

THE BUCKEYE STATE

By ALEXANDER O. TAYLOR
Cleveland, Ohio, July 7.—Mrs. James H. Weaver, East 43d street, who suffered a paralytic stroke last week, is improving slowly. Mr. Weaver was in Columbus to attend the funeral of John H. Bowles, the well known Mason, when notified of the sudden illness of his wife. Mr. F. Harris, 2477 East 79th street, athletic instructor and head waiter at the Lake Forest club, is planning a trip with his wife to Chicago to visit his mother, 3115 Ellis avenue. A. T. Abbott, vice president of the Anchor Life, was in Elyria, Ohio, Friday. Lela Andrews, 2217 East 43d street; Clara Turner, 2227 East 40th street; and Nettie Jackson, 3019 Central avenue, are the Cleveland girls who arrived from Washington, D. C., recently to spend the vacation with their parents. They attended the National Business Training school and will leave on Oct. 2. Triedstone Baptist church and Sunday school held their Fourth of July picnic at Gordon park. The Assembly Study club held its last meeting of the season, an indoor picnic at the beautiful home of Mrs. Callie Davis, 14217 Westport avenue, last Wednesday. Next meeting will be held the second Wednesday in September. Mrs. Emma Crosby, East 100th street, mother of Mrs. Robert Dockert and Miss Catherine Crosby, is very ill at the City hospital. Rev. Lewis Thomas, Cincinnati, Ohio, was the guest of his daughter, Mrs. Ernest Woods, 2227 East 40th street. His little granddaughter returned to Cincinnati to spend her vacation. Mrs. J. H. Taylor, wife of Dr. Taylor, 46th and Central, is visiting her parents and other relatives in Jackson, Miss. The Women's Republican club will meet in the offices of the Starlight Realty company Wednesday evening, July 12. Miss Essie Anderson, Washington, D. C., is spending the vacation season with her aunt, Mrs. T. R. Manning, East 35th street. She may remain in the fall and attend business college. The Mozart Glee club has adjourned for the summer, but plans to give an outing in the near future. The Harmonic Choral society has also adjourned, but will give their outing about Aug. 5. Homer Scott, the well known Chicago Defender agent, is waiting table out at the Lake Forest Country club. Edward Moore, a progressive young man, is operating a successful auto bus service at Euclid Beach park for the summer. He has an attractive white car which has a capacity of 25 passengers and is popular among his patrons. Mrs. Preston Robinson, 2241 East 101st street, left for Huntington, W. Va., to attend the graduating exercises of her sister, Mrs. Grace Crump, who finished her training at Barnett hospital and is now head nurse. David Redmond, 2212 East 50th street, who met with a serious automobile accident June 10, is able to about again. The delight of his many friends. Mrs. Clara Larkins, Gardnershire, 2275 East 25th street, was called to Troy, Ala., by the illness of her father, Marion Larkins. Miss May Clark, 2334 East 30th street, is in Huron Road hospital recovering from injuries sustained when hit by an auto. A. H. Harralson, 2500 East 33d street, is rejoicing over the arrival of a fine daughter, Catherine Beulah Harralson, who arrived several days ago. Mr. Harralson is one of the superintendents of the Hope Aid and Relief association, fraternal department of the Anchor Life and Accident Insurance company, 4316 Central avenue. Mr. Harralson's nephew, little Clarence Nelms, is one of the latest hustlers of the Defender. One of the hottestest affairs of the vacation season was the party given by Misses Ethel Turner and Vernie Leslie last Monday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Turner, 2253 East 103d street, in honor of Miss Evelyn Lucas of Windsor, Ont., niece of Rev. S. A. Lucas, and Mrs. Ed Gales, who is here for the summer. Miss Lucas, pianist, and Elsworth Harris, violinist, rendered several selections and special piano music was rendered by Abram Robinson. Mrs. Mary E. Anderson, Dayton, Ohio, and Attorney Gordon S. Merrill, New Albany, Ind., were elected directors of the Anchor Life and Accident Insurance company at the last meeting of the board of directors. Each purchased 100 shares and qualified. W. W. Canton, formerly of Mound Bayou, Miss., has accepted the general management of the Kaxmo Realty company, 4713 Central. Best wishes from the Defender, Mr. Canton.

