

Group Set Up For T.-B. Essay Contest

NEW YORK, Nov. 17—The appointment of a committee of artists and sculptors to select a medal design for use in connection with the annual essay contest of the National Tuberculosis Association was announced this week by Dr. Kendall Emerson, managing director of the association. Richmond Barthe, sculptor, is chairman of the committee.

Other members are Meta Warrick Fuller, Framingham, Mass.; Alain Locke, Washington, D. C.; Wilmer Jennings, Providence, R. I.; E. Sims Campbell and James Allen, both of New York; Sergeant Johnson, Berkeley, Calif., and Archibald J. Motley, Chicago.

The medal contest, which will close on March 30, 1940, is open to Race students in art classes in Chicago, universities and WPA art groups throughout the country. There will be three prizes of $25, $15 and $10.
