

Off the RECORD

By LEE BLACKWELL

CLIFFORD J. CAMPBELL, deputy Planning Commissioner for the city of Chicago, is planning a trip to Portland, Ore, in the immediate future to meet up with his wife and pick out a site in the suburbs there for a home they are planning to build. Campbell, of course, is former long-time director of Dunbar Vocational high school.

* * *

YOLANDA SCOTT, a popular employe in the credit department at South Center department store for many noons, has switched to radio station WBEE where she is handling traffic under office manager Mary Wooten. . . Incidentally, Roy Woods, an ex-deejay at the same station, is sorely missed by the 'boys on the corner' who caught his show daily without fail.

* * *

TED WATSON, the Courier's "Midnight Man," is enjoying a well-deserved vacation and has vowed not even to attend any social or civic affairs during his period of hibernation.

* * *

MARJORIE ZINN, the popular model, celebrated a birthday recently. Which one? Sorry, we're not allowed to give out that information.

CLIFFORD CAMPBELL

BILLY CANNON'S Mambo and jazz band will provide the music Saturday night when the Original Merry Makers hold their first Casual Cabaret party, 10 p.m. at Casino Moderne. Gerald Kelly is president, and Gale Welch and Fred Cooper are business managers.

* * *

F. H. HAMMURABI, director of the House of Knowledge, 3806 S. Michigan, reminds us that today and tonight the final programs in the series on Africa will be held. Vivian Wesson, a Bahai, just back from West Africa, and Dr. Charles Thompson, will be featured on the program.

* * *

TODAY'S OBSERVATION:
"The world's most precious gem is a faithful woman. . ."

* * *

LEE BLACKWELL reports the latest news from the pages of the Daily Defender and from its affiliated wire services at 11:55 a.m., Monday through Friday, on the Rock with Ric show over radio station WGES (1390).