

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Visitors to Defender Plant
Visitors to the Chicago Defender plant during the past week included: Miss Lulu M. Varner, Wilberforce, Ohio, guest of Robert Benson, 333 East 33d street; Miss Edna Wood, Cleveland, Ohio, guest of Mrs. Virginia Johnston, 5425 Wabash avenue; Miss Anna S. Payne, Washington, D. C., guest of Mrs. Snowden Porter, 2302 Indiana avenue; Joseph E. Cotton, Wilberforce, Ohio, guest of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Price, 3306 Woodlawn avenue; Miss Juliet T. Bradford, Birmingham, Ala., guest of Mrs. F. W. Adams, 4423 Indiana avenue; Mrs. B. Simmons Eberly, Louisville, Ky., guest of Mrs. Beatrice S. Cranshaw, 6132 Carpenter street; Miss Helen C. Robinson, Louisville, Ky., guest of Dr. J. A. Kelly, 30 West 35th street; Albert E. and Georgina Kelly Smith, Louisville, Ky., guests of Mrs. H. L. Greene and daughter, guests of C. M. and J. V. Greene, 306 East 41st street; Dr. and Mrs. S. H. J. David, Indianapolis, Ind., guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henderson Cross, 3644 Ellis park; H. H. Howard, Boykin, S. C., guest of Dr. H. H. Howard, 2460 West Lake street; Mrs. Maybelle Hart, St. Joseph, Mo., guest of Mrs. Josephine Trent and Mrs. Mayme Chickale, 3561 Grand boulevard; R. H. Fleming, Memphis, Tenn., guest of Joseph Davis, 3152 Dearborn street; Mrs. L. H. Almerath, Los Angeles, Calif., guest of Mrs. L. Alexander, 3342 Rhodes avenue; Mrs. C. D. Brown, Los Angeles, Calif., guest of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson T. Long, 3223 South Dearborn street; Mr. and Mrs. Aldwin Lewis, East St. Louis, Ill., guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Moore, 4107 Vincennes avenue; Mr. and Mrs. Alton B. Brewton, St. Louis, Mo., guest of the same address; Mrs. E. H. Curry, 4245 Vincennes avenue; E. G. C. Fenwell, Birmingham, Ala., guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Fenwell, 664 East 37th street; Prof. C. H. Johnson, Wilberforce, Ohio, guest of Mrs. J. S. Crawford, Centralia, Ill., guest of Mrs. J. C. Lewis, 3152 Dearborn street; Mrs. J. H. Williams, Cleveland, Ohio, guest of Mrs. Joe Reeves, 3619 Indiana avenue; Frank H. Parr, Pittsburgh, Pa., guest of Mr. and Mrs. Lena J. Jamison, 4818 Calumet avenue; Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Dorsey, Cleveland, Ohio, guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Lawson, 6517 Grove avenue; C. W. Watkins, St. Louis, Mo., guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. 3102 Vernon avenue; Mrs. J. Muldrew, Little Rock, Ark., guest of Mrs. George Nelson, 4503 Vincennes avenue; M. W. Journeay, Peoria, Ill., E. D. Hamilton, St. Louis, Mo.; Mr. A. D. Franklin, Dayton, Fla.; G. H. Haynes, city; Mrs. Virginia Johnston, city; Mrs. Amanda Richardson, Atlanta, Ga.; Mrs. C. H. Jones, New York, N. Y.; Talmage B. Carey, Minneapolis, Minn.; I. M. Mason, Dr. R. H. Howard, Bruce H. Green, Wilberforce, Ohio; B. T. Gossin, St. Louis, Mo.; Mrs. Mamie Young Woodard, Mrs. M. Reda Williams, Lakeland, Fla.; Mrs. J. Daniels, Lakeland, Fla.; Mrs. E. J. S. Johnson, Dayton, Ohio; Mrs. C. H. Jones, Iowa; Leonard Boone, Mrs. Lulu Boone Whitely, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Tucker, St. Louis, Mo., and E. R. Hall, Oregon, Ill.

