

living are the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. M. A. Richards, Jennie A. Self, B. F. Self and Joe Self of Pittsburgh, Pa.; John M. Self of Zanesville, and Mrs. Emma Patton of Chicago, Ill.

Donner Bible class of 40 chorus voices will give an entertainment at Union Baptist church Thursday. This will commemorate the 12th anniversary of the Community center on S. Sixth St. Rev. W. C. Roberts of the Park St. Wesleyan Methodist church and others attended the Ministerial association meeting at Coshocton, Ohio.

Women's Study club met Monday afternoon at the Community center of which Mrs. Rebecca Kinney was hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Adams of Pine St. were called to Springfield, Ohio, by the illness of Mrs. Daisy Fortis.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brown of Park hotel visited in Newark.

WELLSVILLE, OHIO

By Harry Stringer

Word was received here of the death of Mr. Molbrough of Barnesville, Ohio, by Mr. and Mrs. William Molbrough of this city. A turkey dinner will be served in the A. M. E. church by the stewardess board for the benefit of the church. The Missionary circle met Thursday at the home of Mrs. Lena Brown. A Sunday school rally will be held at the A. M. E. church Nov. 22. Members and friends of the Flying Stars were entertained Thursday at the home of Miss Willa Perry. Union missionary auxiliaries will hold their regular meeting Dec. 6. Jewel Robinson was a business visitor to Pittsburgh, Pa. Members of the Needlecraft circle met Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. I. Payne. Mrs. Julia Lyons is confined to her home because of an accident. Mrs. Emma Spires and Mrs. Richard Carter were Alliance business visitors.

IRONTON, OHIO

By Thelma Calloway

The Evening Star club of Fourth St. Baptist church met at the home of Mrs. Ida Steward. Emmet Eckols, president; Miss Obe Crumley, secretary; Mrs. Dora King, treasurer. Misses Evelyn Brassfield, Nancy Jane Pleasant, Hershelene Brassfield, Margaret Livisay, Maude Harris, Rossetta Davis and Jane Livisay attended the Ashland-Louisville football game in Ashland, Ky. Rev. J. N. Gumbis, the new minister of Quinn Chapel A. M. E. church, preached his first sermon Sunday. Rev. Mary Lou Henderson, evangelist, has carried on a revival in Quinn chapel for a week. Miss Hershelene Brassfield of the eighth grade, Miss Thulma Calloway of the ninth grade and Miss Ruby Williams of the 10th grade were honor students of their classes for six weeks. The J. O. Y. club of Quinn Chapel church has resumed activities under the leadership of Mrs. J. N. Gumbis. Last rites were held for Miss Louise Lee at Fourth St. Baptist church Saturday afternoon. Burial was in Woodland cemetery. The Sunday school of Quinn chapel had a business meeting Friday night to elect new officers. The funeral of Charles Collins was held in Tridestone Baptist church. Burial was in Woodland cemetery. Many relatives from out of town attended. Charlie Robinson is very ill at Deaconess hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Prince have returned from Detroit, Mich. Please send all news to the agent, 713 S. Seventh St.

CINCINNATI, OHIO

Marion Hamilton of 617 Richmond St. is engaged to Miss Joan Holland, 715 W. Seventh St., Philadelphia. Mrs. Georgia Hughes and Miss Virginia Hughes entertained with a bridge party Armistice day in honor of Edward Jackson and Jack Mann. The prize was won by Miss Brown of Cleveland.

OXFORD, OHIO

An oyster supper was given at the Christian church. Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Ayers and William Ayers and children motored to Chicago. Irvington and South Bend, Ind. Mrs. S. E. Ryrd, Miss Louise Clarke and Lawrence Herndon attended the funeral of Fernan Watson in Middletown. Mrs. Logan Peake was here Friday. Miss Nicola Barry entertained the Kappa Sigma Delta fraternity. Mrs. S. E. Ryrd entertained the Ladies Improvement club meeting. A delicious buffet luncheon was served. The ladies of the Eastern Star lodge met with Mrs. Charles Bradley.

