

the rostrum were Rev. Turpeau who preached the funeral; Rev. Sumpter who read the scripture; Rev. L. W. Gray and Rev. J. Franklin Walker who offered prayer. Interment was at the colored American cemetery in Oakley.

Miss Josephine Mackey of Richmond spent last week end here visiting her friends.

Mrs. Mable Jamerson returned from a visit with her mother. Mrs. Florence Bowman visited in Lexington.

Mrs. Eureka Harrison has been visiting in Jacksonville, stopping enroute for visits throughout Georgia and Tennessee.

Rev. Hatcher, former pastor at Brown's Chapel A.M.E. church, will lecture at the church on Monday, March 23.

Two of Cincinnati's prominent figures in civic affairs have been recuperating it is reported during the past few days. "Dutch Slater" who, it is reported, suffered injuries from a fall a few weeks ago, is confined at the Cincinnati General hospital. Captain Jay W. Wilkins was taken home from the army Wednesday after he had taken very ill. A heart attack was responsible for his condition.

"Three Corned Moon"

The most interesting program which will be presented for the entertainment of the Cincinnati public in the immediate future is that of the Quadres Society which is preparing the stage version of Three Corned Moon which was shown on the screen starring Claudette Colbert. The comedy will be produced on March 20th and 21st at the Wilson Memorial auditorium on the University of Cincinnati campus. Miss Louise Richmond who is chairman of the publicity committee, says that in order to secure a seat enthusiasts are advised to come promptly at 8:15.

Friday the thirteenth at Douglas night school the Major Bowes program was presented.

Friday, March 20th, the SoReLits held an anniversary celebration, their 16th anniversary, at the church.

Alpha Kappa Alpha sorority will present their annual production at Wilson Memorial auditorium on April 17. "Double Doors" will be their current presentation.

Sunday, the N.A.A.C.P. will present a Borah-Montjoy meeting.

Argus Club

On Wednesday, the Argus club held its regular meeting at the home of their host, William Smith, on Burdette avenue in Walnut Hills. Al Hinson, new member, was escorted to the meeting. Guest speakers of the evening were Councilman R. P. McClain and Henry Ferguson, his campaign manager.

At Zion Baptist church on West 9th street the Hon. Lij Tasfaye Zaphiro, first secretary of the Ethiopian Legation, London, England, was presented by the United Aid for Ethiopia by a committee headed as follows: Atty. Theodore M. Berry, chairman; B. J. Knox, executive secretary; Dr. R. P. McClain, treasurer; and Lewis Biggers, financial secretary.

Mrs. Mildred Thompson and her sister, Miss Edith Collins, who reside in St. Louis, are enjoying a visit at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Collins of Avondale. While in the city, Mrs. Thompson and Miss Collins have met a host of friends and on Friday spent the day in Wyoming where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. Fitzgerald.

West End Branch Y.W.C.A.

The Y.W.C.A. is launching an intensive membership campaign from March 1-15. Miss Margaret Plamer as the general chairman, with her enthusiasm and alertness, is infusing much of her eagerness into the workers. Team A, with Mrs. S. H. Bullock, captain, and Mrs. Fred Seymour, co-captain, is determined to win out over Team B with Miss Ann Boyd captain and Mrs. C. J. Turnell co-captain. The losing team must furnish the winning team with a banquet, so anticipation as to the winning team is keen.

Others working the drive are: Mrs. W. H. Robinson, residence committee; Mrs. E. G. Hilton, Young Matrons club; Mrs. Woodie Barnett, health and recreation committee; Mrs. C. J. Turnell, membership committee; Mrs. John Leland, Business and Professional Women's League; Mrs. James Crosby, camp committee; Mrs. Charles Hunt, equipment committee; Mrs. Alfred Daniels, industrial federation; Mrs. Ralph Belsinger, Junior Council; Miss Dorothy Gillam, World Fellowship Committee; Miss Wilda Gunn, publicity committee; Miss Eulene Stallworth, Ju Ju Girls club; Miss Leon-tine Turpeau, Junior Girls.