Mrs. De Lay Entertained
Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Waters, 4241 Calumet avenue, entertained at a midday lunch in honor of Miss Calista De Lay of New Orleans, La., Saturday night. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Estes, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar D. Jones, Miss Yolande M. Hill and Oscar Jones Jr. While in the city Miss De Lay is the guest of Mrs. Camille Cohen-Jones, 4804 St. Lawrence avenue.

Dr. Giles Returns
Dr. Roscoe C. Giles has resumed his practice after an extensive vacation in the East. He motored to Washington, D. C., from New York as the guest of Dr. P. M. Murray of New York. They attended the National Medical Association in the capital. Dr. Giles was royally entertained by his many friends in New York, Baltimore and Washington.

Davidson's Motoring
George E. Davidson and wife, accompanied by Mrs. Davidson's mother, are motoring through the state visiting friends in Springfield, Bloomington, Peoria and Danville. They will return to the city by way of the Bloomington road the 5th of September.

Rewards Boy Heroes
J. H. Poage (white), attorney, with offices in the Stock Exchange building, sent the Chicago Tribune two checks for $5 each to give Brewer McGee, 11 West 17th street, and John Ransfor, 1910 South State street, who swam 300 yards in Lake Michigan to rescue Andrew Green from drowning.

Visits Her Brother
Mrs. Lucy H. Jackson, Oakland, Cal., has been visiting her brother, J. W. Jackson, 1445 South Racine avenue, for two weeks after spending two months visiting relatives and friends in the East. She was entertained at dinner last Thursday by Mrs. John Bass and mother. She returned to the West last week.

Back from Vacation
Hon. Walter M. Farmer and wife of 4531 Champlain avenue have just returned from a two weeks' vacation as the guests of Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Hill of Batavia.

At Idlewild
Mrs. N. B. Newland, matron and assistant financial agent of the Enterprise institute, 514 Aldine square, is spending a pleasant vacation at Idlewild, Mich. Mrs. Newland will return in time for the opening of school September 11.

Miss White to Teach
Miss Valencia White, native of London, Wis., recently graduated from the Chicago Normal college, has been appointed teacher and has entered upon her duties in the West Side school. She is making her temporary home with Mr. and Mrs. Julius Glenn in the beautiful suburb of Morgan Park. Miss White is the sister of Miss Zetta White, trained nurse at Provident hospital.

Return from Idlewild
Dr. and Mrs. P. Charles Downs, 3748 Grand boulevard, have returned from Idlewild, Mich., where they spent two pleasant weeks on their vacation in the Buckles cottage. Dr. Downs motored to and from Idlewild and was accompanied by Dr. G. A. Thornton.

Goes to Virginia
Miss Johnnie M. Frazier, 3454 Vernon avenue, music teacher at the V. N. & T. L. Petersburg, Va., who spent her entire vacation at the sick bedside of her father, Prof. P. F. Frazier, until his recent death, is preparing to take up her work at the V. N. & T. L. about the 15th of the month.

Mr. Kinney Honors Mother
Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Kinney, 3142 Calumet avenue, gave a private picnic at Lincoln park September 1 in honor of their mother and mother-in-law, their sister and sister-in-law, Mrs. Francis and Miss Minnie Kinney of Greenville, Ill. Various games, boat rides through the park and Municipal pier were some of the features of the day. Mrs. Kinney and Miss Kinney will soon leave for their home in southern Illinois.

To Meet Again
The Joint Meeting association of U. R. F. & S. M. T. will resume its fall meetings Sunday afternoon, September 10, at Bailey's hall, 3635 State street.

Many Visit Morgan Park
Labor day was a grand day in Morgan Park. The beautiful suburb and many visitors from suburban towns and the city proper were seen going to and fro. Among them were Rev. J. W. Robinson of St. Mark's church and an officer of the Douglas National bank, his wife and daughters, Misses Lucille H. and J. Marjorie. Rev. Messrs. M. Jackson and daughter, Mrs. Nichols; William C. Denton, Mrs. Mattie Ford and niece, Elena Stewart and Mamie Isabelle; Harry Watson, Jesse Hawkins, Mrs. Hawkins and Mrs. Mitchell. Dr. Robinson was the guest of Dr. Waldon of Arnet chapel, and Dr. Jackson was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Acee.

