

THE BUCKEYE STATE

CLEVELAND NEWS

By ALEXANDER O. TAYLOR
2525 Central Ave. Main 3529

Cleveland, Ohio, Sept. 21. — Mrs. Thomas W. Fleming, chairman of the Women's department of the Republican headquarters in Chicago, was here during the week.

Mrs. Hazel Mountain Walker, school teacher, attorney and Republican leader, has moved into attractive quarters at 2291 E. 93d St. Of course, her husband, Herbert Walker, accompanies her.

J. W. Edwards of E. 71st St., who met with a serious automobile accident recently, continues to improve.

Mrs. Alexander H. Hartin, wife of Attorney Martin, is missed in Cleveland this week, while she attends an interracial congregational conference, to which she is a delegate from the Federated Churches of Cleveland. She also seeks an autumnal vacation out of town.

Miller and Lyles are at the Ohio theater next week.

Mrs. George A. Myers of Pasadena Ave. made a delightful motor trip to Akron accompanied by her daughter, Miss Dorothy Myers, and son, Herbert Myers. In Detroit they were guests of Mrs. Charles Cottrell.

Rev. Henry P. Jones, pastor of St. John church and Rev. D. O. Walker of St. James church are attending the conference in Akron this week. Bishop Heard is in charge. A large number of Clevelanders will motor down to Akron Sunday and attend the sessions.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Cochran made a delightful motor trip to Niagara Falls, having as their guests, their mothers, Elizabeth L. Cochran of Denver, Colo., and Mrs. H. C. Tuck of Oberlin, Ohio.

Mrs. Margaret Ingram of Morrison Ave. was to entertain the Book and Thimble club at her home Wednesday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lavender of E. 56th St. have as guest, Miss Martha A. Oliver, of Buffalo, N. Y.

Miss Nell Hackney, social worker, returned Sunday from her home, Greenburg, Pa., after a pleasant vacation with her parents. Her father, Joseph N. Hackney, accompanied her, spending the day here.

Dr. and Mrs. C. S. Tarter of E. 55th St. motored to Olmsted Sunday, their two sons accompanying them.

Mrs. Margaret Miller of E. 55th St. is continuing her visit in Chicago for a week.

The Present Day club is holding its first meeting of the season with Mrs. Sarah Bailey of E. 24th St. this week. Mrs. Alexander Jackson and daughter, Mrs. William Martin and son, Alexander, left Saturday for an extensive motor trip to the East with Mrs. Martin at the wheel.

Captain Jones, head of the nurses corps of the American Woodmen, is recovering rapidly following an operation at Lakeside hospital.

Charlie Wynn will be hostess to the Jay Dee club next Sunday.

Mrs. Abbie Strothers and Mrs. Mary Floyd and daughter, Margaret Miller, of E. 55th St., were guests of Mrs. Lucy Mansson and brother, David Mansson, of Chicago, over the weekend in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Ferris and Hiram L. Coleman of California, Pa., were in the city during the week as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Lyon and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Williams.

Mrs. Raymond Smith of Chicago is spending the week in the city as guest of her grandmother, Mrs. Hayes, of E. 55th St., and other relatives.

The Pittsburgh Cricket club will be in the city next Sunday as guests of the Federal City Cricket club. They will have an interesting game at Gordon park in the afternoon at 3.

Mrs. Carrie Bell Coleman spent Sunday in Chicago with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Bell. She was accompanied by her niece, Mrs. Rose Hunter.

Miss Mamie Banks and Edgar Kirkland of E. 55th St. spent Sunday with Miss Bank's sister, Mrs. Della Allen. They report a most delightful trip.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Carey, daughter, Ruthella, and mother, Mrs. L. D. Greenwood, have returned from a motor trip to Atlanta, Ga. While there they visited relatives and friends in Augusta, Ga., and Montgomery, Ala.

