

The musical event of the season at the Institutional church on Thursday evening, May 25, is the third grand concert by the Umbrian Glee club.

The usual large audiences that greet the Umbrians will be repaid with same standard selections from the best composers — humorous, sentimental and folk song are combined to make a varied and entertaining program—at Institutional church, Thursday evening, May 25.

Remember the Umbrians begin on time. Their friends and admirers vouch for the correctness of the statement. Be in your seat at the Institutional church before 8:30 p. m. Their date is Thursday, May 25.

The ushers in charge of the Institutional church at the third grand concert given by the Umbrians are Misses Grace Clark, Bessie Stovall, Ethel Flowers, Grace Thompson, Katherine Woods, Hazel Lawson, Emma Williams, Ethel Spence. The Umbrians' date is Thursday evening, May 25. Buy your ticket now.

Hear the Umbrians sing "The Sword of Ferrara," "On Venice Waters" and "Old Black Joe"—in fact, a great program at the Institutional church Thursday night.

Hear the best male voice organization in the west at the Institutional church, Thursday night—the Umbrian Glee club in concert.

Miss Marguerite Morgan, 4402 Langley avenue, was the hostess of a delightful party on Tuesday night. Quite a number of very popular people were present. The guests enjoyed progressive whist. Mrs. Geo. Cleveland Hall won first prize. Edward Alexander, second, and Miss Aurelia Ward, "booby" prize.

Mr. Cary B. Lewis is attracting much attention by the new baseball matter that he is writing weekly about the colored baseball games in and around Chicago.

Miss Lillian Martin and Mr. John Trust were quietly married on Thursday of this week. Both are very popular young people.

Mr. William D. Neighbors spent several days at Springfield, Ill., this week. He, with Col. John R. Marshall, was highly entertained by Hon. Edward H. Green, our state representative to the Illinois legislature.

Miss Mable Lawrence of 35th street and Wabash avenue is now playing at the Phoenix theater.

Mrs. George Young, Omaha, has come to the city to live. She bids fair to be a South side belle.

Miss Leslie Marshall, sister of Dr. W. H. Marshall, arrived in the city this week from Eatonville, Fla., where she has been teaching, and will spend the summer with Dr. and Mrs. Marshall.

Mr. Riley Meaux of Kentucky, who has for the past few years been residing in New York city, is in Chicago visiting Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Rawlins.

The wedding of Miss Marie McCoy of Saulsbury, N. C., to Mr. Charles H. Seals of Chicago will take place the last week in June.

The Olivet church celebrated Mothers' day Sunday morning in a very pleasant manner, the mothers giving the numbers on the program. Each paper was especially interesting. The address by Mrs. Antoinette Crump-Cone was of unusual interest, the subject being "The Educational Training of Children." In her usual capable manner she told the necessity of home training. At this time she was appointed by the pastor to take charge of the women's work in the Western States' convention which meets in July.

Dr. E. J. Fisher left the city Wednesday morning to attend the Baptist State association which meets in Metropolitan City this week.

The Child Welfare Exhibit continues to draw thousands of visitors every day. The work among the colored children is handsomely presented in two photograph screens of the day nursery, kindergarten, reading room, and other activities of the Institutional church in the church section, and that representing the children's activities in the Frederick Douglass Center, in the settlements' section. There is a life-like portrait of the three colored nurses in the Visiting Nurse association, of Miss Tallahassee Smith, Miss Bullock and Miss Johnson. Keith school gave an exhibition of work in clay on the opening night.

It took ten innings for the Grace team to win from Bethany last Saturday at West Pullman, the score resulting 9 to 0.

The Douglass Center Woman's club held its last meeting for the year with an interesting program. The election of officers gave us for president, Mrs. Eva Jenifer; vice president, Miss Snyder; treasurer, Miss Laura Beasley.

The Parental club of Keith school held its last meeting for the year Wednesday evening, being satisfied that a few beneficial things had been accomplished, that of securing soil and seeds for the yard being the most important. Inside the fence a line of blooming plants encircles the yard.