Mrs. Mallory Entertained
Thornton Mickle, 4832 Langley avenue, entertained with a box party Sunday evening in the Auditorium theater in honor of Mrs. Mary Mallory, Defen-

Bahai movement meets every Sunday at 3:30 in Masonic temple, corner Randolph and State streets. All welcome.

der representative at Jacksonville, Ill.
She was the house guest of Mrs. Nora Makle while here, returning to Jacksonville Wednesday, Sept. 6. Miss Aurea Mallory, daughter of Mrs. Mallory, who has been studying social service for 10 weeks, returned to her home Monday, Sept. 4.

Dr. Jefferson Entertains
Dr. S. M. Jefferson entertained Sunday at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lee, 3641 Grand boulevard, for the following: The Misses Virginia Thomas, Mary Summers, Xenia, Ohio; Mrs. Roberta D. Crawford, Dr. T. F. Horton and Dr. Everett W. Cadenhead.

Federation Meet
The Federation of Social and Civic Agencies of Cook county will meet Sept. 11 at 8:30 p. m. in the Y. M. C. A., 35th and Wabash.

Thrasher's Salegirl
When Mrs. Lottie Fisher, 157 West 30th street, entered a certain store downtown a certain white salegirl found occasion to refer to Mrs. Fisher as "a pigger," or something like that. At any rate, the second ward woman did not like it and 10 minutes later she was still beating the salegirl when the police arrived. The white girl, who had been told by Mrs. Fisher to go to the Harrison Street jail. She was given a hearing and fined $150 for maintaining her self respect. Mrs. Fisher handed out the money, explaining, "It is not like someone what haven't got the money. This is Mrs. Lottie Fisher, 157 West 30th street."

On the Good Ship "Lewis"
Miss Caro Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Lewis, 3633 Giles avenue, entertained a number of her friends at a swimming, boating and dancing party in Glenview where the Lewises have their summer home. The hours were from 12 noon to 12 midnight and those invited were afforded a fine opportunity to get away from the swelter of the city's record weather. All reported a fine time.

Trio Give Dance Party
The Misses Adah Harris, Bessie Strong and Ernestine Smith entertained a large number of their friends at the residence of Miss Smith, 3369 Giles avenue, Saturday evening. Dancing and punch drinking made the evening enjoyable. All three of the ladies made charming hostesses. There were about 75 guests present.

Knocked from Bicycle
While riding a bicycle at 39th street and Grand boulevard, L. Livingston, 40, 663 East 47th street, was knocked from it by a yellow cab. He suffered several painful bruises.

Man Was Angry
They met at Dr. and Federal streets and started quarreling. Sam was angry and drew his knife. He stabbed Felix Temple, 31, 3635 State street, Apartment 14, under the arm. Temple was carried to the hospital and the police are looking for Sam.

Husband Near Death
George Davis, 34, 2963 Federal street, is confined at the hospital fighting for his life. He is suffering with a knife wound in the stomach, which was inflicted by his wife, Ednor, when they quarreled at 33d and Dearborn streets.

Puts Hand Through Window
A quarrel without any blows was something new to Henry Bryant. He quarreled with other men in his home at 3514 Federal street. Suddenly he was seen to stagger through the door. He stated that a window stuck his hand through a window, causing a deep laceration of the wrist.

Goes Suddenly Insane
The peculiar actions of Mrs. Stella C. Smith, 44, 670 East 37th street, Apartment 10, caused her to be sent to the Psychopathic hospital to be kept under observation. Her friends fear that she has become insane.

Drops Dead
While walking on the sidewalk in front of 2200 LaSalle street, Robert Rivers, 38, 321 LaSalle street, dropped dead. It was noted that he had been a sufferer of asthma and heart trouble for some time.

Mrs. Milton Entertains
Mrs. Ada Milton, 4437 Calumet avenue, entertained with cards Saturday from 6 to 10 p. m. in honor of Mrs. Fred Miller, Mount Eban, Miss. Mrs. Carrie Booker Pearson, Tulsa, Okla.; Miss Dickerson, St. Louis, Mo., and Mrs. Cullins, Little Rock, Ark. Sixteen guests were present and a delicious luncheon was served by the hostess. Mrs. Ethel Gavin won first prize, Mrs. Anna Sublett, second, and Mrs. Cullins, guest prize.

