

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

A Correction

Walter Pettigrew, who was buried recently from Charles Jackson's undertaking establishment, was not found dead at his home, 4623 Prairie avenue, as previously stated, but died in an ambulance on the way to Provident hospital.

David Crosthwait in City

David Crosthwait, research engineer with the C. A. Dunham Co., Marshalltown, Iowa, was in the city Wednesday and Thursday. Thursday morning he gave a talk at the Washburn Extension high school to the students of the training school conducted by the Master Steam Fitters' association. The discussion was supplemented by lantern slides and by a discussion of the modern types of steam heating systems and various factors in design and installation which affect their economy and satisfaction. On Wednesday evening he attended the dance given by Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Bell at the Vincennes hotel. Mr. Crosthwait left on Friday for Marshalltown.

Great Revival Closes

One of the greatest revivals ever held in Chicago was brought to a close Sunday evening at Grant Memorial A. M. E. church, 46th street and Evans avenue, the Rev. T. L. Scott, pastor. Miss Martha J. Keys, evangelist of Louisville, Ky., in one of the greatest Gospel preachers of America. She preaches with such force and power that men cannot resist. During the meetings she spoke to men only, and nearly 400 men and boys were present to hear this gifted young woman. Her message was so forceful that 59 men promised to lead better lives. Over 100 persons were converted during these meetings. A splendid free-will offering was given to Miss Keys and many valuable gifts.

Clarence Smith Dies

Clarence Smith of 3443 Prairie avenue departed this life Saturday last, and was buried Tuesday morning from Quinn chapel. He was a member of the Y. M. C. A., the Armour Efficiency club, as well as of Hannibal lodge, K. of P. A wife, Mrs. Ida Smith, and a little daughter, together with many friends mourn his loss.

Gifts Debut Party

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Jefferson, 3423 Federal street, and Mrs. Mary Taylor, 1244 West 61st street, entertained their daughter and niece, Miss Ethel Jackson, with a debut and birthday party Jan. 19 at the Phyllis Wheatley home. The guests numbered 75. The hall was beautifully decorated with orange and gold and the honored guest was beautifully gowned in the same colors. Bernard Thomas, floor manager, and music furnished by Mrs. Evelyn Hardin. Many beautiful gifts were received.

Knoxville College Club Dance

Spend a sociable evening with the Chicago Knoxville College club Saturday evening, Jan. 27, at the Chicago University of Music, 3672 Michigan avenue. J. W. Fisher, president; L. E. McGowan, secretary. Admission, 25 cents.—Advertisement.

Bible Lecture

"Millions Now Living Will Never Die." Bible lecture, auspices International Bible Students association. Subject, "How to Study the Bible and Understand It," by W. L. Bradford, Sunday, Jan. 28, 2 p. m. at People's Movement club, 5140 Indiana avenue. All are invited; seats free. No collection.

Sent to County Hospital

The following persons were sent to the County hospital this week: Willie King, 26, 5207 Dearborn street; Mrs. Alice Brown, 22, 4014 Dearborn street; Anse Crosby, 23, 4017 Dearborn street; Miss Frances Timmons, 54, 6144 Dearborn street; Crawford Stewart, 25, 719 East 48th street; Mrs. Elizabeth Gorman, 24, 5312 Wabash avenue; William Jones, 21, 4030 Indiana avenue; Edmund Wilbur, 61, 4450 Dearborn street; Mrs. Essie Harris, 34, 4007 Federal street; William Caston, 42, 5139 Federal street; Lillian Pride, 1, 2977 Vernon avenue; Edward Levy, 29, 732 East 43rd street; Henry Turner, 35, 4336 Wabash avenue; Oscar Bond, 25, 5200 Federal street; Mrs. Alberta Hines, 23, 3707 Prairie avenue; Mrs. Bette Scott, 23, 535 State street; Mrs. Georgia Adams, 68, 2028 Dearborn street; Mrs. Stella Ransfer, 43, 1870 State street; William Parham, 29, 2901 State street; Robert Wilson, 16, 20 East 31st street; Tom Washington, 22, 3314 Cottage Grove avenue; Frank Sanders, 17, 2973 Wabash avenue; Mrs. Julia Deumar, 24, 3000 Wabash avenue; Tom Perkins, 36, 26 West 37th place; Thomas Jones, 24, 3219 Calumet avenue; and Mrs. Anna Johnson, 32, 3104 LaSalle street.