The "four bridge fields," Luther Roffey, Harry E. Pusey, Edgar Moore and Eugene Gillette, spent a delightful evening with bride at the home of Mr. Bailey on E. 16th St.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hensbrough left the city last Friday for Chicago to visit Mr. Hensbrough's mother, Mrs. R. L. Hensbrough, of Rhodes Ave. They have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Robinson of E. 55th St. They made their trip in their automobile. It is hoped that Mr. and Mrs. Hensbrough will locate in Cleveland, where they have made a most of friends.

Mrs. Ardene Leatherman of Chicago is the guest of her grandmother, Mrs. Hayes of E. 55th St.

Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Wallace of Grand Ave. motored to Niagara Falls for week-end with Mrs. Wallace's mother, Mrs. Phillips of Texas as their guest.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernice Sinclair, newly weds, are spending their honeymoon in Chicago. The bride was formerly Miss Helen Troy.

Dr. J. W. Taylor of Pittsburgh spent the week-end in Cleveland as guest of his wife, Corinne Taylor, who is the house guest of her brother and sister-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. F. D. Webster, of E. 93d St. Accompanying him were Messrs. Charles and Harry Taylor.

The Survey club entertained at a "back to high school college" dance Saturday evening at the Cedar Y.

Mrs. Milton Floyd of E. 83d St. reports having a fine time in Philadelphia and the East, according to word received by friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cobb of 2212 E. 63d St. have returned, after a very pleasant visit with their nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Crawford, of 1211 W. Randolph St., Chicago, whom they had not seen for 10 years. They were also guests of Mrs. W. A. Wadsworth and daughter, Mary, and Mrs. Hires, who entertained and accompanied them through the wonderful city of Chicago. They had the pleasure of hearing Rev. Messrs. Jackson of Grace Presbyterian church, and were delightfully entertained by Dr. Bell at 1314 W. Randolph St.

George Neal, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Neal, 234 E. 61 St., left for Hiram, Ohio, where he will enter Hiram college. Young Neal is well known as one of the star basketball and football players at Central high. He will qualify for the varsity team at Hiram.

Mrs. Frances Cook of 2171 E. 55th St. returned from a very pleasant trip to Chicago, where she visited her daughter, Mrs. Orla Mitchell, 3510 E. 55th St.

W. Elihu Cobb and the Musical Mopples played last Thursday in Cincinnati, Ohio. They are making their headquarters now in Philadelphia for the season on the Keith circuit.

Mrs. Anna Dixon, Mrs. Ella Duncan and Mrs. and Mrs. Samuel Vaux motored from Indianapolis, Ind., to spend Labor day holidays with Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Vaux of 2407 E. 56th St. A luncheon was given by the hostess, Thursday of the afternoon. These were regarded as the afternoon. These were regarded as the afternoon. These were regarded as the afternoon.

Following Mrs. Earl Doolittle, first prize, Mrs. Brock, second, and Mrs. Fannie Vaux won the guest prize. Others entertained for the guests in a most delightful manner were Mrs. Earl Doolittle of E. 10th St. with a delicious breakfast; Mrs. James Brock, of E. 83d St. with a beautiful luncheon, covers before 11 a. m.; the guests were cordially entertained by Mr. and Mrs. V. D. McFarlane of E. 55th St. Sunday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Willis of Imperial Ave. entertained with chess supper for guests and family. Mr. and Mrs. Orla Bedford of E. 10th St. entertained with a delightful breakfast Labor day when much fun was experienced in trying to keep awake. One of the enjoyable affairs was the Labor picnic given by Mr. and Mrs. E. Bentley and friends Labor day. Thirty were present. The guests and most of the friends who remained went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sciles and Mr. and Mrs. Carlton on Quebec Ave., where a delightful evening was spent and good times said. The guests then left early next morning for their home in Indianapolis, reporting the best time of their lives.

Mrs. Irene F. McCall spent the week-end pleasantly with relatives and friends out of the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Thomas of Buffalo, N. Y., spent Labor day in the city as the guests of Mrs. Thompson's sisters, Mrs. C. B. Brown and Mrs. J. Smith of E. 10th St. Mrs. J. B. Johnson of E. 7th St. and Mrs. Fred Lavender of E.

56th St. One of the pleasant affairs during their visit was a family reunion.

