

STUDENTS HEAR EXPONENT OF BAHAI FAITH: A. & I. STATE COLLEGE TOLD ...

The Chicago Defender (National edition) (1921-1967); Jan 23, 1937;

ProQuest Historical Newspapers: Chicago Defender

pg. 7

STUDENTS HEAR EXPONENT OF BAHAI FAITH

A. & I. STATE COLLEGE TOLD ORDER'S SCOPE

Tennessee Institution Is Visited By Austrian

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Jan. 22—On Tuesday, Jan. 12, the European History class at A & I State college, taught by M. R. Eppse, was addressed by Mrs. A. G. Bechtold of Vienna, Austria, concerning the "Bahai Faith."

This phase of religion as Mrs. Bechtold explained, was established more than eighty years ago and has since been introduced into no less than forty countries of the world.

The Bahai Faith recognizes unity of mankind and advocates universal peace. It upholds the principle of an unfettered search after truth, condemns all forms of superstition and prejudice and abolishes extremes of poverty and wealth.

Albert James, a graduate of A & I State Teachers college has accepted the Bahai Faith and belongs to the Council of Nashville in the capacity as a reader. The Bahai people have been visiting the campus for the past five years.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.