New Orleans Folks Entertained
After the ball game between the Crescent Stars of New Orleans and the Cuban Stars on Labor day, Wallace A. Marine, manager of the Crescents; Fred V. Paul, treasurer of the Crescent Stars Amusement Co., and A. M. Minthia, manager Cuban Stars, were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Oscar D. Jones, 4804 St. Lawrence avenue. The affair was a get-together meet, as Mrs. Jones is formerly of New Orleans. Among those present were: Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Waters, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer W. Estes and Miss Mathilda Rodriguez.

Returns to Louisville
Miss Jessie A. Neighbors, pianist, of Louisville, Ky., who has been spending her vacation with her aunt, Mrs. George Neighbors, 2511 Giles avenue, returned home Sunday afternoon by reception was given in her home by her aunt, Mrs. Aurelia Carter. Miss Armetta was present. A large number of guests were present.

Stringfellow to Sing
Herbert Stringfellow, the gospel singer, will sing at St. Paul's C. M. E. church Sunday morning, Sept. 10, at 1 o'clock and at St. Stephen's A. M. E. church at 8 p. m.

Howard Sisters in City
Misses Annie, Juanita and Irma Howard, Washington, D. C., are spending a few days in the city the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Jones, 4342 Forestville avenue. They have been on an extended lake trip from Buffalo to Duluth, stopping at Cleveland, Detroit, Mackinac Island, Sault Ste. Marie, St. Paul, returning via Chicago. Miss Hattie Feger, New Orleans, La., is also a guest.

Washingtonians Entertained
Misses Mayme Lewis and Della Parks, Washington, D. C., who spent their summer vacation at Idlewild resort, Mich., were entertained with a luncheon on Saturday noon by Mrs. Cary B. Lewis, 437 East 41st street. Miss Anna Bell Anderson, New York City, was a special guest. Fifteen other young matrons were present. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis and Cary B. Jr. returned last Friday from their summer vacation at Idlewild resort, Mich.

Mrs. Robert Middleton Returns
Mrs. Robert Middleton, 50 East 33d street, has returned from Washington, where she spent several weeks the guest of relatives. Mrs. Middleton returned in time to transfer her son, Robert, to the Crane Technical school.

Holy Name Church Social
Holy Name church (Catholic) gave a picnic Labor day at East park, North Side. St. Michael's church congregation attended and played games.

Grace Lyceum to Open
Mrs. Maude Roberts-George, chairman of the program committee, announces that Grace Lyceum will resume its activities Sunday, Sept. 17, with a special program. It is expected that some of the summer talent that is left in the city at that time will appear for the benefit of the lyceum patrons.

At Pullman Barber Shop
C. A. Haley, formerly with Duncan's barber shop, is now located with M. J.

Brownlee at the Pullman barber shop, 3127 State street.

Frank Preer Entertains
Thursday evening Frank Preer, 4514 Calumet avenue, entertained a few friends in honor of Miss Isadora Channells, winner of both the Chicago Women's Tennis and the National Tennis championships, and Dr. O. B. Williams, her partner in the national mixed doubles championship, which they won. A match luncheon was served and the affair proved to be one of the prettiest of the season. Those present were: The Misses Violette Galloway, Jeanette Whisnaut, Hazel Jones, Polly Rickman, Audrey Davis, Mamie Hickerson, Mrs. E. W. Emanuel and Mrs. McKinley Emanuel, Attorney and Mrs. Earl Dickerson, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. King, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hubbard, Dr. Ned Oheant, W. E. Alexander and Julius Green, and Messrs. Sam McLeMORE, E. W. Odrick, R. W. Abernathy, W. Ellis Stewart, Charlie Luck, J. W. Burke, John Wilson, A. C. Ritchie, A. C. McNeal, J. D. Bibb and D. J. Thomas of Memphis.

