

Baha' is To Hear Medic On Nov. 26

"Religion and Medicine" will be the topic of a public lecture at the Baha'i House of Worship, Sheridan rd. at Linden ave., Sunday, Nov. 26, at 3:45 p.m. Dr. Hushang Javid, professor of surgery at the University of Illinois Medical School and attending surgeon at Presbyterian St. Luke's Hospital, will be the speaker.

Dr. Javid, a specialist in cario-vascular surgery, was born in Teheran, Iran, received his medical training at the University of Illinois, and his training in surgery at Illinois Research Hospital. He is the author of numerous articles for medical journals, as well as books.

Dr. Javid has served in several Baha'i administrative posts in this country, and was for some time a member of the Spiritual Assembly of the Baha'is of Chicago, the administrative head of the Faith in the City.

He resides at present in Riverside, Ill.