

IN GALA RECEPTION

The Chicago Defender (National edition) (1921-1967); Aug 27, 1938; ProQuest Historical Newspapers: Chicago Defender
pg. 14

IN GALA RECEPTION

A group of Boston and out-of-town pretties gathered at the home of the Frank Snowdens of Harold street, Roxbury, in honor of Mrs. Herbert Tucker, the former Mary Hill, daughter of Leslie Pinckney Hill of Cheyney, Pa., and of Alberta and Helen Allston of Washington, D. C. In the group are: first row, Helen Allston, Eva Moulton, Mrs. Frank Snowden and sitting on the wall, Mary Tucker. Second row, Lillian Schalk, Harriett Brown of Baltimore, Edwina Campbell, Margret O'Banyoun and Mrs. Ethel Freeman. Third row, Adelaide Holbrook of Brooklyn, Alberta All-ston, Helen Carper of Baltimore and Mae Bailey. Last row, Mrs. Isobel Brooks, Mrs. Sanders Wilkins, Hazelle Lomax, Thelma McKee and Dorothy Houston of Washington. Mary Hill Tucker will leave for New York in September to enter Lincoln Hospital Training school.