Holmes Back from Coast
Enjoying a month's trip along the Pacific coast, where at the Golden Gate, Los Angeles, Oakland and Berkeley they found much to occupy their time, Mr. and Mrs. John Clayfield Holmes are back after stopping over at the Grand canyon of Arizona. "A trip of our lives," they smiled when interviewed by a Defender reporter.

Dr. William La Deacklen Dies
Dr. William La Deacklen, internationally known bass singer, died Aug. 23 after a lingering illness. Dr. Deacklen studied under eminent Italian instructors and received his music degree in Alexandria, Egypt. At the time of his death he was practicing operatic, having received his training in the National Optical college in St. Louis, Mo. He was always active in church and social circles, having charge of the choir at St. Moriah Baptist church. He leaves a wife, Mrs. Laura Deacklen, and mother, Mrs. Annie Deacklen, and children, Magdalene, Edna, Alva and Donald.

The Wards Move
Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ward are in their new home, a beautiful three apartment building at 616 East 44th place. They formerly lived at 65 East 36th street. Mr. Ward has been one of Chicago's leading business men for years. He is at present spending his vacation with his mother at Sturgis, Miss.

Mrs. Samuels Returns
Mrs. Laver Samuels, 435 East 45th place, has returned after a two weeks' visit with her sister and family in Detroit, Mich., where a number of entertainments and parties were given in her honor.

The Washingtons Back Home
Smiling Charlie Washington and his wife are back in the city after deserting their friends for nearly a month, sojourning in the cool woods and on the lakes of northern Wisconsin. The trip was made by motor. Baraboo, The Dells, Fon du Lac, Neenah and other cities welcomed the Chicago tourist. A Defender reporter spied them slipping back under the dusk of Sunday night down Michigan boulevard with their overland de luxe all covered with dust. He suspected something, stopping the wayfarers. Thus the story. W. S. Hart of Neenah accompanied them back, spending two days here.

Thrown from Wagon
George Daggert, 60, 3220 Rhodes avenue, was painfully bruised when he was thrown from a wagon which he was driving. As he approached 30th street and Michigan avenue the wagon was hit by an automobile, throwing him to the street.

Protects Man's Name
Although she is suffering with a severe cut on the side of her face, Miss Lucretia Knight, 19, 3136 Vernon avenue, refuses to tell the police the name of the man who cut her. She would only state that she was cut by a man.

Stabbed Three Times
While quarreling with Henry Hughes, address unknown, Noel Wilson, 23, 3118 Wabash avenue, was stabbed with a knife three times. He was cut in the breast, arm and cheek. The crime occurred in front of 3025 State street.

Auto Bumps Into Car
An automobile operated by George Brown, 3600 Vernon avenue, was being driven behind a street car. The car stopped to let off some passengers. The automobile bumped into the car. Ben Sevier, 35 years old, 22 East 33rd street, one of the occupants of the automobile, received a four-inch cut on the forehead.

Hit by a Brick
Some boys were playing in a vacant lot at 46th and Federal streets. A quarrel arose between them. Joe Thompson, 17, 424 Federal street, sustained a severe scalp wound when he was hit on the head with a brick thrown by a boy known only to him as Matthew.

Child Fractures Nose
In attempting to cross from the east to the west side of the street at 45th place and State street, little 6-year-old Mary Moore was hit with his parents at 1519 State street, was run down by a yellow cab. The child suffered a fractured nose.

Nearly Asphyxiated
Busying herself about her household duties, Mrs. Frances Williams, 24, 2059 Calumet avenue, did not notice that gas was escaping in her home. She is now under the care of a physician, suffering from gas poisoning, the gas having escaped from a leaking jet in her bath room.

Cut by Unknown Woman
During a fight at 401 Dearborn street, Miss Ido Clark, 19, 3908 Dearborn street, was stabbed with a knife several times. She stated that some unknown woman had started a quarrel with her over some trivial matter, then had stabbed her. The woman made her escape after the assault.

