

Human Right

Day Marks

21st UN Year

Human Rights Day this year makes the 21st anniversary of the adoption by the United Nations of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights. Baha'i Communities in over 2,000 cities will join in the observances of the day.

Theme of this year's observance is "Human Rights —A Universal Standard"

The program, sponsored by the Center Public Meetings Committee, will be held 1 p.m. Sunday at the Chicago Baha'i Center, 116 South Michigan Ave. Room 1108 Speakers are the Rev. Massie L. Kennard and Mrs. Mable Eastman, the latter, the Baha'i speaker.

In its statement on human rights, the United States Baha'i Community points out that "Discrimination or unjust restrictions against persons under any pretext poisons our relationships and thereby creates conflicts which threaten to destroy our civilization. This is undoubtedly the gravest sickness infecting our age."

There is no admission and refreshments will be served.
