

City Churches—Religious News

Rev. Arnett of Philadelphia, son of the late Bishop Arnett, preached at Bethel A. M. E. church Sunday morning. There was a large attendance.

Prof. William Pickens of Talladega college, lectured at Douglass Center Monday evening, the proceeds to be applied on the building fund of the Lincoln Memorial Congregational church, soon to be erected. Rev. E. C. Lawrence, the minister, is rallying his forces toward the advancement of every department of church work. The evening closed with a social, when refreshments were served.

Olivet church is undergoing extensive repairs and decorations in the auditorium, the services being held in the Sunday school rooms until the work is completed.

Rev. W. D. Cook has returned from General Conference and will occupy the pulpit Sunday morning.

Mr. R. A. J. Shaw will address the Standard Literary society at Bethesda church Sunday at 4 p. m.

Frederick Douglass Center.

The Sunday afternoon meeting, May 26, at 4 p. m., will be addressed by Mr. William M. Fox, who will speak on "The Labor Unions and the Negro." Mrs. Harris and Miss Madison will render an instrumental duet.

St. Mary's A. M. E. Church.

Services: 10:45 a. m. and 7:45 p. m. Sunday school at 2 p. m. Christian Endeavor, 6:45 p. m. Mrs. Lalla Jones, president.

We had quite a good attendance at our services last Sunday. The choir rendered excellent music.

Grace Presbyterian Church.

The Missionary society holds its regular meetings Thursdays at 2 o'clock at the church.

Miss Zenobia Taylor, one of the recent young converts, gave a recital Tuesday evening, May 14, at the Church. Miss Taylor is a promising young musician and deserves the support of all those interested in such young people.

Miss Virginia Gibson has recovered from her illness.

The baseball season is again open and we hope the boys may have the success they had last year.

Regular meetings of the church: Sunday morning service, 11:45; Sunday school, 12:45; evening service, 7:45; prayer meeting, Wednesday, 8 p. m. Preparations are under way for children's day.