

CLEVELAND NEWS

Cleveland, Ohio, June 6.—Councilman and Mrs. T. W. Fleming, 2342 E. 40th street, have their guests for the Republican convention Attorney and Mrs. W. H. Stanton, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. William Miles, Detroit, and Mr. and Mrs. John Logan, Columbus, Ohio. Detective and Mrs. Arthur McFarland, E. 85th St., are expecting about 25 friends from Columbus for the convention. Fred Conner, of Detroit, spent Decoration day in the city as guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Conner, Jr.

References

40th St. Attorney Roy R. Cheeks left for the auto races in Indianapolis in his Marmon car. He returned, but is "mum" to his friends as to what became of the car. Mrs. Arthur Morton, E. 82d St., was in Xenia, Ohio, last week to attend the graduation of her daughter, Miss Kathryn Howard. Mr. and Mrs. Alvin E. Morton, guests at the convention week, their brother-in-law and sister, Prof. and Mrs. Samuel Singer, Wellington chamber No. 5018 held its regular meeting Monday night, May 19, with a large attendance. Receipts for the evening were $104.43. Morrish Swan, reporter, Mrs. S. A. Wade, E. 95th St., was hostess to the Iowath club Monday. Mrs. E. C. Smith, 1034 St. Clair, returned to the bedside of her parents in King Edward county, Virginia, leaving them much improved. Miss Carothers of the P. W. A. was married Tuesday evening to Mr. Young, a prominent Central Ave. business man. The marriage took place in the parlors. Mr. and Mrs. William Taylor, E. 30th St. and Central Ave., motored to Indianapolis in their Hudson car, to attend the auto races. They visited St. Louis. Miss Willa P. Miller left Saturday for Columbus, where she was to join Mr. and Mrs. A. Harris. Miss Mary Ethel Frazier and others en route to West Virginia institute commencement. They anticipate a delightful motor trip. Dr. J. H. George departed from Mt. Vernon, Ill., May 25 to attend the graduation exercises of the Central Ave. school. Dr. H. C. George and Sallie Rosella George, our graduates from the normal department of the Cleveland school of education Friday night will be Misses Equilla Anderson, Elsie Cox, Henrietta Checks and Miriam Nesbit. Each will be assigned schools at once. J. H. McConico, national auditor of the Mosaic Templars of America, spoke to a large gathering Monday evening at Tyndale central church in an interest of the organization. Mrs. Mattie Kerns was chairman of the meeting. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Ben Williams, Hamilton, Ohio, a fine 11-pound daughter, named Hazel Williams. Mother and daughter doing fine. Mrs. Gertrude Crews after a most successful trip of three weeks has established a permanent lodge of Lady Moose here. She returns to Columbus from Coonara, where she has been waiting for in other cities of Ohio for the settling up of lodges. Mr. and Mrs. Brent Stewart, Blaine Ave., motored to Columbus for Decoration day. Councilman Thomas W. Fleming and Dr. J. H. Taylor motored to Indianapolis for the races. While there they with a number of other out-of-town guests were royally entertained at the home of Mrs. J. H. Fleming and Mrs. Ransom of the Mrs. Walker company. Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Tedford and family, E. 153d St., motored to Elvira for Decoration day. Attorney and Mrs. J. E. Roundtree and guests, who included Mrs. T. W. Fleming and Mrs. Minerva Taylor, spent the day pleasantly at James' farm, Geneva-on-the-Lake. Mr. and Mrs. Chester Jackson, 1034 St. Clair, returned to Detroit yesterday. The late Bishop C. S. Smith's family. Leroy Jones visited his step-father, Wash Ingraham, Barborton, Ohio. Mr. Ingraham is very optimistic over the report of oil being found on his farm in Oklahoma. It is said, Jesse R. Miller leaves in a few days for Fairbanks, Alaska. Mr. Harry Clarke and Mrs. Adie Clarke, W. Wilmington, Ohio, will be here in a few days. The guests of their niece, Mrs. Esther Spencer, Miss Frances Kiner and Mrs. Vic Walker, E. 50th St. They left for a visit with their niece's mother, Mrs. C. B. Kiner, in Pearl Iowa. Mrs. Kiner will join her daughters in the near future. Mrs. T. W. Walker of Pittsburgh is visiting her aunt, Mrs. O. B. Moss of the Central Ave. hotel. She will remain there during the convention. Mrs. F. D. Cochran, Mrs. Marie Taylor Brown and Mrs. Richard McCee are attending the state association of the Elks in Warren this week. W. A. Lewis, leading knight, and Charles Gordon of Antioch church, both of King Tut lodge, are also attending. Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Carroll, E. 74th St., have as guest for the week their son, Dr. Joseph Carroll, Columbus. Mr. and Mrs. Carroll, Mrs. A. Lucas and Miss Emma T. Williams attended a meeting at Hotel Stalter last week to study the care of the aged. Alexander Johnston, New York, was cial speaker.