Struck by Auto

As she was attempting to cross the street at 26th and State streets, Miss Mary Cledon, 18, 2327 Wabash avenue, was struck by an automobile. She sustained an injured leg and hand.

Dies Suddenly in Home

Mrs. Lillian Washington, 55 years old, 11 West 26th place, died suddenly in her home. The doctors said that her death was due to heart disease.

Old Trouble Recurs

When Thomas Harris, 53, accidentally fell down the stairs of his home at 2710 Dearborn street Dec. 2 last he suffered a dislocated leg. He is confined to his home again from a recurrence of the old trouble.

Bishop Carey in South

Bishop Archibald J. Carey left Monday of last week for Philadelphia, Pa., where he attended the funeral of the late Bishop H. T. Tanner. Thence he went to Memphis, Tenn., where he spent several days overlooking the churches of his diocese in that city and section. He will leave Memphis this week for Terre Haute, Ind., where the purchase of a new church is contemplated.

Mrs. Hudlin Recovering

Mrs. William H. Hudlin, 3328 South Park avenue, who has been critically ill for two weeks, is recovering under the care of Dr. Perry Olden. Mrs. Hudlin had the misfortune to get a severe case of throat infection from the extraction of an ulcerated tooth.

Appointed Instructor

Mrs. Mable Sanford-Lewis, a graduate of the Chicago Musical college, has been appointed music instructor over a large class at Ebenezer Missionary Baptist church, 45th and Vincennes avenue. Mrs. Lewis is also organist of Ebenezer and is studying at the Chicago conservatory.

Suffers Breakdown

Mrs. W. P. Harrison, 1726 Nelson street, is in St. Luke's hospital suffering from a nervous breakdown after the recent death of her mother and little daughter.

Sick List

William B. Macon, 4733 Champlain avenue, is seriously ill at his home. Mrs. Fannie McCurdy, 529 Bowen avenue, is able to be up and out again, after several months' illness.

BAHAI SERVICES

Albert Vail will speak next Sunday in St. John's hall, 18th floor, Masonic temple, State and Randolph streets, at 3:30 p. m., on "The Divine Station of Christ." Everybody welcome to these services. Meetings are being held at the homes of Bahais every evening of the week in all parts of the city, to which all persons are also invited.

Red Caps' Opening

The Red Caps' grand opening, under the leadership of President Sandy Trice, Friday evening, Jan. 26, was one of the social events of the season. George Kersey was the speaker of the evening. The musical program listed such names as Miss Goldie Guy, pianist; Miss Charlotte Paige, violinist, and Mrs. Gladys Elaine Hoffman. The doors of the club opened at 9 o'clock. An effort was made by the members of the club to show that the organization was working just as much for community betterment as it was for its own advancement. Delaware's orchestra furnished the dance music.

Shoots at Husband

Officers Sevour and Connelley were called to 2014 State street, where a battle was on between Penn Hardy and his wife, Panolla. Mrs. Hardy stated that she had fired a shot at her husband after he had beaten her up. Hardy was fined $5 and costs.

En Route to City

William H. Fields of St. Louis, Mo., national grand master of A. U. K. & D. of A., who is making a flying trip through Columbus, Dayton and other points in Ohio, is en route to Chicago to be present at the indoor carnival to be given by A. U. K. & D. of A., Jan. 24 to 27, at Entertainers' hall, 209 East 35th street.

To Leave for the South

A large delegation of ministers from Iowa, Illinois, Indiana and other Western states are preparing to leave for the bishops conference, which will convene in South Carolina Feb. 11.

At Provident Hospital

Mrs. Louise Kilforn of 3142 Calumet avenue is very ill at Provident hospital, 16 West 36th street.

Out Again

Mrs. Nicy Lucas, 1630 West Waukegan place, Morgan Park, who has been confined to her bed on account of illness, is able to be out again.

Mrs. McCall Improving

Mrs. Sarah McCall, 3729 Elmwood avenue, well known in fraternal circles, sister of Mrs. Eliza Jackson, who has been quite sick, is somewhat improved.

Attorney Watkins Goes South

S. A. T. Watkins, supreme attorney of the K. of P., attorney for the Pyramid Building and Loan association and the Douglas National bank, left Tuesday on a long business trip South in Hot Springs, Little Rock, Ark., and many points in Texas.

