

Visits Defender Press Rooms

The Chicago Defender (Big Weekend Edition) (1905-1966); Sep 8, 1917;

ProQuest Historical Newspapers: Chicago Defender

pg. 3

Visits Defender Press Rooms

Mrs. J. H. H. Sengstacke and daughter, Miss Eliza Sengstacke, Savannah, Ga., who are visiting their son and brother, Editor Robert S. Abbott, 3153 South State street, made a special visit to the press rooms of the Chicago Defender Thursday morning, Aug. 27, saw 18,000 papers per hour printed, the whole number printed that day was 93,500. It brought joy to Mrs. Sengstacke to know of her son's wonderful success, who showed her through the entire building. Following this they were taken to the Wabash Avenue Y. M. C. A. for a visit after which they were served luncheon as the guests of Cary B. Lewis.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.