Despite the rain June 1 was a banner Sunday. Secretary G. S. Smith of the Congregational union preached a wonderful sermon. Although the attendance was limited, 32 people contributed $910.75 toward the building fund, making the total for the day $1.78 and the total cash for eight days $2,200. Mrs. J. T. Suggs reported $759.15, of which $703.15 represented payments on previous pledges. The final installment of cash effort was last Wednesday night. The M. T. M. and Philathea classes will give dinners June 18 and 25, respectively. The dinner June 11 will be omitted on account of the Republican convention. The Missionary union met Monday with Mrs. Rachel Harris at the residence of Mrs. Florence Smith, 2241 E. 85th St. A mass meeting will be held at the temple the evening of June 8. Col. James Conklin, Linscomb and Mr. Medill McCormick will be the speakers. Councilman Thomas W. Fleming will preside and musical numbers will be rendered by Miss Nabel Clark, Miss Georgia Fields, the Mozart Glee club and the Mt. Zion choir. Robert K.

Mt. Zion expects to occupy the temple in part on June 8 and in full after July 1. The Hawaiian gardens, the temporary home, will be used during the time the convention is in session. The informal headquarters of our group, Mrs. Lethia C. Fleming is in charge of the reception of women and Mrs. Minerva Taylor is in charge of the housing. All letters should be addressed to 2315 E. 40th St., Superior 2740. Secretary E. M. Halliday of the congregational board will also be a guest of Mt. Zion at the opening meeting at the

Convention Gossip

Perry W. Howard, Henry Lincoln Johnson, Robert R. Church, Ben Davis and Walter Cohen arrived at the first of the week to appear before the National committee in behalf of their delegations those states. In the convention are conducted by "illy white" delegations. In talking with Councilman Fleming Sunday, Mr. Howard said that he had nothing to worry about; that he felt very happy over the fact that his delegation would be justly dealt with and be seated. All are making the hotel headquarters at the majestic hotel, The Caterers Club, 2315 E. 40th St., have their quarters to the visiting delegates for use as headquarters and dressing rooms. Charles Cottrell, Toledo, Ohio, and William Clifford, Washington, D. C. two old war horses in the G. O. P. cause, are expected this week. The Lincoln hotel, 40th and Scoville, will be headquarters for the Race press men. Among the newswriters expected are J. H. Roscoe, Conling Simmons and Phil A. Jones of the Chicago Defender, Oscar W. Adams of the Birmingham Reporter, Nahum D. Brasher and Claud Barnett of the Associated Negro Press, William White of the Defender New York office and Attorney Vann of the Pittsburgh Courier. Other guests expected to register at the Hotel Lincoln are Walter Cohen, Ben Davis, L. J. News, members of the International service, Columbus, Ohio and Mrs. H. E. Braden, Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Lowery, Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Hardin, New Orleans, La.; P. W. Barnett, general contractor, Atkinson, Kan.; Dr. C. M. Moates, Leavenworth, Kan.; Mrs. Louise M. Payverweather, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Mrs. Maura, secretary at Col. Roscoe Simmons, Chicago; Dr. F. Davis and Mrs. M. M. Miant, Louisville, Ky.; Mrs. T. W. Fleming reports that there are plenty of accommodations for those who anticipate coming to the convention. She can be reached at 2315 E. 40th St., or get in touch with Mrs. Minerva Taylor, in charge of registration, 2315 E. 40th St.

Cleveland, Ohio.

Mrs. Mary Church Terrell, Washington, D. C., and Hon. and Mrs. Charles C. Cottrell, Toledo, Ohio, will be guests of Mrs. George A. Myers, Pasadena Ave. Mrs. Cottrell will be one of the assistant secretaries of the convention. Mr. and Mrs. Malone of the Poro college, St. Louis, Mo., will be quartered with Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Dale, E. 40th St.; also Mr. and Mrs. Oscar De Priest, Chicago. The charming and talented will act as pages and ushers for the great full dress reception and ball at Zimmerman's Arcadia June 12 will also be ushers at the ladies' reception to be held at the Hawaiian Gardens Wednesday evening, June 11. Capt. Walter Loving and wife are among the notables expected in the city for life convention. Captain Loving was the organizer and former musical director of the world famous Filipino Constabulary band. Miss Mary E. Fleming, life member of the Ohio Women's Suffrage Association, has the distinct honor of being the only Race woman member of the Citizens' Committee of 1950, a member of the general entertainment committee, a member of the arbitration committee of the Ohio Women's Republican club, hostess at Coolidge headquarters, a member of the flowers committee with Mrs. Clapp and Mrs. Hinchclife (white), also hostess Central Ave.'s great white reception given on 14th St. to E. 55th St. is being rapidly pushed to completion for the Republican convention. According to the sponsor, Councilman Fleming, Work on Prospect Ave. was abandoned until the completion of the

Ava. system.

