

Cleveland Attorney, 95, To Be Feted

CLEVELAND, April 5—John P. Green, Cleveland's oldest lawyer, will be honored at a mammoth mass meeting, Sunday, April 7, at Lee's Memorial A.M.E. chapel. The meeting is being sponsored by the Cleveland Colored Chamber of Commerce of which Dr. Vee Beck is president.

Attorney Green, a former justice of the peace and Ohio state senator, celebrated his ninety-fifth birthday April 4. He is the oldest practicing lawyer in the whole of Cuyahoga county. Ex-Senator Green has the honor of being the father of the Ohio labor day law.

The meeting will commemorate the issuance of the Booker T. Washington 10-cent postage stamp and is in harmony with a proclamation issued by Joseph E. Walker, president of the National Negro Business league of which the Chamber of Commerce is an affiliate.

Some of the speakers expected to appear on the program are Harry C. Smith, editor of the Cleveland Gazette; Mrs. Lethia C. Fleming, national figure in Republican organization ranks; Mayor Harold H. Burton, Sheriff Martin O'Donnell, Rev. C. V. hields, John D. Whitlow, Postmaster M. F. O'Donnell and Rev. William Hodge, pastor of the church.

The program will be under the direction of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, Linton Freeman, director. Joseph R. King will be master of ceremonies.