Also, Miss Irene Kirk, Mrs. Samuel Cartwell, Mrs. Mayme Smith, Mrs. Mary Finlay, Mrs. Constance Stone, Mrs. Ethel Winn, Mrs. Cathleen Canady, Mrs. Louise Minnes, Mrs. Inez McHenry, Mrs. L. Houston, Mrs. Daisy Merchant Hall, and Mrs. Eva Savage who submitted the highest report for the first week of the drive.

Ninth Street Y.M.C.A.

Boyd W. Overton, executive secretary of the Ninth Street Y.M.C.A., visited Evansville, Thursday and Friday. Mr. Overton was invited to serve as guest speaker at the older boys and girls conference which was held at the Lincoln high school; 201 girls and boys registered as delegates.

Boy Scout News

At the Troop 315's Scout Hall in the Mt. Zion M.E. church at Walter and Altoona streets in Walnut Hills the Boy Scouts have been busy preparing for their sixth annual banquet which will be observed at the church on Tuesday, March 31st at eight o'clock. More than 500 people are expected to attend. Scout Executive A. E. Roberts, from Scout headquarters, will be present to tell of his recent tour around the world by air.

A most interesting program will follow the musical part of the program and as usual the Scout mothers will prepare refreshments. All persons who are interested in the Scout program are welcome to attend this program. Reservations may be made by calling Avon 4963-J.

On Thursday, the Boy Scouts of Troop 315 took their scheduled trip to the Observatory where they viewed the stars through a huge telescope. Scoutmaster William W. Collins announced that at the close of Sunday school on Sunday, the troop will hike according to schedule to Camp Freidlander. Plans for a tour for this summer were made when the troop will go to Canada, as well as points throughout the United States.

Throughout the past week the Boy Scouts of Troop 315 have been extremely busy participating in many Scout activities. On Monday a group of the Scouts as usual attended the first aid course. Tuesday the Merit Badge Club met in our Scout hall in the Mt. Zion M. E. church and much time was devoted to working on pioneering. Wednesday the troop went to the observatory where they were permitted to look at the stars through a huge telescope and on Thursday swimming and life saving instructions were given to the scouts at the Stowe Junior high school. Afterward the class was invited to attend a surprise birthday party given for patrol leader Bentley Fields of the Panther Patrol.

Friday, the regular scout meeting of troop 315 was held in our scout room in the M.E. church on Walnut Hills and was opened by Junior Assistant Scoutmaster Ivan Hampton, who led the scouts in the opening ceremonies. More than 62 Scouts were present and after the reports on good turns, Scoutmaster William W. Collins spoke to the troop in regards to the banquet which will be held on Tuesday evening, March 31, at 8 o'clock. It was announced that on Wednesday the junior officers and green bar members would meet with the scout master at the church at 7 o'clock to prepare for the spring program and on Thursday, drum and bugle corps rehearsals will be held from 7 until 8 o'clock. Members of the Memorial Patrol with Robert Jackson, leader, presented the patrol program and patrol reports were handed in by the patrol leaders and a hike to be taken Sunday was announced by Senior Patrol Leader Chas. Dillard and the usual test passing period was supervised by the junior officers. Saturday the members of our bike patrol in which Earl Cousine is patrol leader took their first hike of motional secretary in the 1935 drive, it was voted, will be secured for directress of the coming campaign.

Singing Contest

The College Hill Singers who were entrants in the singing contest at the Brown's Chapel A.M.E. church Wednesday won first honors. The College Hill trio made up of Miss Margaret Alley, and Emmett and Emma Anderson won the first award. The Mason Singers and Southland Singers were second and third respectively. The trio, a part of the Coans Methodist Episcopal church choir of College Hill shared in the second prize won by that choir. Mrs. Bertha Rodriguez, directress of the College Hill choir, entered both of these prize winning groups.

Brown's Chapel A.M.E. church's Steward Board presented Rev. P. S. Hill, their former pastor, an address on Thursday.

The White Rose Social club were Mr. and Mrs. S. V. Hackney's guests on Thursday.

Mrs. Pearl Lane of Chapel Street was hostess to the L.M.I. Federated club which met at her home on Thursday.