Installs Officers

Mrs. Lou Ella Young, D. G. M. N. G. of the Households of Illinois and jurisdiction, installed the officers of the Household of Ruth, located in Evanston, Ill., Thursday evening, Jan. 18, in the presence of a large audience. Mrs. Young was accompanied to Evanston by Mrs. Parthenia J. Brown, member of Household No. 44.

Closes Revival

Miss Martha J. Key, the great evangelist, has just closed one of the greatest revivals held in Chicago by a woman, on Grant A. M. E. church, 4600 Evans avenue. Her farewell words were said last Sunday before a large audience. Through her 159 converts and accessions were made to the church and more than $500 raised. She was presented with $375 and more than $150 worth of presents. Miss Keys goes to Morgan Park to conduct revival meetings for two weeks at the Rev. Walden's church.

Visits in South Bend

Mrs. Katherine S. Gaines, cashier of the Vendome theater, spent the weekend in South Bend, Ind., as the guest of Mrs. Etta Moore Hatcher, 102 Adams street.

Wife Shoots Husband

During a quarrel in their home at 234 East 31st street, Lee Barnes, 30, suffered a gunshot wound in the jaw, which he claims was inflicted by his wife, Lillian. They were both arrested by Officers Trilling and Adlan and their story will be told to Judge Schulman Feb. 6.

Shot with Shotgun

According to the story told by Officers Mazon and McFarland, who made the arrest, Walter Byrd, 45, 3628 State street, and Eugene Pender, 643 East 42d street, were quarreling over moonshine whiskey when Pender shot Byrd in the leg with a shotgun. The case was continued until Feb. 20.

Hit by Street Car

While driving a horse at 35th and Dearborn streets, Edward Payton, 31, 4337 Forrestville avenue, sustained a contusion of both knees when he was struck by a 35th street car.

Has Unbalanced Mind

Willard Simpson, 24, 2626 Vernon avenue, was carried to the Payconathic hospital to be kept under observation pending an investigation into his sanity.

Fractures Hip

Mrs. Mamie Benson, 48, 3832 Prairie avenue, was carried to the County hospital suffering with a fracture of the hip, which she sustained Jan. 13.

Woman's Feet Crushed

As she was attempting to cross the street at 18th and State streets, the feet of Mrs. Mary Holston, 38, 618 Hobble street, were crushed when she was struck and run over by an automobile coal truck.

Accidentally Stabbed

While playing with a girl, known to her as Mary, at 31st street and Giles avenue, Miss Eloise Welcher, 23, 2423 Wabash avenue, stated that she was accidentally stabbed back of the ear by the girl. She sustained an inch cut.

Injured Internally

Suffering with many cuts and bruises and internal injuries, William Anderson, 26 years old, 37 East 31st street, is at the People's hospital fighting for his life. While running to catch a car at 22d street and Wabash avenue, some unknown man ran into him and he was knocked in the path of a passing street car.

Officer Majors Ill

Police Officer James G. Majors, assigned to the Stanton Avenue police station, is confined to his home suffering with ptomaine poisoning. He was stricken while on duty Monday night.

Fractures Knee

While climbing on a coal shed at 35th and Dearborn streets, GERAL Jackson, 14, 3919 Dearborn street, fractured his knee when he slipped and fell to the ground.

Dies While Talking

While talking to Mrs. Belle Kelly in his home at 2312 Indiana avenue, West Hines, 38, dropped to the floor. When picked up he was found to be dead. At the coroner's inquest, conducted by Deputy Coroner Michael Walsh, it was determined that he had died of organic heart trouble.

Overcome by Gas

Mrs. Fannie Giles, 50, 3361 South Park avenue, is confined to her home suffering with gas poisoning. She was overcome when she was in her room was accidentally turned on.

Suffering with Old Age

After living four score years and two, George Hamilton, 2708 LaSalle street, was carried to the County hospital suffering from the effects of old age. He has become unable to care for himself.

Mrs. Maxie Injured

An automobile truck, driven by a reckless driver, struck and knocked down Mrs. Edith Maxie, 40, 2720 Prairie avenue, as she was attempting to cross the street at 31st street and Prairie avenue. She was injured internally.

Accidentally Shoots Self

John Thomas, 36, 2953 State street, a porter employed in a poolroom at 3011 State street, accidentally shot himself in the foot when he dropped a gun which was kept in the place.

Buys Shoes on Bad Check

A forged check for $75.50 was given by Ralph Johnson, 3706 Prairie avenue, in payment for a pair of shoes and $5 change. When he returned to the store the next morning for the rest of the money from the check he was arrested by Officer Thomas Cleary. He was fined $5 and costs and sentenced to 25 days in the House of Correction.