Present Day Reception
Cleveland society witnessed one of the prettiest affairs of the summer season when they attended the annual reception of the Present Day club in the beautiful banquet hall of the Caterers' association, 2216 East 40th street, last Friday afternoon. Over one hundred attended in spite of the extremely hot weather and partook of the hospitality of the members of this very popular club. The decorations in orange and olive, the club colors, drew many complimentary expressions and the program was high class, those participating being Mrs. George Willis Thompson, Mrs. Kattie Skeene Mitchell, Mrs. Hazel Blake Lyons and George E. Colburn, vocalists, and Miss Bell of East 103d street gave a pleasing leading number and was well received. Sumptuous refreshments were served and music was rendered by an orchestra. To Miss Mabel Clarke and Mrs. Sophia Bailey, chairman of the program and refreshment committees, respectively, is due unstinted praise for the social success of the affair. The deaths of Mrs. Helen Turner, niece of Mr. and Mrs. George Brooks, East 90th street; Miss Fanny Ballard, active young member of St. John's Sunday school; Frank Moore, husband of Mrs. Nannie Moore, East 34th street; Mrs. J. H. Oliver, formerly of East 43rd street, wife of Elder Oliver of the Pentecostal church, and Ida Myler Banks, the 14-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Banks, East 100th street, were severe blows to the entire community. The best of ones have the deepest sympathy of the Defender in their sad losses. Mr. and Mrs. George Dean, East 56th street, left Sunday morning for Detroit to attend the annual convention of the Dean family. They stopped with Mr. and Mrs. John Smitherman, East Elizabeth street, while in Detroit. Mrs. Frank O. Fridgeon, East 56th street, spent the July 4th holidays in Detroit as the guest of Miss Bradley, school teacher. Mr. and Mrs. William McIntire, East 55th street, have as a summer guest their niece, Ruth McKinney, Chicago. Editor O. A. Forte of the Advocate, Welcome T. Blue, real estate dealer, and Rev. Charles Bundy attended the board of trustees meeting of the Industrial and Normal Institute in Wilberforce Friday. Mrs. Clayborne George, physical director of the Washington, D. C., schools, arrived in the city last week to join her husband, Attorney George. They will probably reside on East 71st street.

Improved Woodmen Meet
The grand lodge of Ohio of the Improved Order of Woodmen and state grand sisterhood (ladies' department) will hold their sessions in the home office assembly room, 3803-3807 Central avenue, Cleveland, August 1, 2 and 3. All persons expecting to attend the sessions will please communicate with A. Hunter, chairman of the home committee, 2609 45th place, Cleveland. A hot contest is on for the grand mastership of Ohio since the death of Grand Master H. H. Hearing in Akron. Thompson Jackson, Mansfield, Ohio, seems to be in the lead for the honor. C. C. Cade, supreme commander, will be in charge of the sessions. Miss Ida Gray, school teacher, is spending her vacation with her mother and sister in Washington, D. C. Mrs. Olive Laster, 2561 East 101st street, will leave in a few days for a visit with her friend, Mrs. Annie Ornes, Salem, Ohio. Mr. Nolligan handles the Defender and is progressive.

Miss Taylor a Debutante
On Friday evening, June 23, one of the prettiest parties ever to claim Cleveland society's attention was that given by Dr. and Mrs. Oliver A. Taylor in honor of their daughter, Miss Thelma Louise Taylor, one of the most charming debutantes of the season. When the guests arrived they were met by the Misses Blanche E. Johnson and Hortense Mitchell and escorted to the south side of Olive academy, where the party was held. There under a bower of red and pink rambler roses and profuse greenery Mrs. Taylor, Miss Taylor and her guests received. Mrs. O. A. Taylor, who wore a French model of white satin draped in black jetted lace and a corsage of roses, stood at the head of the line. Standing next to her mother was Miss Taylor, attired in a crystal satin with panels of chintilly lace and a corsage of American beauty roses. Next was Miss Elsie Evans, Chicago, Ill., dressed in a white dress of crepe de chene; Miss Dora Atkins, Indianapolis, Ind., in a simple model of white tulle, trimmed with many ruffles, and Miss Ethel Black, Akron, O., in a pale pink crepe. The corsages were of yellow tea roses. The hall was artistically decorated in pale pink and light green and a profusion of palms besides the many gift bouquets of which Miss Taylor was the recipient, here and there graced the beautifully decorated hall. In the southeast wing of the hall delicious and refreshing punch was served. At midnight the grand march, led by Miss Taylor and Perry B. Jackson, was held. As the long line of beautifully gowned ladies and stately gents passed around the hall numerous favors, whistles, cigars, etc., were presented and an abundance of confetti further enhanced the pleasure and enjoyment of the congenial group who enjoyed dancing to the strains of Cheatum's Harmony Players. Many out-of-town guests were present, among whom were Mrs. Lulu M. Jamison and son, Attorney Herbert Jamison, Topeka, Kans., house guests of Dr. and Mrs. Taylor. Mrs. Jamison appeared beautiful in a gown of heavily beaded tan crepe with a cascade and fan of matching shade. Others out of the city attending were Miss Phillis Waters and Murray Atkins, Indianapolis, Ind. Miss Taylor's presentation to society will long be remembered by her many friends who showered her with gifts and flowers. She is charmingly sweet, very talented and a favorite among her host of friends.