Hugh Hoskins is now located in the new building at the corner of State and 32d streets. Look for the sign, Iowa club.

J. H. Wright has removed his tailor establishment from 3151 to 3142 State street, just across the street, where he will be open for business Saturday.

Russell and Dago's buffet, next to the New Grand, is receiving a new coat of paint.

The new Chicago & Northwestern station at Canal and West Madison streets will have all colored waiters. Mr. Richard Jackson was one of the active parties in bringing about this result.

Mr. Phil Milligan, 5008 Dearborn street, has returned from a month's vacation spent in Canada.

Dr. U. C. Dailey announces the removal of his office to 5 East 36th place, southeast corner State street, pointment. No evening hours Sunday, over Bins Bank, after April 15, 1911. Telephone Douglas 5770. Hours: 12 to 2 p. m., 7 to 8 p. m., and by ap. (Please note change in office hours.) Residence, 3433 Wabash avenue, phone Aldine 629.

The Ways and Means society of Grace Presbyterian church will meet at the home of Mrs. C. Studymire, 415 East 32d street, Monday, at 2 p. m., May 22.

Dollie Winchester (Mrs. D. Comey), sister of Ray Winchester, died in Nashville last week. Her body was taken to the home of the family, Gallitine, where her brother Ray was buried about three weeks ago.

The four paintings in oil by Robert Jackson, which are being displayed in store windows on State street, between 20th and 36th streets, are attracting the admiration of hundreds of people. The drawing in these paintings is clear and the light and shade strong, but the artist shows his talent in the beautiful coloring and originality of his subjects.

The Grace team will play their first local game of the season at Washington Park this afternoon when they meet the Second Presbyterian team. The latter club was in the league several years ago.

Captain Irwin hopes to have his team intact by the 27th of this month, when the Grace club plays the strong Bethlehem nine.

Mr. William Britton, who has been visiting his mother in Canada who is very ill, returned home Sunday.

The Y. M. E. W. club held its regular fortnightly meeting at the residence of Mrs. Craig, 6723 Champlain avenue. Mrs. Sadie Cave won the prize, a battenburg scarf.

Mrs. R. F. Spriggs, 3620 Calumet avenue, left the city Thursday noon to attend the funeral of her sister, Gaynel Henson, who died Wednesday morning.

Dr. G. W. Miller, 3552 Forest avenue, left the city on Wednesday for Washington, D. C., where he intends

Mrs. Paul Eggleston and Mrs. Harrison, who left the city on a hurry call, arrived at Madison, Ga., the second day and found both mother and father able to sit up. Miss Jewette Eggleston complains of the weather being hotter than it is in Chicago.

Mr. Moses Samuels, 6501 Rhodes avenue, has gone into the paperhanging business. He took a special course at the wall paper college during the taking a post course in surgery during the next six weeks. Doctor is a graduate of Howards' University.

The third annual musical and literary exercises of the Chicago post office clerks will be held Sunday, May 21, at 3:30 p. m., at Mt. Olivet Baptist church, under the auspices of the Swastika club. The public is cordially invited.

Mrs. G. Stewart, Louisville, Ky., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. M. A. Mardis, 3733 Elmwood avenue.

Call on us first and examine our line of hair goods, and if our prices do not appeal to you as fair and reasonable as others, look no further, for no where in Chicago can you do as well. Mme. Wallace, 3247 State street.

Mr. Harry Isaacs entertain at stag the Bachelors' club on last Saturday night. The Hyrons boys were guests of honor. Dr. Reginald Smith won the whist prize, a box of 100 cigars.

Don't forget the Woman's Aid entertainment at Oakland Music hall May 22 for the Old Folks' home. Good music after the drama.

Mrs. R. M. Lench has moved to 4314 Forestville avenue from Wabash avenue and 37th street.

Miss C. R. Williams, correspondent for the Defender from the north side, is seriously ill at the hospital.

