

Elsie Austin Guest Of Tenn. Delta Sorors

Extended Many Cour- tesies On Visit

NASHVILLE, May 27—The high-light of the National May Week observance by P. Sigma Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta sorority, Nashville, Tenn., was the presentation of Soror Elsie Austin, assistant attorney general of the State of Ohio, as guest speaker at a program held in Fisk Memorial Chapel Sunday, May 8. Soror Austin's brilliant mind held her audience at rapt attention as she made a challenge to young colored Americans to explore the frontiers of government, economics and religion.

Many courtesies were extended Soror Austin during her brief visit, among which were breakfast and dinner engagements by Sorors Helen Work, Vivian Edwards, Eloise Clark and L. D. Young. She was a guest at the meeting of the Vagabond bridge club held at the residence of Soror Julia Washington-Bond.

President and Mrs. W. J. Hale of Tennessee State college graciously offered their beautiful home, Good Will Manor, for a reception tendered Soror Austin by the chapter. The dynamic personality of Soror Austin completely captivated those people who met her.
