

SOAP FOR VIETNAMESE

Members of the Chicago Baha'i community have collected hundreds of bars of soap for distribution to the people of South Viet Nam. The soap, which is being flown to South Viet Nam, is to be used to help halt the spread of diseases. The members (from left) are: David W. Kellum, Mrs. Marie Bohman, Munir Sahari, Mrs. Elsa Robinson, Lloyd Robinson, Suhay Sahari and Mrs. Kathelynea Kellum, chairman of the drive.

Baha'is Send Bars Of Soap To Viet Nam

Joining "Operation Wash Up," members of the Chicago Baha'i Community, 116 So. Michigan Ave., collected more than 1,000 bars of soap for distribution to the people of South Viet Nam. .

The soap was packed for shipment during the Baha'i 19-Day Feast. A C-119 Flying Box Car, loaded with this soap and contributions from other groups, took off from the Marine Air Reserve Training Command at Glenview Naval Air Station.

Mrs. Kathelynea Kellum, chairman of the drive, explained that a large majority of diseases and sicknesses in Viet Nam could be prevented by soap and water.

"Members of the Baha'i World Faith are happy that they could make this contribution," said Mrs. Kellum.

Among members of the committee were: Lloyd Robinson, chairman of the Local Spiritual Assembly of the Baha'is of Chicago; David W. Kellum, vice chairman; Mrs. Marie Bohman, Munir Sahari, Mrs. Elsa Robinson, Suhay Sahari and Mrs. Vera Barron.