Twill Do Club enjoyed the bounty of Mrs. Genevieve Shields' hospitality on Thursday. The guest of the evening was Mrs. Ruby Embry. The club awards which were unique and well worth the close contest for them, were won by Mrs. Aurelia Parham, Mrs. Marie Johnson and Mrs. Viola C. Burch.

Mrs. James Johnson of Lincoln Terrace was hostess to the Bolivian Art Club whom she entertained.

Cabaret Party

Friday Garland Party entertained in compliment to Mrs. Amelia Dorsay of Toronto, Canada, who was preparing to return home after a visit here with Mrs. Gussie Bowen of Elmwood, her relative. The party was staged at the Cotton Club where reservations were made for the following persons: Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Chenault, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Irving, Mr. and Mrs. William Bowen, Leon Meyers, Mrs. Fannie Coleman, the honoree, Mrs. Dorsay, and the host.

Miss Virginia Jones and Mrs. Mary Flay were hostesses to friends whom they entertained at the latter's home on Friday. Awards to Miss Georgia Beasley and Paul Redden, first, and Miss Marion Shivers and W. N. Lovelace.

The Wilberforce Singers were presented at Brown's Chapel A. M. E. church on Friday, by group number three of which Walter Armstrong is chairman.

Four members of the Ohio League of Democracy were in Cincinnati on Saturday namely, Percy D. Jones, the chairman; S. C. McAllister and Lieut. Mason all of Columbus, Ohio, and Mr. Richardson of Cleveland.

The Alpha Kappa Alpha sorority met on Saturday with Mrs. Martha Wingfield Bush on Gaff avenue.

Contract Bridge

Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Carr of Lincoln avenue were host and hostess to a contract bridge party at their apartment on Lincoln avenue. Cocktails preceded the games for which awards were given to the following: Mrs. Geraldine Thornton, first; George Hull, second, and Nick Newman, the consolation.

The guests of the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Nickolas Newman, Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Penn, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Thornton, Mr. and Mrs. George Hull, Marion M. Hubbard and Edward Thomas.

The Provisional Council for Better Civic and Social Rights for Cincinnati Negroes met on Sunday at the Optimist Center.

At the Evans M.E. Church in College Hill there was a spiritual recital on Sunday conducted by Mrs. Bertha Rodriguez, and presented by Rev. William Green.

Mrs. Goldy Bowen Watts of Madisonville has been very ill at her home on Weltner avenue.

Mrs. Cordelia Huffman is out again after an illness. Rev. Robinson is reported improved.

Attorney A. Lee Beafy is reported much improved though still ill at his home on West Seventh street, where he was removed after a short confinement in the Christ Hospital.

Wiley Darden, 90, who made his home with Capt. and Mrs. Jay W. Wilkins in Mt. Healthy, succumbed to the effects of pneumonia on Wednesday after a short illness. Funeral services were held Saturday from their home. Mrs. Lida Tandy, an old and respected citizen here, one time a teacher in the Cincinnati schools, secretary until her death to the Corinthian chapter of the Eastern Star, an office holder in the Brown's Chapel A.M.E. church, was buried Friday from Brown's Chapel church. Her closest kin was John Webb of this city, a nephew, and a niece who lives at Chicago.

Last services were held for Attorney Thomas Howard on Friday. The remains were escorted to Hamilton for interment.

Ernestine Stewart, the popular and talented young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Stewart of Gaff avenue, died Monday at the Branch hospital after a prolonged illness. Services were held at the Mt. Zion M. E. church on Saturday. A very large audience bowed heads in sympathy with the bereaved family as the last rites were carried out in a dignified and impressive service. Telegrams were received from a host of out-of-town friends among whom were Louise Beavers for whose mother the late Ernestine had been named, Miss Beavers, in Los Angeles under contract was prevented from attending the services. Mrs. Annie Roberts of Pasadena, Calif., also wired as did John Johnson, a brother to the bereaved father. Mrs. Hattie Walker read the telegrams, Mrs. Helen W. King sang. Mrs. Susie Langley sang while Calvary junior choir sang. Among those on

CINCINNATI, O.

