

NEW HAMPSHIRE

PORTSMOUTH, N. H.

By Robert Cooper Sr.

Louis G. Gregory, representative of the Bahai movement in United States and Canada, spoke at the morning service of People's Baptist church, Pearl St. A solo was rendered by Miss Elizabeth Virgil, director of the morning choir. Miss Virgil will return the last of this month to her position as teacher in the public school system of North Carolina. The pastor, having returned from his trip South, spoke at the evening service. Report of the 103d session of the Portsmouth association at South Hampton, N. H., was given both by the pastor, Rev. Henry Benton Harris, and the missionary delegate, Mrs. Sophie Scott. Under the efficient leadership of Mr. Burton, the church school has made a splendid report. Mrs. Nettie Randall is in a critical condition at the Portsmouth hospital. Little Miss Ballard is recovering from a severe burn. Thursday night the pastor, deacons, deaconesses and friends of the People's Baptist church will entertain at the parsonage, 40 Parker St. Miss Idella Scott and Miss Charity Hicks of Norwich, Conn., and Miss Matilda Braxton of Hartford, Conn., have returned to their respective homes. Mr. and Mrs. Diggs of Boston were guests of the Blanks. The new hymnbooks presented by the Sunday school to the church have aided greatly to the spiritually life of the services.