CAMDEN, N. J.

The anniversary tea of the Frances Harper branch Y. W. C. A. took place last Sunday afternoon at the branch building from 4 to 7 p. m. In spite of inclement weather, extreme heat and a downpour of rain many members and friends of the Y. W. C. A. crowded the building to hear an exceedingly interesting program. Among the speakers was Mrs. Manning, originally of Caryville, now of Washington, D. C. Dr. Lock spoke of his interest and pride in the Y. W. C. A. of Camden and spoke insistently of Frances Harper, in honor of whom the Camden Y. W. C. A. was named. Mrs. Susan Teal, the oldest member of the local Y. W. C. A., spoke of the history and early struggles of the Y organization. Mrs. Katherine Canfield, Camden, spoke eloquently on the progress of women through the ages and Mrs. Alma Polk, chairman of the Belmont Center branch, spoke on the "Place of the Y. W. C. A. in the Community" to an interested audience. Short talks were made by Mrs. C. T. Branch, chairman of the Frances Harper Branch; Mrs. Dorothy Congo, chairman of the program, who arranged delightful music and speakers, and Mrs. Mary Ann Crosby, secretary. Entertainment of the branch musical festival was sponsored by the Girl Reserve department of the Y Friday night at Kaighn Ave. Baptist church. Folk songs of various nations were sung by the girls' chorus, directed by Mrs. Camilla Lockwood, and the Sumner School club presented a play, "Every Girl," in a very effective manner under direction of Miss Catherine E. Lester. The Y. W. C. A. Scholastic spoke to the Ever-Ready club on "A Vacation Across the Sea." Later the club served supper to the members and friends of the Y. W. C. A. At the last meeting of the Phyllis Wheatley club Mrs. Martha Harvey gave a delightful talk.