By MARION M. HUBBARD
4 Lincoln Terrace

CINCINNATI, Ohio, March 27.—Mr. and Mrs. John Humphrey celebrated their twenty-fifth anniversary at the home of their young son, Lawrence Humphrey. A receiving line was made up of the following persons: Mr. and Mrs. John Humphrey, Lawrence Humphrey, their son, Mrs. Ethel Humphrey Green, their popular niece. Other persons in the line were Edward Green, James Lucas, Mrs. Belle Hutch, and Loring Moore. The host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. John Humphrey, were the happy recipients of many beautiful and useful gifts of silver.

Engaged

The charming and popular daughter of Samuel M. Jameson of Madisonville, Miss Florence Anne, is engaged to Charles Edward Ferguson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Ferguson of Camp Dennison, according to the announcement made by Miss Jameson's father. Plans are made for the marriage which will take place in June.

Organizations

Monday the Churngold Breakfast Bridge Club were Mrs. Mary Harding's guests at her home in Covington. Mrs. Amelia Dorsay of Toronto, Canada, was the out of town guest. Awards to Mrs. Mayme Henderson, first; Mrs. Gussie Bowen, second, and Mrs. James Meyers, consolation.

The Just For Fun Bridge Club were guests of Miss Margaret Riley on Monday. Mrs. Estelle Davis was the guest speaker and made an interesting appeal for the community chest fund. Card awards to the following persons, winners: Mrs. Allene Nahler, first; Mrs. Bessie Robinson, second; and Miss Sophronia Braden, third.

Tuesday, the Baha'i national lecturer, Louis G. Gregory, conducted a most interesting lecture and discussion at the home of Attorney Elsie Austin on Kemper Lane.

Bridge Clubs

Tuesday the O. D. T.'s held their meeting with Miss Esther Jones on West Seventh street. Among the guests who captured the awards were Mrs. Louise Johnson, Miss Edna Buckner, and Mrs. Fannie West. Club awards were carried off by Mrs. Lillian Warren, Mrs. Elsie Hackney, and Mrs. Cynthia Harris.

The Rose Marie Bridge Club were Mrs. Mary Finlay's guests on Wednesday. Mrs. Leon Render was invited to in to play in the stead of an absent member. Awards to Mrs. Martha Howard and Miss Ida Mae Rhodes.

LeBon Temps were entertained on Wednesday when Mrs. Nannie Elliott of Oliver street was hostess. Mrs. Ruby Embry and Mrs. Bessie Robinson were guests of the afternoon. Awards to the following winners: Mrs. Rowena Bull, Marion M. Hubbard, and Margaret Jones.

Combined Meeting Held

Wednesday when the Provisional Council for Better Civil and Social Rights for Negroes in Cincinnati met at the Union Baptist church at Richmond and Mound streets to hear the report of their delegate to the Negro National Congress, Mrs. Estelle Davis, the Civic Rights League and the N. A.A.C.P. executive committee were notified also to attend.

Mrs. Mary D. Britte, who has had an active interest in promoting ample and competent defense for the Montjoy case at Covington, Ky., representing the Civic Rights League made such a detailed report on the facts in the case that the audience was shocked into a desire to help in every way possible to assure Montjoy another and a fair trial. Montjoy is sentenced to be hanged on the third of April at Covington, Ky. It is reported that anticipating a large and enthusiastic spectator body, tickets are being sold to persons interested so that they may be assured of a ringside seat for the hanging.

Mrs. Mary D. Britte and 98 per cent of the membership of the Civic Rights League are white people whose sympathetic interest and determination to secure social justice and civil rights for the underprivileged group far surpasses that which is apparent in our own circles.

A letter from the national office reminded the executive committee that it is time to make plans for the 1936 membership drive of the N.A.A.C.P. Marion M. Hubbard who served as prothe year to Sharon Woods where they worked on various out of door tests it was announced that other Scouts with bicycles in good condition could join the patrol by reporting to our scoutmaster for an O. K.

It is understood that every scout in the patrol be in good standing in the troop. Scout Harold Robinson has been appointed patrol leader to a new patrol and after the song and game period which was led by our Scoutmaster, the meeting adjourned. Taps were blown by George Quarker.