Mrs. Pearl Butler Dies

Mrs. P. Butler, 4032 Indiana avenue, passed away Jan. 9 at 4 a. m. She leaves to mourn her loss a mother, Martha Sewell; husband, John H. Butler; a son, 3 years old, John, Jr.; four sisters and two brothers. She was buried from St. Elizabeth's Catholic church Friday, Jan. 12, at 10 a. m., Interment Mt. Olivet cemetery.

Federation Gives Carnival

The permanent home committee of the Chicago Federation of Colored Women's clubs will give a grand carnival and pre-Lenten promenade at the Eighth Regiment armory Feb. 12. It will also be a Lincoln-Douglas celebration. Two orchestras in attendance and the entire "Shuffle Along" Co., including its celebrated orchestra, will stage a cakewalk and carnival after midnight. Doors open at 7 p. m. Admission 25c. Mrs. Elizabeth Crowley, general chairman, and Mrs. Ida H. Wells-Barnett, chairman entertainment committee.

Samuel White Dead

The funeral of Samuel H. White, 60 years old, who died recently, was held from his residence, 3522 Calumet avenue. The Rev. Martin, pastor of Bethesda Baptist church, and the Rev. Blackwell of the A. M. E. Zion church officiated. The deceased was born in Louisville, Ky., in 1863 and came to Chicago in 1894. He married Miss Anna Whitfield in 1900, who, with a sister-in-law, Mrs. G. H. White, survive him. He was buried in Graceland cemetery.

Property Owners' Association

Michael Faherty, president of the board of local improvements, will address the South Side Property Owners' Association Sunday afternoon, Jan. 28, at 3140 Indiana avenue. The program committee has arranged musical numbers. Meeting begins promptly at 4 o'clock. Oscar DePriest, president.

Arrivals at Idlewild

Among the persons at the Idlewild hotel last week: E. Smith, Detroit, Mich.; E. Carter and wife, Detroit, Mich.; Miss Annie Smith, city; Mr. and Mrs. Pope, city; Baird Smith, city; W. E. Williams, Gary, Ind.; Samuel Nichols, Akron, Ohio; Hubert Hing, Terre Haute, Ind.; John Baker, Portland, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. Gomez, city; Mr. and Mrs. J. Daniels, Benton Harbor, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. White, city; E. Jones, city; E. W. Holland, Detroit, Mich.; C. Monroe, New York City; Chas. Johnson and wife, city; R. C. Taylor, city; S. A. Thomas, A. Cunningham, city; Roy Smith, Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Give Dancing Party

On Wednesday evening, Jan. 17, Mr. and Mrs. J. Delos Bell gave a formal dancing party in honor of Miss Mary Marcelle Walker, debutante of the Yuletide season in the ballroom of the Vincennes hotel. Miss Walker, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Walker, 6438 Eberhardt avenue, has made a host of friends by her winsome manner, and is an extremely talented member of the younger smart set. She was a picture of loveliness in rose chiffon over gold lace, wearing gold slippers and carrying a jade fan. Mrs. Bell, the hostess, was radiant in a creation of cameo crepe satin trimmed in black and carrying a black fan. Approximately 200 guests were present and many gorgeous creations were worn by the ladies. Music for the evening was furnished by William Browne's orchestra, and as the guests departed they acclaimed Mr. and Mrs. Bell ideal host and hostess.

Mrs. Croker Gives Luncheon

Mrs. Norman J. Croker of 5317 South Wabash avenue entertained 12 ladies in honor of Mrs. Ida Napier Langston of St. Louis, Mo., at an elaborate luncheon and musicale on Wednesday, Jan. 17, at 2 o'clock. The house and table were beautifully decorated with cut flowers and ferns. Mrs. Croker was so charming a hostess the afternoon passed all too soon. Those present were Mesdames James Parker, Arthur Mitchell, Kate Easton, Julius N. Avendorph, Ulysses Blair, Ophelia Bryant, Sheppard Paul, Alonzo Thompson, Carroll N. Langston and John Leland.

Visits at Urbana

Mrs. Julius N. Avendorph returned home Monday afternoon after spending Saturday and Sunday in Urbana, Ill., visiting her son, Julius N. Jr., who has been quite ill for a week at the University hospital. He is on the road to recovery. Mrs. Avendorph was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson of 607 North Hickory street, Champaign, Ill.