Man Stabs Boy
A warrant charging assault with a deadly weapon, was taken out by Mrs. Mattie Fain, 4916 State street, for Chansley Stewart, 33 years old, 4959 State street. Stewart is charged with stabbing Ben, the 12-year-old son of Mrs. Fain, with an ice pick. According to the evidence obtained, Fain, with several other boys, was playing in the yard in the rear of 4959 State street when, for some unknown reason, Stewart chased Ben. When he caught him he stabbed him under the left arm with an ice pick.

Assaulted by Hoodlums
According to the story told by Labrad Mitchell, 1849 St. Lawrence street, he was walking along at 51st street and Vincennes avenue when, without any provocation, two white men approached him and proceeded to assault him. It required three stitches to sew up his eyelid.

Bitten by Dogs
Edgar C. Phelps, 24, 3141 South Park avenue, and Mrs. Mamie Stewart, 42 years old, 41 West 47th street, were the victims of dog bites this week. Phelps was delivering a package when bitten and Mrs. Stewart was on the street when the dog hit her.

City Federation Quarterly Meeting
The regular quarterly meeting of the Northern District Federation of Colored Women's clubs will meet at Quinn chapel Monday, Sept. 11, at 10 a. m. Mrs. Sadie L. Adams, president. All delegates are urged to be in their seats at the opening hour, as there is much business to be transacted and interesting reports from national and state meetings to be made. At the afternoon session addresses will be made by Samuel Thrasher of the Committee of Fifteen on vice conditions in the Second ward; also Miss Jessie Binford of the Juvenile Protective association.

Mrs. Barnett Returns
Mrs. Ida B. Wells-Barnett and her daughter, Miss Alfreda, have returned to their home at 3624 Grand boulevard after a three weeks' trip to Richmond and Norfolk, Va., and Washington, D. C. They attended the National Association of Colored Women's clubs at Richmond; the National Business league, Norfolk, Va., and visited the senate and White House in Washington, D. C., accompanied by Miss Florence Davis, one of Chicago's school teachers, and were joyfully entertained by friends; especially in Washington, with dinners, teas, motor rides, winding up with a brilliant reception given in their honor by their hostess, Mrs. A. R. Clarke. Mrs. Barnett arrived last Tuesday and left at noon for the State federation meeting at Danville, Ill., where she was elected editor for the State Federation of Colored Women's clubs and where the Woman's Forum was adopted as the state organ.

Real Estate Firm Dissolves
H. L. Willis, one of the most successful and widely known real estate dealers in Chicago, has severed his connection with the firm of Anderson & Willis and has opened an office at 4314 Forrestville avenue, where he is better prepared to serve him many friends and customers who wish to buy, sell, rent or lease property, large or small. He is also agent for some of the best insurance companies. Unquestionably, Mr. Willis will receive a liberal share of patronage which his fine experience and honest dealings justify. Don't forget when in need of anything in his line to call on him or give him a ring. H. L. Willis, 4314 Forrestville avenue, Atlantic 1099.—Advertisement.

Dramatic School Opens
Miss Carol McCoy wishes to announce the opening for the fall term of her School of Dramatic Art and Expression. All former pupils and those who wish to become dramatic readers and elocutionists of the first rank are urged to register. Special classes for children Saturday afternoons. Adults may arrange for private instruction. Fall term opens September 11, 1922. Call Victory 5771 or write Miss McCoy, 3155 Wabash avenue, for information.—Adv.

Gives Birthday Party
A very pleasant surprise party was given for Willard Burton at his residence, 5917 Throop street, by his wife, Anna, in honor of his 50th birthday. Mrs. R. H. Pollard gave a reading. Dr. Allen A. Wesley related some pleasant reminiscences of the Burton family. J. D. Reynolds in a fraternal speech presented Mr. Burton with an emblematic ring. Others present were: Mr. and Mrs. George Maxfield, Dr. and Mrs. T. S. Officer, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. A. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. G. Jasper, Mr. and Mrs. Adam Horn, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Tyree, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Neuman, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Moore, Mesdames M. McClure, J. D. Reynolds, Fannie Vaughn, R. H. Pollard and "Mother" King, Robert E. Pollard, Master George Maxfield and Grant Bates. Many valuable presents were received. Mrs. Jennie Lacey served.