Freeman-Matcher Nuptials
Among the prettiest weddings of the season was that of Miss Ruth Freeman, daughter of Steve Freeman of Painesville, Ohio, and George A. Mather, son of Mrs. Rosa Lee Mather of 2341 E. 56th St., Wednesday, Sept. 12, at the Freeman home in Painesville. Dr. Russell E. Brown, pastor of Mt. Zion Congregational temple, Cleveland, performed the ceremony, which was very impressive. Miss Mary Bethel of Painesville, was maid of honor and Warren Mather, brother of the groom, was best man. Mrs. Raymond Smith sang and Mrs. Susan Martin was at the piano. A reception followed the ceremony which was attended by members of both races. The couple received a large number of costly and useful presents. The bride is very popular, being a graduate of the Freeman Hospital Nurses' Training school, Washington, D. C. The groom is one of our best known young men. They left for Montreal on a motor trip and will visit several points in Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. McIntire, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Monon, Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Lemon and son, Master James Lemon, Mrs. Grace Lucas and Mrs. Minerva Taylor composed a very delightful motor party to Toledo, Ohio, for the weekend, being the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clemens of Woodland Ave., that city.

Miss Azule Temple of Cornell Rd. has returned from a visit in New York City. Miss Alma Gentles, sister of Mrs. Minnie Gentles, owner of Gentles flower shop, Cedar Ave., writes Cleveland relatives that she is leaving New York City for a trip abroad. She is to visit her sister in Wemington college, London.

Dame Rumor has it that Miss Florence Jones, 1213 Oakfield Ave., will become the bride of William Butler, a graduate of Carnegie Institute, Pittsburgh, Pa., very soon. Miss Jones is a very charming young woman.

Mrs. and Mrs. William Kibbler of E. 25th St., entertained in honor of Miss Jennie Williams and Miss Geraldine Lutz. Other guests were Opella Edington, Walter and Virgil Williams.

Dr. and Mrs. W. Young of E. 38th St., entertained Friday evening at their party home, honoring their sister, Mrs. Alice Avon, who is Mrs. C. W. Winburn of San Antonio, Texas, who are here for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Turner of 8707 Cedar Ave., had as recent guests several members of the Turner family, among whom were Mrs. Cornelia Collins, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Mrs. Anita Clay and two children of Philadelphia, Pa.; Mrs. Hilda Turner and brothers, Masters George and Roscoe Turner of New Orleans, La., and their father, George Turner. Mr. Turner is also the father of Atty. A. L. Turner. They were given a royal time in Cleveland. Mrs. Turner is Mrs. Minnie Gentles Turner of flower shop fame.

Mrs. William Shaw of E. 56th St. is visiting relatives in Los Angeles, Cal. Mr. and Mrs. George E. Cochran of Westchester Ave., have as their guest Mr. Cochran's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Cochran of Denver, Colo.

Among the popular teachers who are resuming their work next week is Mrs. Sara Barbee Howard. Mrs. Howard, who is a graduate of the Cleveland School of education and former teacher in our public schools will teach history and civics at Brewer Normal school, Greenwood, S. C., the coming year. Many pleasant affairs have been in her honor, among which was a party given by the Mrs. "500" club at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hamilton of Chain Ave. Mrs. Howard is a member of several clubs which are very reluctant to have her leave.

The Arbor Vitae club held its regular meeting at the home of the president, C. H. Porter, 5802 Quebec Ave. After the business program a very pleasant evening was spent at cards. A delicious luncheon was served by the hostess. Mrs. Lucille Hoy, who has been absent for two months on account of the illness of her sister in Texas, will be present at the next meeting at 2183 E. 54th St. W. L. Haffley, ex-president and one of the founders of the club, tendered his resignation. Mr. Walker is still on the sick list. C. H. Porter, President; U. W. Hoy, reporter.

