The Volunteer Workers' Club.

The Volunteer Workers' club held their installation of officers, Wednesday, Jan. 10, at the home of Mrs. Jones, 5138 Indiana avenue. Mrs. Virginia Wills, the vice president, was hostess. The installation exercises were opened by singing "A Charge to Keep I Have." Prayer by Mother Wills. Mrs. Lewis, state organizer, installed the officers in an impressive and dignified manner, after which each officer made brief remarks. Visitors were Mesdames Cook of Sparta, Ill., Irene Lewis, Bell, Michan Jones and Price, president of the King's Daughters. Each made short addresses. Mrs. A. J. Caldwell responded in behalf of the club. After routine business the club closed the meeting by singing. The hostess invited the guests to the dining room which was decorated in pink and green. The menu was stewed chicken, peas, potatoes, hot biscuits, coffee, ice cream and cake. Meeting Jan. 17, at Mrs. Laurella Chandlers, 6353 Rhodes Avenue.

St. Paul C. M. E. Church.

Rev. T. L. Scott, Pastor.

On last Sunday two very eloquent sermons were delivered by the pastor, as follows: Morning, Text Psalm 1-2. "His delight is in the law of the Lord." Subject, A Metaphorical Representation of the Scriptures. Night, Text, St. Luke 10-20, "How readest Thou?" Subject, "Reading the Scriptures." Next Sunday is Quarterly Meeting day. Rev. W. A. Jackson, presiding elder and editor of the C. M. E. Indicator, will be present and will preach for us morning and evening. Communion at 3 p. m. The Epworth League is succeeding nicely under its most excellent president, Bro. Wm. Y. Bell. Rev. Dr. Callis addressed the League on last Sunday evening. We are doing exceedingly well under our new pastor, Rev. T. L. Scott. Since coming to us the church has taken on new life. He has been with us only six weeks during which time there have been 30 new members added to the church. A little baby daughter has made her appearance in the pastor's family. Both mother and daughter are getting along nicely.

Preaching Sunday at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. Prayer meeting Tuesday evening and class meeting Friday. Epworth league, Sunday, 6 p. m.
