Pets Swamp the Athenians, 36-21

Toledo, Jan. 11.—The Douglass Center Pets of the Frederick Douglass Community center, defeated the Baltimore Athenians in a hard fought game, 36-21.

The Toledo team is composed of high school stars, and is the strongest team in the middle West. The Pets are coached by E. B. Highwarden, Ohio Wesleyan and Clarence Thomas of Toledo university.

The Pets broke the ice by scoring the first basket and held the lead during the entire game. Todd and Baskerville were the high scorers for the Baltimore team, gathering three and four baskets, respectively. Stewart led the scoring of the Toledo team by sinking seven field goals and two fouls.

At the half, the score was 15 to 19 in Toledo's favor.

At the beginning of the second half, Baltimore made a strong attempt to get the lead. Todd, making two baskets straight, made the score 14 to 15. McGlin and Thomas came through with one each, getting the Toledo team out of danger.

A minute later, Stewart came through with another basket, making the score 21 to 14.

After that, the Toledo team was not threatened. At the beginning of the third period, the Toledo team ran up a lead of 12 points, assuring themselves of victory.