Ruckers Return
Many Cleveland cars were seen along the highways leading to Chicago during the season, according to Mrs. B. F. Rucker, wife of Dr. Rucker, who has just returned from Chicago, having made the round trip at the wheel of her car without a mishap. She was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Roger Jackson, Miss Lillian Hill Page and Misses Zenobia and Quindelyn Rucker and Junior Rucker. While in Chicago they were guests of their sister, Mrs. B. F. Rucker, while Miss Page visited relatives, spending a few days with her uncle, Atty. Hill, and his family at Idlewild, Mich. Many pleasant affairs were given in honor of Mrs. Rucker and her party.

Atty. H. S. Chauncey, president of the Empire Savings & Loan Co., attended the meeting of the Bankers' association in Louisville last week.

Brooks-Miller Marriage
The marriage of George E. Miller of 2300 E. 57th St. and Miss Gladys Brooks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Brooks, 2261 E. 54th St., was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents Wednesday Sept. 5, at 2:30 p. m. Rev. Jackson of Highland, Pa., performed the ceremony. The bride's only attendant was Miss Ruth Mae Leach. Both were beautifully gowned. The reception for 200 guests was held at the bride's home at 3 p. m. Many out of town friends were in attendance, among whom were Mrs. Thomas L. Bentley of Pittsburgh, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Ray Jones and daughter of Youngstown, Ohio. Many beautiful and useful presents were received. The couple will reside at 2303 E. 57th St.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Droe of E. 51st St. had as guests last week Mr. and Mrs. Robert Davis and Mrs. Davis' brother, Mr. Barnes, and Mr. Gary of Chicago. The party was returning from a tour of the East, leaving Tuesday for Chicago.

Prof. and Mrs. Francis Gregory, accompanied by their mother, Mrs. Burdine and son and daughter, Francis Gregory and Miss Le Verne Gregory, left last Wednesday in their sedan for Washington, to remain permanently. Prof. Gregory and daughter will resume their duties as teachers at Miner Normal and Dunbar high school, respectively. The son, Francis A., will teach at the T. & M. college at Greensboro, N. C. The younger Gregory graduated with honors from Case School of Applied Science last June. Monroe Gregory, the younger son, will remain in Cleveland to continue his studies at Western Reserve, preparatory to taking up medicine.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Glasco of Cedar Ave. and little Clara and Betty motored to Dayton for the Labor day holidays.

Miss Clorice Courtney of Baltimore, Md., is the house guest of her brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Simmons, of E. 56th St.

Miss Mozelle Kersey has returned to her home in Bellefontaine, Ohio, after a very pleasant visit with her sister, Mrs. Myrtle Sharps of the Sharp Music Shoppe, 9212 Cedar Ave.

George Cowell of Toledo, Ohio, was in the city as the guest of his wife's sister, Mrs. William S. Neal of E. 82d St.

Mr. and Mrs. James S. Meridith of 5102 Cedar Ave., had as guests for a few days prior to their leaving for Washington, the Gregory family.

Mrs. Florence Brown of Chicago, Ill., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Rufus Buford of E. 75th St. Mrs. Brown is well known in the social and political life of Chicago and has a host of friends in both cities.

The Bonae Puellae club held a very interesting meeting at the home of Mrs. Alice Brown, Monday. For an interesting program was rendered. Mrs. Shirley Stull was admitted as a new member. Plans are being formulated for the fall dance. The next meeting with Mrs. Laura Smith, 2249 E. 39th St. Mrs. J. B. Shontee, president; Mrs. W. Clemmons, reporter.

Miss Ruth E. Hill of 10 W. 112th St., New York City, has returned home after a delightful visit with her mother, Mrs. Annie Strong of 8222 Central Ave. Among those who entertained for her most delightfully was Henry Anderson. She was the happy recipient of many social courtesies.

Mr. and Mrs. Georgina A. Simmons of 5424 E. 56th St., are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a fine eight-pound baby girl. Mother and daughter are doing fine. Mr. and Mrs. Simmons are formerly of Baltimore, Md.

Mrs. Alice H. Thomas of 1906 Longfellow Ave., left for Boston, Mass., to visit her son, Dudley Hubbard Thomas. From there they will go to New York, where young Thomas will resume his studies in law.