N. A. C. P. Wins Suit

The local branch of the N. A. C. P. won a civil rights suit against a clerk in Hoffman's Playhouse Square ice cream parlor, Euclid 11, which refused to serve Mrs. Garvin, wife of Dr. C. H. Garvin, and sister, Miss Dorothy West, and Mrs. Grace Taylor, wife of Dr. J. H. Taylor. In court Mr. Hoffman admitted that he had instructed his clerks to refuse our group service in his two stores. It is reported, Judge Bradley Hull fined the clerk $50 and costs. To Attorney Clayborne George, president of the local branch is due unstated prize for winning this victory. He will call the other stores to his rescue. Hoffman will be sued or damages sustained by the humiliation, it is said. Dr. H. A. Anderson, a prominent dentist of Jacksonville, Fla., spent a few days in the city visiting his daughter, Miss Helen Anderson, whom he accompanied back to Oberlin conservatory. Miss Anderson and father were guests of Miss Laura Garvin, E. 57th St. Harold A. Hunt, Jr., of the stock sales department of the Anchor Line, New York City, for New Orleans, La., where he will become the groom of Miss Matilda Vance, the charming daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Vance, Saturday, June 7. Miss Hardee, Philadelphia, Pa., was the house guest of Miss Ruth Howard for the Decoration day holidays. She is a student at Oberlin conservatory. Miss Lethia Fleming, who underwent an operation for appendicitis is recuperating at her home, Tazewell, Va. The J. D. club met Sunday with Miss Clara Anderson, E. 57th St. The officers are: Edna Gordon, Beatrix Wright, president; Gordon Gales, vice president; Helen Tor, secretary; Bernice Sinclair, treasurer; Naomi Grist, sergeant-at-arms; Phyllis Anderson, reporter. St. John's choir is proud to have with them Mrs. Olive Wells Ball and Mrs. Pearl Cleage Johnson, contraltos, of the Harmony trio. Augustus Grist rendered a beautiful solo at the morning service last Sun-

MR. JOHN K.

Decoration Day Parties

The I. B. C. club held its annual auto outing at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Smith, Painesville, Ohio. The party included Mr. and Mrs. William McIntire, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Lemon, the Rev. and Mrs. S. A. Lucas, Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. George G. Jones, Mrs. Ethel Edwards and others. One of the most enjoyable of the Decoration day auto parties was that of members of the Windsor courts. The party clubs to attend were from the Windsor, Ohio, on the farm of the Rev. H. C. Bailey. Among the party were Mr. and Mrs. H. Maxon, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bacey and daughter Juanita, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Putnam, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. McCall, Mrs. Butler, St.

Moore, Helen Ramey and others. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Ingram, Morrison Ave., and Mr. and Mrs. George Brooks, E. St. Moore, and to Jerome, Ohio, county seat of Ashtabula, and spent the day delightfully at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Woodward of Jefferson Rd., Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Taylor were guests of the party, who were delightfully entertained by Mr. Woodward and Augustus J. B. Baker at a real chicken dinner. Mr. Woodward is slowly recovering from two slight attacks of paralysis. The "All Over Town Revue" at the Temple theater June 19 and 20 promises to surpass all other local undertakings of the kind in the past. The management is toward the new Elion building fund. Mrs. J. T. Suggs, Mrs. J. V. Willis and Miss Blanche E. Johnson are fostering the affair. It is reported that Wallace Bolden, one of the oldest Clevelanders in the Pullman service, suffered a slight stroke last week, and was confined to his bed. His wife, Edna Scott, Lorain, Ohio, was killed by a street car last week. She is said to be well known in Cleveland. The Rev. W. W. Deener and wife, well-known evangelists of Washington, D. C., are here, blessed with success in their chosen location, the Holy Trinity Baptist church, 83d and Central. More than 35 souls have been converted and added to the church. East Mount Zion Baptist church is being attractively renovated. The Rev. B. Simeon Brown, engaged pastor, Miss Sorenson, one of the chorus of beauties of "All Over Town," to be given at the Temple theater June 19 and 20, mentioned to Indianapolis, Ind., for theatrical races. Miss Mary Cauley, a virtuoso nurse, New York City, was the guest of Mrs. Anna Andrews, E. 40th St., during the season of the Maple Leaf nights running races. Miss Ruth Burke, Salem, Ohio, was in the city last week to purchase a box for her theater party June 19 to see "All Over Town." to be rendered by John Hen-and company of suits.

