Students Sing On Peace Broadcast

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Nov. 15.—The Armistice Day broadcast by the Philadelphia Federation of Churches of which Dr. K. A. E. Palmquist is executive secretary, was featured by the singing of the Cheyney College chorus of 43 mixed voices over station WFIL Sunday under the direction of Dr. Leslie Pinkney Hill.

In addition to its regular professional offerings this college makes a special study of Race life and history, with the idea of preparing workers for Race communities, and magnifies Race music and art, notably the spirituals, as a great positive contribution to the cultural development of our modern society. This chorus of 43 mixed voices is an outgrowth of this emphasis which makes room, however, for all the great music of the world.
