

Abdul Baha Followers Meet Here

The Bahais of America, who are building a great universal house of worship at Wilmette, the doors of which will be open to all races, sects and religions, will meet for their 15th annual convention at the Auditorium hotel, April 28 to May 1.

The public sessions will be held Sunday, April 29, at 3 p. m., and Monday and Tuesday evenings at 8 o'clock in the banquet room of the hotel.

Jenabli Fazel, celebrated Persian philosopher and lecturer, will be the chief speaker at each session. Two years ago he toured America, speaking in many churches, clubs, schools, colleges, New Thought temples, theological societies, to great audiences. He presents in their universal appeal the Bahai principles for a united world.

Sunday noon, April 29, there will be a gathering in the great foundation room of the Bahai temple at Wilmette. This main auditorium, with its beautiful dome, will be built above this foundation floor.

Monday evening Louis G. Gregory of Washington, D. C., will be the speaker. Tuesday, May 1, the topic will be "The Bahai Temple." Albert Vail and Henry J. Burt, structural engineer of Chicago, will speak. Mr. Burt's address will be illustrated with lantern slides.