Mrs. Norman Croker Ill

Mrs. Norman J. Croker of 5317 South Wabash avenue, was taken quite ill on Saturday and is confined to her home.

Mrs. Taylor and Sons Ill

Mrs. Robert L. Taylor and her two sons of Des Plaines, Ill., were confined to their bed during the past week on account of illness.

Conducting Revival

The Rev. W. J. Walls, editor of The Star of Zion, Charlotte, N. C., is conducting the revival meetings every evening at Walter's A. M. E. Zion church, 3600 Dearborn street. He is a great preacher and the crowded house each night manifests the enthusiasm. The choir, under Prof. John A. Taylor, furnishes inspiring music. The meetings will continue throughout the month of January.

To Sell 50 Lots

M. T. Bailey will sell 50 lots cheap in the beautiful suburb of Morgan Park Sunday and Monday. Two lots to each person, $20 down or more and $10 per month. Last opportunity for cheap lots. Call Boulevard 1577, or stop at 3635 State street, second.—Adv.

Beg Pardon

The name of Julius N. Avendorph, Chicago social leader, was inadvertently left out of the article on Dr. J. W. McDowell's wedding on Tuesday evening, Jan. 16, as master of ceremonies. Drs. W. H. Marshall, S. J. Dickerson, F. G. Trapp and C. H. Minor served as ushers.

Evangelist to Speak

The Rev. J. S. Woods, evangelist, will preach at St. Stephen's A. M. E. church, West Side, Sunday morning, Jan. 21. Subject, "The Two Sons." Feb. 4 he will deliver the same sermon at Institutional church, by request.

Called from City

Mrs. J. S. Woods, 5245 Indiana avenue, left for Des Moines, Iowa, Thursday to visit her sister, Mrs. Elizabeth DePugh Glass, who is quite ill at the residence of her son, Oscar Glass.

The Browns Entertain

The Philander Smith College Alumni club was elaborately entertained in the spacious apartment of Mr. and Mrs. Chylow B. Brown, 3308 Grand boulevard, Monday evening. The house was beautifully decorated in the college colors of old gold and sage green. Light refreshments were served. Among the special guests of the evening were: Misses Lillian Speed, Elvora Revel, Mary Pollett, Alberta Pope and Minnie Jones. Mesdames Adell Matthews and Charles Deaw, Mr. and Mrs. Croom and the Messrs. L. P. Chappelle, P. L. Prattis, Ira Grams and L. W. Warrens.

Entertains with Breakfast

Mrs. Emma Parker McDougal entertained at breakfast Mrs. Edith Tiffin Stewart of Moline, Ill., president of the State Federation of Clubs. Covers were laid for four. After which they visited the meetings of the American Rose Art club and the Volunteer Workers.

Mrs. Ethel Robinson Dead

Mrs. Daisy C. Jones, 3845 State street, is in receipt of a telegram notifying her of the death of her friend,

Mrs. Ethel Robinson, Coldwater, Mich., but a former resident of this city and the wife of Clint Robinson.

Trents Arrive in Town

Mr. and Mrs. Trent of Brookfield, Mo., are in the city for an indefinite stay, having been called here owing to the serious illness of Mrs. Trent's son, Policeman E. A. Strother, who is ill at the government hospital on 75th street, suffering with tuberculosis contracted by exposure while serving with the A. E. F. in France. The couple will spend some time as the guest of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence B. Trent, 646 E. Pershing road.

A Big Night

On Wednesday evening, Jan. 31, Ascher's Peerless theater, Grand and Oakwood boulevards, will be the scene of one of the most brilliant and fashionable events perhaps ever staged in Chicago. The occasion being the opening under the directorship of Alfred Anderson of this, the most modern and palatial motion picture house on the South Side. Those who were fortunate to receive an invitation will indeed have a rare treat, as a bill of exceptional merit will be presented in addition to social features unique and pleasurable.

Mrs. Della Willis Dies

Mrs. Della Willis, 2706 LaSalle street, mother of Mrs. Anna Willis Walker, 3350 State street, died Jan. 23 at the County hospital. Funeral Saturday, Jan. 27, from Charles Jackson's undertaking chapel, 3317 State street.

Dr. Penn to Speak

On Sunday, Jan. 28, at 3:30 p. m. Dr. I. Garland Penn, one of the leading men of the Race and author of note, will deliver an address at St. Mark's church, 50th street and Wabash avenue.