Great interest was manifested at the public meeting of the Survey club at St. John's A. M. E. church Sunday afternoon, when Eernis Sinclair, a graduate from a Cleveland high school, was the winner of the $100 scholarship offered by the club some months ago. He was pronounced the most deserving graduate from a Cleveland high school "by virtue of his potentialities for leadership and scholastic ability." The Survey club is an organization composed of colleges and high school students. The scholarship committee is composed of John D. Wilkerson, chairman; Antonia Gassaway, and Emmerson M. Lancaster, who is president of the club. Headquarters of the club is at the Cedar Avenue "Y." Gaspard Taylor, one of the "Y" boys who was drowned last week, was the only child of Mrs. Susie Taylor, widow, a well-known member of Cory M. E. church.

The "Achieve Something" meeting of the Omega Psi Phi fraternity at Antioch church was well attended. The Rev. J. Kinsley delivered the invocation after the audience sang "Lift Every Voice and Sing." Dr. J. H. McMorris, president, made the introductory remarks after which J. Eastman Edwards rendered the vocal, "The Lord is My Light," by Allisten. Attorney W. H. Randolph delivered an address on "Achievement in History and Sciences." Miss Myrtle Wiggins sang "The Answer," by Terry. The Rev. Mack T. Williams, the new pastor at Antioch, thrilled the audience with an address on "Achievement on Art and Science." Mrs. P. E. Moreland, night secretary of the P. W. A., has been very ill with an attack of gas-tritis. Mrs. Delia Wartuzes, E. 103d St., widow of the late William Wartuzes, spent a few days in Columbus

Spring at 2246 E

Masonic News
Sahara Court No. 47. Daughters of Isis entertained El Hiss Temple, A. E. O. Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, Monday evening, May 19, at Prince hall Masonic temple. After a fine social time, in which cards and dancing were participated in, a fine banquet was served. The Masonic band played for the Knights of Pythias of Elyria in attendance at their annual sermon Sunday afternoon, May 23. Mrs. Joseph Brown and Mrs. Samuel Ross loaned their inspiring presence by accompanying the band. Boyd, Scott and Eureka and Excelsior lodges, F. & A. M., jointly raised a number of fellow fellow-crafts to the sublime degree of Masons last Saturday evening. After the raising a fine banquet was served. The Masonic band did fine service on Decoration Day, playing for the American Legion, which headed the third division in the grand parade. Emmanuel Commandery No. 32, Knights Templar, attended Ascension day services at St. Mark's Presbyterian church. The Rev.

Elyria News
Mr. and Mrs. William McNeely will move to their summer cottage in Vermillion, Ohio, about the 10th of May. Mrs. McNeely's home will be the headquarters for the Elyria Fishing club of which Mrs. W. G. Wade is president; Oscar McGill, secretary, and Mrs. Mary Anderson, treasurer. All those in the nearby towns wishing to join write Mrs. William Wade, care 189 Elyria, Ohio. William H. Bones, Nashville, was the guest of his uncle, H. B. Mulloy. Mr. Bones has been in the life insurance business and is a live wire along that line. He expects to join the Ohio force of insurance workers. The Rev. W. L. Noel of the M. E. church delivered a welcome address. The Rev. Charles Gray, pastor of Bethany Baptist church, delivered a wonderful sermon. Captain Lipcomb appraised it as the grandest of them all. Ishman Kager and William H. Bones spent Tuesday in Cleveland visiting friends. The people of Weston Heights are having what is called a ladies' race. Every Saturday Mrs. William Tucker and Mrs. Sallie Francis, 11 Woodford Ave., are the fastest on foot, says Mrs. M. Cooper, 17 Woodford Ave. No doubt the readers of Elyria news are curious to know the whereabouts of "Red Fox." He is stuck there, but doesn't have time to make his beats of the roads. Mrs. H. B. Mulloy became very ill Monday evening but is resting easily since medicine has been given her. Bethel Lodge No. 36, K. of P., attended their annual thanksgiving sermon Sunday evening at Bethany Baptist church. The ladies in uniformed ranks of Cleveland, headed by Captain Mrs. Santer, and Knights from Oberlin, Lorain, Akron and New London paraded the downtown streets, headed by the Woodman's band of