Prominent Woman Killed
Mrs. Lucy Spights, a prominent fraternal woman, was killed in an automobile accident Labor day at 35th street and Wentworth avenue. The accident was unavoidable, according to the verdict of the coroner's jury at the inquest held at the Daniel Jackson Undertaking parlors, 2961 State street.

Shoots Sweetheart
Miss Amanda Stebbell, 23, was arrested by police from the State street station and held pending the outcome of the bullet wound inflicted by her on Fred Cooper, 28, said to be her sweetheart. They both roomed at 3537 Vincennes avenue, but the shooting took place at 39th street and Cottage Grove avenue, following a quarrel. Cooper was carried to the South Side hospital where it was found that the bullet had pierced his head, just above the left eye.

Mrs. Beatty Entertains
Mrs. L. J. Beatty, 3723 Prairie avenue, entertained friends from Birmingham, Ala., with a dinner party Friday evening, Sept. 7. Those present were Mesdames David McCaw, Wilson Baugh, Wilbur King, Lillian Lane, Saddle Monroe and the Misses Burnett Sawyer, Ethel Moore and Minnie King.

Returns to Minneapolis
Mrs. Lizzie Mack, Minneapolis, com-mandant of Ebenezer court, Daughters of Isis, attended the annual session meet in Washington, D. C. She also visited New York and Chicago. While here she was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Edward White and was the recipient of many social courtesies.

Mrs. Kate Knowles Dies
Mrs. Kate Knowles Calgary, Canada, died Aug. 19. She was born in Warren county, Miss., July 3, 1855. She leaves to mourn her loss a husband, mother and brother.

Dr. Yates Back in Office
Dr. Blyden W. Yates, 847 East 31st street, who has been in the hospital, is able to practice again.—Adv.

Miss Susie Kinny Entertains
Miss Susie Kinny, 4727 Prairie avenue, entertained 16 guests at dinner party Aug. 27 in honor of Miss Virginia Thoma and Miss Mae Summers, high school teacher of Xenia, Ohio. Mrs. Bonishor California; Mrs. Robert Baker and Miss Marjorie Kinny; Atlanta, Ga. The house was beautifully decorated in American beauty roses and ferns, and the table decorations were also roses, with pink candelabras between. Miss Kinny was assisted in entertaining by Mesdames Winona Wilson and Robert White.

Festival and Mardi Gras
The first annual fall festival and mardi gras will be given by the Peace Army movement, the Rev. D. H. Forston, commander, Sept. 9 to 19, on the lot, 56th place and Wabash avenue. Merry-go-rounds, thrilling games, corn music, everything starts at 7 p. m. For full information and space see Clarence Powers, chairman of privileges. Address 3042 Indiana avenue, Room 7, from 7 to 8 a. m. or 5:30 to 7:30 p. m. Phone Boulevard 2918.—Advertisement.

Takes Over Beauty Shop
Mrs. S. Stephenson has taken over the Nile Queen Beauty Shop in the Kashmir building, 3423 Indiana avenue, and is now proprietor of what will be known in the future as the "Queen Beauty Shop." She will be pleased to receive her old, as well as new, patrons. Phone Douglas 8270.—Adv.

Stork Visits Hardins
The stork limited arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Reginald M. Hardin, 3906 Calumet avenue, early Monday morning and left an 8½-pound baby girl. Both mother and baby are doing fine.

The Rev. Watson Goes South
The Rev. E. E. Watson, pastor of Pilgrim Baptist church, will leave the city Saturday to attend the funeral of Dr. E. C. Morris at Helena, Ark. The Rev. Watson is one of the most prominent ministers of the Baptist denomination.

Wife Sick in Philadelphia
C. C. Wimbush, 4807 Champlain avenue, a student at Northwestern university, is spending his vacation in Philadelphia with his wife, who has been ill since she left Chicago. They will return when Mrs. Wimbush recovers.

Home Nothing Like This
Mrs. Mae Jackson, Savannah, Ga., wife of Albert Jackson, former school and playmate of Editor Robert A. Abbott, arrived in Chicago Tuesday morning to be the house guest of Mrs. H. P. Lee, 3112 Vernon avenue. Mrs. Jackson contemplates buying a home in the city. So far she has been much pleased with the big village, explaining that "Home isn't Anything Like This."

