

PENNSYLVANIA

PHILADELPHIA NEWS

By J. H. GRAY.
1017 Lombard St.
Phone Filbert 4488

Philadelphia, Pa., July 9.—Mrs. Thelma M. Clark of Norfolk, Va., is residing at 1750 N. Lombard St., since the death of her stepfather, Ed Langley of this city, June 24.

While Herbert Wilson, 3 years old, was standing in front of his home, 2138 South St., he was struck by a hit-and-run driver coming west in South St., Tuesday evening. He was pushed by a passing motorist to the Polyclinic hospital, where it was announced that his injuries were not serious. A witness took the number of the automobile.

While chopping wood at his home in 21st St., Bob Jones was severely injured on the head when his ax caught on a clothes line.

A musical concert was given Wednesday evening by Jenkins Orphan brass band of Charleston, S. C., at the First African Baptist church, Rev. William A. Harrod, pastor, for their own benefit. The affair netted a large sum.

Dr. J. C. Jackson will address the fourth annual summer assembly at Rahway, N. J., July 10. This is a training school for religious workers in the Baptist churches.

Miss Hazel Butler, daughter of G. Butler of Virginia, graduated from the West Philadelphia high schools for girls. She distinguished herself by writing the class presentation address. In September Miss Butler will matriculate in Temple university for a four year course in chemistry.

Rev. E. Rurall, pastor of the Shiloh Baptist church, Pittsburgh, Pa., visited the city several days last week. While here he was the guest of Rev. J. H. Dwyer, 27th St., above York.

Sunday, the 24th annual St. John's day service of the Union grand lodge, incorporated of South Carolina, A. F. & A. M., and a lodge of Atlantic City, and the female branches, Eastern Star and Amaranth, was conducted by Rev. E. W. Johnson at the St. Paul Baptist church.

On July 5 Rev. S. W. Price celebrated his anniversary at Wayland temple, 2207-2208 Master St.

Rev. William H. Hopkins has gone to Pittsburgh in an effort to regain his health. He will be gone for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. William Washington were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Rhodes, 3813 Sydenham St., Sunday.

A large crowd attended the closing of the Penn Memorial Literary society Tuesday night, at which time the annual oratorical contest was the special attraction. The first prize was awarded to Wycoff Washington, second prize to Ralph Jones. The contestants and subjects were as follows: "Opportunity for the Negro," by Miss Edith Hooper; "Elements of Success," Miss Winifred Briscoe; "The Charm of Music," Ralph Jones; "Principles of Civilization," Wycoff Washington; "The Thrill of a Wild Man," James L. Simmons. The judges were Ernest Paul Sandigge, Prof. Leslie Pinkney Hill, John Harris. The music was furnished by the Shaw Glee club. Miss Hawkins sang a solo. Mrs. Mitchell and Mrs. Trent a duet. Regular meetings will be resumed in September.

Twenty thousand boys and girls, of whom 1,400 are Race children, took up their books, sharpened their pencils and went back to studies Tuesday, at the opening of the summer schools by the board of public education. The term ends Aug. 12. About half of the pupils are enrolled to review work poorly done during the school year and the others to gain advanced credits for graduation.

Gertrude Dorsey, 7 years old, was struck by an automobile while playing in the street and had her leg broken. She lives at 1732 Page St. She was taken to the Women's Homeopathic hospital. The driver, Eva Thornton, was arrested.

Marcella Adams was sentenced to 20 years in the penitentiary Friday by Judge Gordon, when she was convicted of robbing Mrs. Bessie Brown, 619 S. 11th St., June 5, at Delaware Ave. and Pine St.

The current bill at Gibson's New Standard theater is a good one and is drawing large crowds daily, despite the warm days. You can begin to see strangers who come in to see the Sesquicentennial mingled among the regulars. The program is of diversified variety, starting with Phil and Clarice, in song and dance; Jackson and Grice, black face artists, assisted by the piano; Carpo brothers, musical equilibrist and head balancers, who do some thrilling stunts. Jines and Jacqueline have something good to offer and are clean-cut artists. They sing, dance and talk. Farrell and Chawick with piano, render both jazz and classical selections, and also sing "What Will You Do?" Giffes and Mills, chatter, song and dance. Williams trio, black face artists, in a series of episodes that are amusing. Sandy Burns and company in "Opposition, have lively songs and dances, and there is a chorus of young women who work with a vim and win much applause.

Drake and Walkers big company of 35 people, who doubled up with Hurtis and Seamon's "Hello, America," a patriotic musical revue, which had a run at the Casino for a number of weeks, have left that company and are now playing at Gibson's New Standard theater at Broad and Lombard Sts., in a contribution of merriment from the pen of Drake.

The Philadelphia chapter of the John Brown Memorial association has moved into permanent quarters in the Professional building, 1519 Lombard St. Dr. S. Burwell, president; John C. G. Temple, 525 N. Felton St., secretary.

William Smith, 24th St., was arrested by a detective Tuesday for slashing Mrs. Rose Trent, 1854 N. Warnock St., repeatedly with a knife. He was held without bail, awaiting the outcome of the victim's injuries.

M. T. Bailey, president of the Bailey Realty company, Chicago, was the guest of Mrs. J. E. H. Taylor and P. Johnson while in the city. He returned home last week feeling highly elated over his trip.

Earl B. Dickerson of the Liberty Life Insurance company and Ella Stewart of the Liberty Life Insurance company, Chicago, are in the city.

Mrs. Sadie Peterson, librarian at the library of Veterans hospital No. 91, Tuckeegee, Ala., passed through the city en route to Poughkeepsie, N. Y., where she will attend the graduation of her daughter.

Miss Edna Hazelwood, a graduate of the New York teachers' training class, is spending a portion of the summer here.

