

CONFERENCE ON WAR, PEACE IS SLATED BY YM

National Meet Of Heads To Convene July 10 At Bordentown

NEW YORK.—According to an announcement just issued by Channing H. Tobias of the national office of Y.M.C.A.'s in New York City, the national conference of laymen and secretaries of Y.M.C.A.'s will convene at Bordentown, N. J., July 10 and continue in session until July 12. The main theme will be "Facing The War and Preparing for the Peace."

Among the outstanding program participants will be Paul Robeson, nationally known singer and actor; Lt. Colonel Campbell C. Johnson of the National Selective Service Administration; Dr. Charles H. Wesley, dean of Graduate School of Howard university; Dr. Howard H. Long, assistant superintendent of public schools of the District of Columbia; Dr. Leslie Pinckney Hill, president of Cheyney State Teachers college, Cheyney, Pa.; Dr. Max Yergan, director of the Council on African Affairs; Jay A. Urice, executive secretary of the National Council of Y.M.C.A.'s; and Paul Anderson, European Y.M.C.A. secretary just returned from the war zones

William R. Valentine, president of the Manual Training school of Bordentown, N. J., is chairman of the conference, and Henry W. Pope of New York City, secretary.