son Frederick and niece Miss Ethel Mitchell, left for Marquette, Mich., Wednesday night, where they will join Julius, Jr., and Mrs. L. A. Avendorph, for a three weeks' stay as the guests of Mrs. H. F. Claven.

Mr. Frank Robinson of St. Louis, Mo., is in the city for a short stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jones of 6641 Evans avenue entertained eight guests at dinner Tuesday evening in honor of Mrs. Charles Jackson of Houston, Texas. Those present were: Mrs. Pains and Miss Brown of Houston, Texas; Mrs. George Baker and daughter-in-law of Glencoe, Ill.; Mr. Owens of Indianapolis, Ind., and Mrs. Julius N. Avendorph. It was a delightful affair and all enjoyed the many good things.

Wendell Phillips settlement held their first China exhibit on Wednesday afternoon and evening at 2009 Walnut street under the direction of Mrs. Margaret Anderson. It proved a very enjoyable affair.

Mrs. Benjamin Washington was the guest of Mrs. Avendorph to see "Little Miss Fix-It" at the Chicago opera house August 8.

and Mrs. Benjamin Washington the guest of Mrs. Smith Monday, August 7, at the Juvenile court and Hull House.

Miss Jennie E. Noel, Nashville, Tenn., daughter of Dr. Noel, accompanied by her mother and father is the guest of Miss E. Thomas, 3308 Indiana Ave. Miss Noel had no more than struck the town when she was on the go. It is said she has had three proposals already by some of our young lawyers, doctors and post-office men, but say, boys, isn't she a dream. Papa is in town, though.

Lady S. S. Paul was seen on Monday at the head of 80 children on the way to Jackson park. At one time we thought it was the Salvation Army, but we found out that it was the Exquisite Club, doing its duty for the poor children.

Mr. and Miss Leon L. Diggs, 2628 Wabash, will move from there in a short time to their own home, just bought, 3550 Rhodes Ave. We are glad our young people are beginning to get this land. It would be well for some of them to get a little State St. property for business reasons. Mr. Diggs is a theatrical man, having traveled with the Byron family for several seasons. How proud we are to see him use his money in this direction.

Dr. Sarah Fitzbutler, Louisville, Ky., left for home on Monday, after a three-weeks' stay with her daughters, Mrs. Mary P. Waring and Mrs. Leon Denison, 4529 Vincennes Ave.

Miss Mabel Burgess returned to her home in St. Louis, Mo., Saturday, Aug. 12th, after a six weeks' stay in Chicago. Miss Burgess has been a pupil of Mr. Liebling's music class.

Mr. Arthur G. Free, of Welch, one of West Virginia's most successful colored lawyers, spent Wednesday in the city with his friend, Mr. A. T. Waller, railway mail clerk, 4925 Wabash Ave. The attorney was greatly impressed with Chicago and declared he was coming back soon for a more extended visit. Mr. Free was en route to Denver, he being a delegate to the educational convention which convenes in that city.

Miss Minnie Gray of 418 Roseland street, Louisville, Ky., is in the city visiting Mrs. Britton of 5426 Dearborn street.

Elmira Temple No. 21, Lady Elks. Mrs. Anna Price, Dt. Ruler, will give the first entertainment of their existence on next Thursday night at Jackson Hall, 2961 State St. You, yourself and a few friends are invited.

The Marquett Club is now at the post, ready to start off with the tap. The one club will have four jockies each at a 100 to 1 shot, with Wm. Bowman, Pres.; Bob Caruthers, Mixologist; Tom Clark, Mgr., and Chas. Shield, Sec'y, up. The boys are in hopes of winning in their handicap and from the looks of things around the judge's stand at 3008 State St., the boys will make the bunch if they do not lead. Look out for their big ad and write up in next week's issue. Hi! They're off in a bunch.

Mrs. Ed. Wimp, Buffalo, N. Y., who spent about ten weeks in the city with her mother, returned to her home to meet her husband, who had spent eleven weeks in Mexico on a business trip.

Mrs. Katie Glass' brother, who was the guest of Mrs. Rittie Carter, 3426 Prairie avenue for the past three weeks, left for her home on Thursday in Montgomery, Ala.