AKRON, OHIO

By Mrs. Andrew Jackson

Mr. and Mrs. G. Watt, 445 Cuyahoga St., were hosts to the Jolly 12 club. Prize winners were Mr. Watt, Mrs. Aschby, Mrs. Brackens and Mr. Ashby. A midnight lunch was served. The North Bridge club met at the home of Mrs. Thomas Greene, 289 Scott Ave. A delicious luncheon was served, after which cards were played. Guests were James Russell and Mrs. William Stokes. Prizes were awarded Mrs. Thomas Fletcher and Mrs. H. Jackson. The three-month tournament was played off at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Duncan, 487 Warner St., Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. George Blake received a bridge lamp. The next meeting will be with Mr. and Mrs. C. Patterson, 416 Perkins St. Members and their husbands were participants in a Halloween party given by the Akron Ladies Bridge club at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Jackson, 639 Moon St. Bridge and games were pastimes. Prizes went to Mamie Newberry, Edward Cathern, Erna Forby, C. Patterson, Fred Duncan and Edward Cottan. Mr. and Mrs. Flee Reed of Wadsworth entertained Mr. and Mrs. James Mayberry and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Helm of 915 Star St. Mrs. John Ashby, 309 W. North St., were surprised by Mrs. James Anderson and Mrs. Andrew Jackson with a birthday party. Bridge was played and a delicious supper served. Mrs. Frank Fair, Mr. Brackens, Mrs. G. Watt and Mr. Anderson were prize winners. Mrs. Ashby was presented with a beautiful satin bedspread and pillow by her friends. The Wednesday Bridge club met with Mrs. John Ashley, 309 W. North St. Luncheon was served at 1:30. Prizes were captured by Mrs. Truesdale Jones and Margaret Lander. Guests receiving prizes were Mrs. O. Jackson and Helma Warfield. Mrs. Brackens will entertain the club next.

UHRICHSVILLE, OHIO

At St. John A. M. E. church the pastor, Rev. John Little preached. His wife, little daughter, mother and Mrs. Verona Little accompanied him to Scio, where he preached. Elmer Olmstead and Miss Sarah Brown visited Scio Sunday. William Smith and sister, Miss Blanch, visited in Coshocton. Mr. and Mrs. William Jenkins of Massillon were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Romeo Taylor. Mr. and Mrs. William Warren of Canton spent Sunday with the latter's mother, Elizabeth Smith, agent.

TOLEDO, OHIO

This month marks the 12th year of the work of the Frederick Douglass Community association. A memorial service will be held the fifth Sunday and a special pilgrimage will be made to the grave of Alburus Brown, founder and benefactor of the work. The girls activities committee is sponsoring a pre-Thanksgiving charity ball Nov. 24. A special feature of this event will be the awarding of a prize to the most cheaply dressed woman. Frank Lightfoot's Black and Tan Night Owls will furnish the music. Members of the committee are: Mrs. Eleanor Randolph, chairman; Mesdames Ida Mae Fox, Vashli Braloy, Constance Heslip, Marion Randolph, Georgine Johnson, Odell Clark, Jessie Brown, Ladonia E. Speedwell, Bertha Irvin, Anna Singleton, Anna Ferguson and Miss Ida Price. The Progressive Art club, an organization of high school girls, will make its debut in two one-act plays during Thanksgiving week. The main object of the club is progressive art work, such as fancy needle work, flower making, painting and designing. Members of the club are: Mary Lou Cox, Arnell Redman, Hattie Jacobs, Leola Thomas, Gertrude Armstead, Kathryn Martin, Nellie Hill, Elizabeth Chapman, Lillian Mae Hardin, Margarette Mitchell and Thelma Griffith. Miss Marie Speedwell, daughter of Mrs. L. E. Speedwell, women and girls worker at the center, is instructor.

The Mothers Sewing circle is doing good work in cutting, fitting, remodeling and designing. The circle meets at the center every Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. There are four good sewing machines and other equipment for persons desiring to know more about the art of sewing. Competent instructor. The Industrial Girls, an organization of employed women, has been recently formed. There are 12 members of the group. The meetings are held at the Y. W. C. A. and the club is affiliated with the general program for employed women as carried on by that institution. The object of this movement is to bring about a better relationship between employed women and girls of all races and nationalities and to afford certain protection as to working conditions and adjustments. The following persons are rendering fine service as volunteer workers at the center: William Thomas, Robert Stanton, Joseph Doneghy, Mrs. Hattie Mae Stewart, Mrs. Emma French, Miss Marie Speedwell, Miss Minnie Lou Young, Leon Carter and Mrs. Lawson. Dec. 1 will mark the close of the second year of the present regime of the Douglass center. Mr. Stalnacker, executive director, having begun his work two years ago. The occasion will be observed by a series of entertainments and exhibitions sponsored by the various clubs. It is significant to note that when Mr. Stalnacker took charge of the work two years ago the activities of the center were at their lowest ebb. A glee club and a basketball team were the only functioning activities. Today there are 22 different activities besides basketball. In this field there are 10 teams, including both boys and girls.