Miss Anna Bradford from French Lick, Ind., is in our city for ten days, the guest of Mrs. Wm. H. Green, 3751 Vincennes avenue.

Mrs. A. M. Boyd, Cedar Rapids, Ia., formerly Miss Alice Gray, who has spent three weeks in the city visiting relatives, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Hattie Sawyer, 3319 State street.

The Frederick Douglass Center, 3032 Wabash avenue, annual meeting Tuesday evening, May 23, at 8 p. m. Reports of officers and election of three directors. All members are earnestly urged to be present.—S. Laing Williams, secretary.

Mrs. H. T. Johnson, 6617 Champlain avenue, after enjoying a box party at the Pekin theater Wednesday night, given by Mrs. Henry Jones of Evans avenue, left Thursday to visit in the east, after which she will go to Glasgow, Mo., for a couple of months, spring. He can now work in full dress and not overalls; by hiring him you may have your pink teas just the same. He cleans without musing; this is a great blessing to society.

Mr. and Mrs. James Batts have moved over east; they are at home to their friends tomorrow at 6544 Vincennes avenue.

Mr. E. B. Church, 30 East 37th place, took suddenly ill and had to be taken to the Post hospital on Sunday; but as we go to press we learn that he is resting nicely.

Mrs. Belle Cleck, formerly of 361 Institute place, has moved to Quincy, Ill., her former home.

Mrs. Fannie O. Jones of Cementville, Ind., will spend ten weeks in Chicago visiting her daughter and grandchildren, Mrs. Maggie R. Winston, 4015 Cottage Grove avenue, her second trip since December, 1904.

Ladies, your attention is called to the facts in a $1,000 accident policy combined with registration and identification for $1 per year with the New Jersey Registry Co., home office 118-122 Market street, Newark, N. J. No medical examination. See Mr. John R. Winston, our Chicago representative, 4015 Cottage Grove avenue, or phone Douglas 5222. You get $7.50 per week for loss of time for accident for non-fatal injuries. See Mr. Winston and get an application blank and circular. He is at your service. Mention the Chicago Defender when writing.

Mr. Harry Green, 268 Rowena street, Detroit, Mich., is holding a position as chair car porter between Detroit and Chicago in service of the Wabash Railway company.

Mr. Thomas F. Allison, 3407 Dearborn street, is holding a position between Chicago and St. Louis, Mo., as a train porter in service of the Chicago and Eastern Illinois Railway.

Get a $1,000 accident policy for $1 a year from Mr. John R. Winston, 4015 Cottage Grove avenue.

Mr. James Maupins, 3805 Wabash avenue, is holding a position between St. Louis, Mo., and Chicago as a parlor car porter in service of the Illinois Central Railway company.

Do you read the Chicago Defender? If not, why not? Only $1.50 a year. Address 3159 State street.

Maudie Curter, 4716 State street, entertains the railroad men at the Bachelors' club, 4704 State street, every night from 8 p. m. to 1 p. m. She has a crowded house every night. A selection of Messrs. Daniel Curter and Georgia B., the managers of the club.

Did you ever stop to think how the people are scrambling for the Chicago Defender every Saturday? You can avoid this rush by enclosing $1.50 to the general office and having the Defender mailed to your residence for one year, and you get it in the first mail every Saturday morning. Address Mr. R. B. Abbott, 3159 State street, Chicago, Ill.

Mr. Harry B. Drewry, 3304 Wabash avenue, is holding a position between Chicago and New York city, N. Y., in Pullman service over the Pennsylvania Railway Company's lines.

Mr. A. C. Richardson, 6613 Langley avenue, a Pullman porter who so long run between Chicago and Lincoln, Neb., in Pullman service over the Rock Island Railway lines, has resigned and accepted the managership of the Belle Meade club, 5059 Armour avenue. Mr. Richardson is a fine gentleman and a regular subscriber of the Chicago Defender. Men, call and see Mr. Richardson at the club.

