

---

Oh, you Jolly Bean Eaters, but they went to Dudley later and found in "Dr. Beans from Boston," and found in him "a friend from home."

---

You thought when our reporter approached you the other day he was going to ask you to subscribe for the paper. No, gentle reader, he was only going to ask you "What's new?"

---

The announcement that the Chicago Defender would have a Children's Page in its Christmas issue has met with considerable favor. Space has been secured by eight or ten fond parents and we advise those who contemplate a "write up" in this unique idea to consult us at once.

---

No doubt the Chicago correspondent of the Indianapolis Plaindealer read Mr. S. Linn Williams' statement in last week's issue of that paper. The Phyllis Wheatley Home and the Frederick Douglass Center are two good and well managed institutions and we are surprised at his mistake.

---