SPRINGFIELD, OHIO

Mrs. Corinne Snowden Burnett

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Evans of S. Yellow Spring St. have a baby daughter. Mrs. Evans was formerly Miss Leona Hickman, Harry Kimbrough, age 40, died at his home, 627 Miami St., following an illness of four days of pneumonia. Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Hattie Kimbrough; mother, Mrs. Nancy Kimbrough; daughter, Miss Florence Kimbrough; four sisters, Mrs. Jennie Grinnay, Mrs. Mary Thomas, Mrs. Jodie Foster of Paris, Ky., and Mrs. Dixie Cunningham of Chicago. John Walls, age 23 years, 807 W. Liberty St., died Sunday from gun wounds at the city hospital. Surviving Walls are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Walls of Dixon, Ky.; four sisters, six brothers. The body was taken to his home in Dixon for burial. Rella Price, age 55, died at city hospital Nov. 4. Surviving are his father, brother and sister, Mrs. Carrie Rucker of Springfield and Mrs. Charles Portman of Lima, Ohio. Funeral services were held at Patterson funeral home. At Memorial hall Nov. 21, under auspices of Springfield Foremen's Boxing club will have a match. Center St. Y. M. C. A. quartet is entertaining for community campaign fund workers for poor and needy and unemployed, with a goal of $185,000. Quartet members are Conrad Clark, Sylvester Sisco, Alonso Sisco and Nathaniel Jones. These boys also sang at the Y. M. C. A. boys camp. Rev. W. S. Smith, secretary of the Y. M. C. A., has charge of these boys. They will sing during the community drive. Clark St. branch Y. W. C. A. plans many activities for fall and winter and a view to meeting the unemployment situation among race people. Dr. C. L. Riddle of Wilberforce university will speak. Mrs. David Evans, chairman of the musical committee, promises help. Hazel Wilson Clark, 14, 405 W. Clark St., died at Clarke County sanatorium. Surviving is an uncle, Buster Cahill; two aunts, Mrs. Allen Clark and Mrs. Margaret Collins of Springfield. She was a member of Mt. Zion Baptist church. Mrs. Milton Wright of Weldon Ave., is improving. Mrs. Gertrude Logan is convalescing at her home on Ohio Ave. Mrs. Ella Anderson is improving after a serious operation. Mrs. Mary Dent of 908 W. North St. is improving. Miss Gertrude Dent of 908 W. North St. spent Sunday in Cincinnati as a guest of her cousin, Mrs. Fannie Franklin. Antonia Bailey post No. 125, American Legion, participated in memorial exercises at Ferncliff cemetery.

ALLIANCE, OHIO

Mrs. Margaret Davis died at the Mollie Stark hospital and the body was shipped to Chattanooga, Tenn. Sunday will be home-coming at Second Baptist church. Mrs. K. T. Thompson will be the principal speaker. Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Jackson and Mrs. McD. Sharps motored to Smithville to attend the funeral of Mrs. Wess. Mr. Wess was the mother of Mrs. Mary Clegg. A musical program was rendered Sunday at St. Luke's A. M. E. church by Mr. McConnell. The Young Men's B. B. club entertained 24 at their guest meeting Friday night. Rev. Clifford Gordon and Rev. J. T. Payne were the speakers. A program was rendered by the B. B. boys.

ZANESVILLE NEWS

By HARRY R. STOTTS

ZANESVILLE, Ohio, Nov. 21.—The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People met at the Community center and selected the nominating committee to choose officers as follows: Mrs. James Simpson, chairwoman; Mrs. Lella Anderson, Wallace Needham, Gus Gontley and Harry R. Stotts. The business meeting and election of officers will be held Nov. 30.

The Woman's Mite Missionary society of St. Paul A. M. E. church met in regular session at the home of Mrs. Torrington M. Tate of W. Muskingum Ave. Mrs. Anna Harris conducted the devotional.

Revival meeting is in progress at West End Ave. Wesleyan Methodist church, conducted by the pastor, Rev. A. D. Jackson, assisted by Rev. Isaac Kennedy, conference evangelist.

Nov. 22 will be rally day at Bartlett church for the benefit of repairs to the church of which Rev. Frank Holbert is pastor.

The Mothers club met at the home of Mrs. Mary Carlisle.

Mrs. E. J. Holbert is reported improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Singer have returned to their home at Cutler, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harris and children, Mrs. Lillie Kennedy and son of Cutler, Ohio, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Harris of Licking Ind.

Funeral services for Miss Eva C. Self, age 68, retired school teacher, were held from the family home, 1119 Mayview Ave. Burial was made in Woodlawn cemetery. Miss Self was a school teacher in Cairo, Ill., the greater part of her life, retiring about 10 years ago when she returned here. She was a member of the Episcopal church of Cairo and the Community center of this city. Sur-