

All-Day Inter Area Meet On Human Relations Set

The 1965 Inter-Community Human Relations Conference for the entire North Suburban Area will be held April 26, 1965, at the Community Church in Glenview, it was announced by Miss Lea Taylor, chairman of the all-day meeting.

The conference, educational in nature, has as its purpose strengthening inter-group efforts toward easing friction and tension, and promoting constructive activity in matters pertaining to the welfare of all citizens. Previous conferences have had attendance of over 500 persons, indicating a genuine interest of local people in this approach to current problems.

In addition to Miss Taylor, the officers include Mrs. Archie Simmons, Evanston, vice-chairman; Mrs. Irwin B. Gerson, Highland Park, secretary; Mrs. Edward Yastrow, 1717 Ridge Road, Highland Park, treasurer. Mrs. Sydney Mandel, 1964 chairman of the conference, is serving on the steering committee as a consultant.

Committee chairmen include: Miss Taylor, steering committee; Mrs. Clinton Dornfeld, workshop; Mrs. Frank Peers, publicity; Mrs. Sheldon Kamin, arrangements; Mrs. Thomas Nathan, mailing; Mrs. Wilson H. Hartz and Mrs. John Clements, registration; Mrs. Herbert Sanders, reservations; Mrs. C. Herbert Jones, hostess.

Sponsoring the conference are local organizations, civic or religious who wish to promote good human relations among various races and creeds by joint participation in common constructive action.

To date, the following groups have joined the list of sponsors: Adult Education Council, American Jewish Committee, American Technion Society, Anti-Federation League of B'Nai Brith, Bahai Community of Glenview, B'Nai Brith North Suburban Council, Ebenezer A.