Back to Little Rock
Mrs. G. A. Gray of Little Rock, Ark., who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Carry and Mr. and Mrs. Julius Ramsey at 4254 Vincennes avenue, has returned to her home.

Lucille Cuts Archie
A lovers' quarrel sent Archie Buckley, 40, 3128 Wabash avenue, to the Provident hospital. He quarreled with his sweetheart, Lucille Banks. She cut him in the hip and hand with a knife.

Tries to Die
Things looked dark for Mrs. Gertrude Wilson, 28, 3634 Indiana avenue. She could see no outlet for brighter things. She obtained a bottle of lysol and swallowed the contents with suicidal intent. She is recovering.

Child Fractures Skull
While playing with some children on the porch of his home at 3717 Federal street, little 6-year-old Bart W. Hardin sustained a possible skull fracture when the hand rail of the porch broke and he was thrown three feet to the cement walk below.

Falls from Street Car
As she attempted to alight from a street car at 47th and State streets, Mrs. Leona Reaveley, 22, 4653 Wabash avenue, missed her footing and fell. She sustained severe bruises about the head and face.

Cuts Husband and Self
According to the story told by the police, Mrs. Nellie Carey, 22, 4733 Langley avenue, was intoxicated when she cut her husband and herself. Her hands were cut in several places. She had to be carried to Provident hospital. She was unable to give any statement as to why the trouble occurred. The quarrel and trouble afterwards, happened at 30 West 45th place, according to the police.

Wanted His Hot Biscuits
The craving for hot biscuits caused Sam Christmas, 3857 State street, to threaten to beat his wife, Anna, if she did not make them, according to her testimony. Because she did not have time and had to go to work, Anna brought an officer instead. Sam was fined $1 and costs, which Anna paid.

Woman Fined for Shooting
Mrs. Margaret Taylor, 314 West 37th street, was arrested by Officer James Brown on complaint of Mrs. Della Taylor, 3122 Wabash avenue. Della claimed that Margaret shot at her when she went to her house looking for her husband James. Margaret pleaded guilty to shooting, but it was only after great provocation, as she suffered much abuse from Della. She was fined $5 and costs with the warning that she appeal to the police the next time instead of taking the law in her own hands.

Has Birthday Surprise
Mrs. Bessie Smith, 3561 Grand boulevard, planned a pleasant surprise for her sister, Mrs. Mae C. Walker, when she notified some friends of the anniversary of her sister's birthday last Saturday. Dancing was the feature of the evening. Mrs. Walker received many floral offerings. A delicious luncheon was served.

Puts Wife in Hospital
It is alleged by the police that the brutal treatment accorded Mrs. Minnie Myers, 46, 1613 Center street, Chicago Heights, by her husband is the cause of her being confined in the county hospital. Mrs. Myers was taken off a train at the Folk street depot suffering with internal injuries inflicted by her husband when he was beating her.

Fractures Skull
When in the act of boarding a street car at Seventh and State streets, William Barnes, 606 East Eureka street, missed his footing and fell to the pavement. He was carried to St. Luke's hospital suffering with a fractured skull.

Mail Driver Kills Man
The mistake of attempting to cross the street in the middle of the block cost Cleophas Blonder, 65 (white), 4344 West Adams street, his life. Coming from behind a wagon which hid him from view, he was struck by an automobile truck carrying U. S. mail, which was operated by John W. Jones, 6750 Rhodes avenue. Blonder suffered a fractured skull, from which he soon died. Jones was arrested, charged with manslaughter, pending the outcome of the coroner's jury.

Sent to County Hospital
The following persons were sent to the County hospital this week: Israel Owens, 22, 1523 Dearborn street; Edward Combs, 318 South Sherman street; Mrs. Amelia Woods, 28, 75 West 17th street; Alfred Henry, 42, 142 West 47th street; Miss Veronam Williams, 19, 6525 Evans avenue, and Owen Watkins, 35, 2226 Dearborn street.