

MILWAUKEE NEWS

By V. C. BEVENUE

As announced by the Mayor's Committee on Inter-racial Relations, there is an exhibition of portraits of distinguished American Negroes, a unique collection, at the Milwaukee Art institute. These Negroes are not only distinguished for their contribution to their own race, but also for their contribution to the whole of American culture. Some of the portraits being shown are of Dr. George Washington Carver, Mrs. Mary Bethune, and Dr. Alain Locke.

The Jolly Eight Matrons, a popular young ladies' club of the city, gave their party at the Flame Night club.

Mrs. Ruth Herbert, 723 W. Cherry street, has returned to the city. She was in Cairo, Ill., and Indianapolis, Ind.

After losing two games to the Flame bowlers, the Apex Music team is still in first place. The Bronzeville Bowling association will become affiliated with the National Bowling association, effective Feb. 1. Newt Walton is this area representative.

Mrs. Ethelee Simpson, who several weeks ago underwent an operation, has recovered.

The Cosmopolitan Club "25" twelfth annual formal dance will be held Jan. 25 at the Jefferson hall.

Bill Mosby of the army was in the city on a holiday furlough visiting his family and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Williams, Kansas City, Kan., were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ellis. Williams is taking a course at the Worsham College of Mortuary Science in Chicago. Mrs. Williams is the sister of Joe Ellis.

Mr. and Mrs. John Moore, 807 W. Walnut street, flew to Detroit to visit their relatives. They returned by plane in time to make the Flamingo dance.

Theo. Crockett of the army has returned home with his honorable discharge papers.

The Milwaukee Urban League is sponsoring a course in lamp shade making every Tuesday and Thursday, from 7 to 10 p.m. A competent instructor will teach this art to the trainee free of charge and all materials will be furnished. The only requirement necessary is a knowledge of plain sewing.

Another veteran to return home is Gaston Stanley, who recently received his discharge from the navy.