

Thief In Night Baha'i Theme

THIEF IN NIGHT BAHA'I THEME

In all the revealed world religions the coming of the kingdom is identified with the appearance of the supreme world redeemer, the lord of hosts, the returned Christ. "One fold and one shepherd" is to replace the many conflicting and separated groups of men. This is the underlying theme of the talk "The Thief In The Night" to be given by Arlene Jenrich at the Baha'I House of Worship, Sunday, December 28, 1969, at 3:45 in the afternoon.

Mrs. Jennrich, a native of Iowa, graduated from Coe College and has been an active participant in civic affairs for the past ten years, serving as a board member of the Wilmette Parent-Teachers Association, the Wilmette League of Women Voters and the Wilmette Human Relations Committee.

Mrs. Jennrich's talk will emphasize that the message of Baha'U'llah, prophet-founder of the Bahai' Faith, opens to mankind the one door leading to religious, racial and national unity.