Starlight Building Begun
The beginning of the excavating for the Starlight Realty building at the southeast corner of Central avenue and East 40th street last week has attracted no little attention. The plans of the company call for a beautiful two-story modern steam-heated building with two large store rooms on the Central avenue side with office suites on the second floor. The building, which is to cost $35,000, will be, it is said, the first and finest building built by race capital in the history of Cleveland. The officers of this progressive company are Joe Hedges, president; Logan Owens, first vice president; Mrs. (Starlight) Ida Belle Boyd, second vice president; Thomas W. Fleming, treasurer, and J. C. Hudson, secretary and general manager. The company is capitalized for $250,000, of which $100,000 is paid in. A jolly motor party composed of Mr. and Mrs. George G. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. McIntire, Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Lemon, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Morton, Miss Bertha Thornton, Mr. and Mrs. Edmondson and Miss Ruth McKinney, Chicago, Ill., spent the Fourth of July at the Edmondson farm in North Canton, O. Another party composed of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Phillips and families spent the day at Barborton. Mr. and Mrs. Walton Ingram, Morrison avenue, with guests motored to Akron for the day. St. John's Mothers' club will meet Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock July 12 with Mrs. B. F. Rucker, 2240 East 81st street, had as dinner guests Sunday Misses Dorothy Bedford, Lucille Taylor and Vernie Leslie in honor of her niece, Miss Evelyn Turner of Windsor, Ont. Mrs. Nettie Berry, 3014 Blaine avenue, has as guest her uncle, Col. D. H. Newman, New York city. Mrs. H. R. Boll, 2422 Central avenue, accompanied by Mrs. George L. Flood, Charleot, Pa., is in Chillicothe, O., to attend a family reunion, also to visit her sister, Mrs. Edward Scott, 2233 East 40th street, spent last week in Detroit as guest of her husband, who is employed in one of the automobile factories there. Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Pulley, East 103d street; Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Berry, East Cleveland, and Mrs. Emma Brewer and families motored to Akron Sunday week to visit Rev. Turner's church.

"Stork Special" Busy
The "Stork Special" was busy again the last few days. Among the homes visited were those of Rev. and Mrs. H. M. Kingsley, East 93d street, leaving a fine baby boy; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hurt, 2255 East 71st street, a daughter; and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Banks, East 100th street. There were only three days between the death of Mr. and Mrs. Banks' daughter and the arrival of their baby son. All mothers and babies doing fine.

Judge Jamison Here
Judge W. I. Jamison, prominent attorney and one of the most eminent men of the Kansas bar, returned from Topeka several days ago and has located at 510 Superior building. The Defender takes pleasure in welcoming Judge Jamison to the fifth city and wishes him unbounded success. The judge has a host of friends and clients here who will join with the Defender in extending him a welcome. He is stopping at the Geraldine hotel, 2212 East 40th street. Mrs. Pauline Saunders, Portsmouth, Ohio, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Hattie Hughes, 2245 East 49th street.

Walker-Mountain Nuptials
One of the prettiest of June weddings of the present year was that of George Horliver Walker and Miss Hazel Estelle Mountain, one of Cleveland's most popular school teachers, at the palatial home of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Suggs, East 60th street. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. M. Kingsley of Mt. Zion Congregational church. The presents were numerous and costly. More will be said in next issue. A wedding surprise was that of Mrs. Hattie Hildreth, 2218 East 103d street, and John H. Green, East 46th street. Mrs. Green is a well known nurse and member of the Assembly Study club. George Williams, an employee of the Standard Oil company, was married quietly to Miss Dixon of East 50th street, and Marcus Tedford, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Tedford, East 103d street, surprised his friends by announcing his recent marriage to Miss Sadie Stoner of Dayton, Ohio. Other marriages will be announced in next issue. Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Tedford had as recent guest Mrs. Millie Hawkins, Dayton, Ohio. Mrs. Watts of East 25th street is able to be out after illness. Mrs. Williams, member of the gospel choir of St. John's church, sustained severe injuries when she fell down the balcony steps at the church Sunday morning. Dr. J. H. Taylor was called and announced her in a critical condition.

At the Churches
The next Wilberforce rally for education will be held at St. John's church the first Sunday in August. Each circle is to raise $20. The choir of St. James A. M. E. church, under the direction of Harry Thompson, furnished splendid music at St. Paul's A. M. E. Zion church Sunday afternoon. Rev. Joshua Evans, pastor of St. James, preached for Rev. E. D. W. Bell. The service was very inspiring. Rev. E. R. Brown, evangelist of the Michigan conference, sang several numbers at St. John's church Sunday morning and was well received. The annual union Sunday school picnic will be held at Garfield park Monday, July 13. Mt. Haven Cong. St. John's A. M. E. Second Emmanuel, St. Mark's and other local Sunday schools will participate.
