

INDIANAPOLIS

By LILLIAN M. LE MON
 1036 N. West street:

ANNUAL COSTUME RECITAL

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., June 4—One of the prettiest groups of the younger set was seen at the annual costume recital of the junior students of the Cosmopolitan school of Music and Fine Arts, Friday at the Y. W. C. A. The little folks' colorful costumes included Indians, Spanish señoritas and representatives of many nations, choir boys, brown bear and rural costumes with variegated flowers and butterflies. The children from the Orphans' home were special guests of Mt. Calm Temple 564 of which Mrs. Marie Walker is daughter ruler and who sponsored the recital. Other teachers represented were: piano—Lillian M. LeMon, W. Earl Keen, Annis L. Gray, Beatrice Wilson; voice, Lucretia L. Love, Mattie S. Wines, and instruments, Rupert Cox.

Lillian Le Mon

The advanced students will give their annual June recital, Monday, June 7, at Mt. Paran Baptist church. The public is cordially invited.

C. A. Dyson of Jeffersonville, was in the city, Saturday. He spoke at the Union Fellowship meeting, Sunday in Franklin, in interest of the "Church Flood Relief".

Miss Ruth Higgs, formerly of this city but now of Los Angeles, returned to her home, Friday after visiting in Stranton, N. Y., Indianapolis and Chicago. Among those who entertained for Miss Higgs while here were: Mrs. Margaret Rape, Mrs. Effie La Monde, Mrs. Stella Fisher, Mrs. William Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Arlin Ernest, Mrs. Ruby Rankin, Mrs. Della Greer, Mr. and Mrs. James Hill and Mr. and Mrs. O. Ralph Bryant.

Mrs. Grace Bryant in Wyoming street was hostess to St. Monica's gUILD, Tuesday. Miss Ruth Higgs of Los Angeles, Calif., was special guest.

Mrs. Bessie Jean Carter of Cleveland, Ohio, was the week end guest of Mrs. Lillian M. LeMon in N. West street.

The Flanner house held its open house and exhibit and closing exercise of the vocational department, Thursday and Friday, May 20 and 21; Cleo Blackburn, superintendent.

A mother and daughter banquet was given by the Industrial Improvement club at the Phyllis Wheatley YWCA, Wednesday, May 26.

Miss Juanita Dryden entertained at a birthday party, May 21, at the home of Forest Wilson, 2333 N. Capital avenue, at which time the announcement of her engagement was given.

Among those who took part in the pageant at Butler University in honor of the guests to the Social Workers' convention were representatives from the Phyllis Wheatley YWCA. An aesthetic dance was done by six charming young women composed of the Misses Grace Young, Mary Puryear, Ruth Hamlin, Thelma Ransom, Leslie Henderson and Louise Fields, whose sheer dresses and dainty aesthetic dancing portayed "The Breath of Spring". Miss Louise Terry was the director. The A Cappella choir also sang.

Miss Louise Fields, social editor of the Indianapolis Recorder, was among those who brought in large gifts and pledges to the building fund of the YWCA. She secured the $500 gift from the Coca Cola Bottling company, whose president is Jungle Clause.

Miss Hortense L. Smith, teacher in school No. 19, has been one of the recipients of the Gregg scholarship presented for outstanding teaching in the public schools. Miss Smith is a member of the Progressive Aid of Barnes church and is quite an accomplished musician, having received her certificate in piano under Mrs. Lillian M. LeMon of the Cosmopolitan school of Music and Fine Arts, Inc.

Raymond Mitchel of Anderson, former WLW artist, was guest soloist at the Second Christian church.

Some fifty boys from the YMCA took part in a pageant, "Youth On Parade", Sunday at the Butler University field-house in honor of visitors to the social workers' convention, which also opened Sunday.

Baccalaureate services for Crispus Attucks high school graduates were held, Sunday in the auditorium. The Rev. Robert Mosbey, pastor of Simpson M. E. church, will speak. The music department of the school will have charge of the music. The commencement will be held at 8 p.m., June 2, in Cadle Tabernacle. Leslie Pinkney Hill, president of Cheyney Teachers college, Pennsylvania, will make the address. Dr. Hill, a Harvard University graduate and Phi Beta Kappa, is the author of several books.

The members of the Crispus Attucks chapter of the National Honor society were installed, Tuesday evening as part of the program for the

The members were: Doris Woodruff, Eugene Kirtrell, Graham Martin, Dorothy Johnson, Doris Brown, Annetta Clayton, Harriet Bailey, Norris Shane, Roberta Keeton, Maryann Orin, Harry Harrison, James Smith and William Simms. Mrs. Stephen Ewing was program chairman.

The Alpha Mu Omega graduate chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha, entertained Saturday, May 22, the Central regional convention here, with headquarters at the Phyllis Wheatley YWCA. A banquet and dance was given, Saturday. Mrs. Eugenia Ashbury is president of the graduate chapter.

The first annual jabberwock of Delta Sigma Theta was held last Monday in the gymnasium of the Phyllis Wheatley YWCA, attracted an overflow audience. Miss Mary Stokes is president and Miss Ruby Jacqueline Evans was chairman of the committee on arrangements.