During the 64th annual session of the National Teachers association which convened in Independence hall, President Rowen of the board of education said in his speech: "The cost of education in this city will be $33,000,000 this year. No money was ever better spent."

Philip Pardon, 15, of 1731 Naudain St., was drowned Sunday while trying to recover a baseball. He slipped and fell into the Schuylkill river from the embankment near the west side of the Spring Garden St. bridge. Several attempts to rescue him were made by his playmates but he quickly disappeared.

While trying to avoid hitting a truck Thomas Duffy of 4603 Eastwick Ave., crashed into a traffic control box with his car Sunday near his home. He was taken to Mercy hospital.

Archie MacCuff, 8637 Holstein Ave., while walking near his home Sunday was stabbed by a man in the right side. He told the police that he only knew his assailant by sight and believed the attack was the result of a mistake. He was treated at Mercy hospital.

It is the proud boast of the Children's Country Work association, which is 50 years old this summer, that during the entire half century of its existence it has never paid an officer, never charged one penny for free vacations, never received help from the state or city, never received a single contribution through paid solicitors, but has sustained summer aid summer on the voluntary contributions of the public.

Norris Warrick, supervising principal of the Harrison school, died Sunday at his home of colic. He was buried Wednesday.

Bishops J. Albert Johnson, W. H. Heard, Dr. R. R. Wright, Jr., and M. Baxter returned from Detroit, Mich., where they were attending the Major Wright, president of the Citizens and Southern Bank & Trust company, has secured memberships for three young people in the American Institute of Banking. This is supposed to be the first time that Race applicants have received admission to the Institute.

Bishop Josiah Caldwell was in New York Sunday and spoke at the Rash Memorial A. M. E. Z. church.

Raymond Warren was run down by a car on the outskirts of Rockhall, sustaining a fractured thigh and other injuries. The driver did not stop and some time later the man was picked up and placed at the farm gate of the man who employs him, where he lay all night.

Mrs. Mayme Butler, an actress, formerly with the Williams and Walker company, died in New York last week and her body was sent here for interment. She was a song and dance artist and went on the stage when she was 18 years old. She leaves a mother and one child.

Rev. S. A. Donnell of Passaic, N. J., was here last week.

William E. Pettit, local manager of the New York Tatler, is spending a few days in New York.

David W. Kellum of the editorial staff of The Chicago Defender is spending a few days in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis of N. 25th St. spent Sunday at Norberth visiting their cousin, Mrs. Elizabeth Brock Croff. They had a fine time motoring through the country estate of Mrs. Croff.

CORAOPLIS, PA.

Many from here are attending the annual spring conference of the fifth district at the A. M. E. Zion church of Sewickley, Pa., of which Bishop George C. Clement is president. Rev. Cunningham, pastor of the St. Paul A. M. E. church, this city, is attending the annual spring conference in Sewickley, Pa. Mrs. Bessie Dickerson, Mrs. Carrie Barry and Mrs. Julia Thomas gave a supper Saturday for the benefit of the church. Mrs. Birdie Goodnight gave a party in honor of her husband, Herbert Goodnight. A delightful luncheon was served and many nice present were received. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. B. Goodnight, Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Goodnight, Edgar Goodnight, Mrs. Crawley, Mrs. Flor-ance Potter, Miss Sadie Anderson, Miss Lula Moore and Miss Lula May Bunt-ton.

UNIVERSAL, PA.

Rev. L. W. Ware preached at the First Baptist church Sunday night. Rev. R. A. Sims is pastor. Mr. and Mrs. Cuba Derring returned from Goose, Va. Mrs. Dolly Johnson of Lebanon, Ky., is visiting her cousin, Mrs. George Hogan. Last Saturday night the Young Men's Progressive club entertained in honor of Mrs. Margaret Lancaster and Mrs. Clara Beavers of Indianapolis. About 75 guests were present.

NEW CASTLE, PA.

Rev. J. S. Jackson of Birmingham, Ala., a former pastor of the Second Baptist church, also of St. Paul Baptist church, is spending some time in the city and preached at St. Paul and Union Baptist churches. Rev. A. C. Ball, a former pastor of Woodlawn, Pa., Zion church, has been assigned to St. Luke A. M. E. Zion church. Mrs. Wade Addison and Mrs. Cora Walker of Youngstown, Ohio, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chauncy Stanton of Shady Ave. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Weber of W. North St. and Miss Fred Dillard of Elm St. motored to Weber of S. Beaver St. motored to New York for an extended stay. Mrs. Weeks and Mr. and Mrs. McKinley Jackson of Shenango St. motored to Cleveland to spend the Fourth. Mrs. Philip Hall of Canton, Ohio, is the guest of her niece, Mrs. Blanche Dillard of Elm St. Mrs. Lydia Brown of W. Fell St. is visiting in Beaver Falls. Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Miller of S. Mill St. went to Connecticut to spend the Fourth. Miss Lena Hackett of Washington, D. C., a former resident of this city, is visiting here a few days en route to Canada. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Kittrell and Mr. and Mrs. Millard Blake of Erie, Pa., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Davis of Harrison St. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wilkes of Shenango St. celebrated their silver wedding Tuesday evening at the Elm St. Y. W. C. A. Sixty guests were present. In the receiving line were Mr. and Eppie Dillard, Mrs. Mabel Taylor, Mrs. Elizabeth Ware, Mrs. Julia Fitzhugh and Mrs. Gertrude Anderson. The wedding cake was a creation of art by Mrs. Mabel Gardner. Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Dantzer and brother Jackson of W. Grant St. and William Davis of State St. motored to Detroit to spend the Fourth. Mrs. Alex Williams of Grant St. received the announcement of the marriage of Miss Irene Robins, formerly of Virginia and recently of this city, to Dr. J. Twyman Fuqua.