Mr. R. L. Clarke, 16 West 51st street, is holding a position between Chicago and the coast over the Rock Island Railway in Pullman service.

Mr. F. Blake is running to the coast in Pullman service over the Rock Island lines.

You will be sorry just too late when you fail to take out a $1,000 accident policy for one dollar a year. Write to John R. Winston, 4015 Cottage Grove avenue, Chicago, Ill.

Mr. John R. Hammond, 5007 Dearborn street, is holding a position between Chicago and the coast over the Rock Island.

Subscribe today for the Defender. Phone Douglas 3339.

Do all the good you can
To all the people you can
In all the ways you can
As long as ever you can—
And subscribe for the Chicago Defender whenever you can.

Mr. H. Thompson, 4763 Dearborn street, is holding a position between Chicago and Duluth, Minn., in service of the Pullman company.

Mr. J. O. Wickliffe, 5329 Wabash avenue, is running to the coast in Pullman service over the Rock Island lines.

Mr. C. G. Reed, 4754 Armour avenue, is running between Chicago and Evansville, Ind., in Pullman service over the Chicago and Eastern Illinois. Jolly the fellow who's down today;

Give him a smile for his sorrow;
For this old world has a funny way
And you may be down tomorrow.
And that is why you should subscribe today

Instead of tomorrow.

Mr. Charley Conn, 242 West 45th place, is holding a position between Chicago and Nashville, Tenn., in Pullman service over the C. E. I. and E. T. H. Railway.

Take out $1,000 accident policy with the New Jersey Registry Co. for one dollar a year. See Mr. Winston, 4015 Cottage Grove avenue; phone Douglas 5222.

Mme. Neale Hawkins-Buckner who, with Mr. M. Edward Adkinson has gone on a grand concert tour to the coast, reports overwhelming success in every appearance. They are booked for Kansas City, Denver and other leading cities.

Mrs. Henry Jones, 6641 Evans avenue, and Mrs. Art Codoroo are planning to walk to Milwaukee for their Fourth of July outing. They made application to two of our local papers for reporters.

Miss Clara Howard, a prominent figure in the social smart set of St. Paul, Minn., left for her home on Tuesday evening, after spending four days in our city as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Taylor of 3629 Dearborn street. Miss Howard was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Julius N. Avendorph Sunday afternoon at dinner, after which she was the recipient of calls from forty-seven members of our young social set. Miss Ada Lou Mitchell assisted her aunt as hostess.

Mr. Thomas Bass passed through the city last week from the east where he had been on a business matter. Mr. Bass was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Washington.

Thomas W. Allen, better known as "Noisy," was appointed inspector of alleys Monday. Mr. Allen is one of Alderman Tearney's appointees.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Green, who will sail for Liverpool on the 30th inst., refused to give to The Defender the day or date. They claimed to be going to New York.

Mr. Wendell P. McKerney Stewart of the Pittsburgh Steamship Co.'s boat, the Simon J. Murphy, left last Tuesday on his first trip of the season. Mr. Stewart is a very young man, who has won his way to the front by constant attention to business and by indomitable perseverance.

Miss Alice Wolcott has returned from a delightful trip to her home near Versailles, Ky.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Brown and sons, formerly of 3521 Wabash avenue, have removed to 4723 Evans avenue.

Mr. Bertram Thurman, one of our young Michigan friends, was in the city to attend the Herdler's dance.

Mr. Frank Burns of 4064 Armour avenue, is now able to sit up, and will soon be in condition to walk in the street, after a month's illness with kidney trouble and pleurisy.

After an illness of ten days with tonsillitis, Mr. Wm. H. Browne, Jr., of 4723 Evans avenue, is again at his desk, although he has not fully recovered from the attack.

The helping hand for him or her. It speaks the "good word." The Chicago Defender. Subscribe and advertise. Address the Chicago Publishing Co., for space; subscription $1.50 per year. 3159 State street, Chicago, Ill., or see Mr. Winston, 4015 Cottage Grove avenue; he will take your order.