CLEVELAND, O., Sept. 10—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Newman of 3250 East 123rd street, popular in Cleveland social circles, have returned from a two weeks vacation in Richmond, Ky., Springfield, O., and Detroit, Mich.

Mrs. Hobart Mann and two children of Chattanooga, Tenn., were the house guests of Mrs. Pearl Robinson of 2246 East 101st street. While in the city Mrs. Mann was royally entertained. Among the most interesting features of her visit was the day spent at the Great Lakes Exposition. She was entertained royally at a dinner party by Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Mitchell of East Thirty-first street, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Robinson of East 101st street. After her very pleasant stay in Cleveland she left for Detroit to join her little daughter, Roberta, and complete her vacation.

Mrs. Annabel Eskridge of Washington, D. C., was the recent house guest of her niece, Mrs. Bertha Carnes of Hawthorne avenue.

We regret to learn that the Raymond Prices of Massie avenue, met with a very serious automobile accident near Delaware, O., last week en route to California, expecting to spend their three weeks' vacation touring the west. Their car was so demolished that they were compelled to cancel their trip and return home.

Our own smart and charming Mrs. Geraldine Burks has just returned to the city after a two weeks visit in Boston, Mass., as guest of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Smart. She reports a most delightful trip.

Miller Reunion
The annual Miller family reunion at Garfield Park was a huge success as usual. Members of the family came from all over Ohio, Illinois and Canada, representing four generations. The oldest living members of the Miller family are Mrs. Anna Beasley, Mrs. Phebe Richardson of Emmerson, Jefferson county; Mrs. Mary A. Hill, 2424 East Eighty-fourth street, Cleveland. The Millers boast of the largest and one of the oldest families in the country, and are able to trace the family from slavery days, according to Mrs. Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Crawford of East Eighty-ninth street, enjoyed a lovely motor trip to Chatham, Canada, and visited relatives. They returned by way of Pontiac and Detroit, a most picturesque route. Mr. Crawford is a clerk in the city engineer's department and a brother of Mrs. Hazel Mountain Walker, Cleveland's first Race school principal.

Harry Gil-Smith, professor of music at Shaw university, was the guest of John M. Hubbard of 2225 East Eighty-second street, the past ten days. He was royally entertained during his visit.
