

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Returns to Milwaukee
Mrs. Mattie Fountain, 523 Cherry street, Milwaukee, Wis., has returned to her home after several pleasant days spent in the city the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Payne, 3002 Wabash avenue. Herman Fountain, husband of Mrs. Fountain, also visited the city and spent the week-end as the guest of the Paynes.

Mrs. Killion Recovering
Mrs. Louise Killion, 3142 Calumet avenue, who has been very sick for several weeks at Provident hospital and at her home, having had several doctors and specialists, is rapidly improving under the care of Dr. U. G. Dailey.

Many in Suburbs
Among the many visitors in the suburbs of Morgan Park during the past Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. John Shafer, Mrs. E. M. Clanton, Mrs. Mary Duncan and others, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Benton, Mr. and Mrs. Bedford Roberts.

Virginia Society to Meet
The Virginia society, of which M. T. Bailey is president and J. B. Street is vice-president, will meet in its regular monthly meeting on Wednesday evening, Feb. 21, at 3633 South State street. Virginians always cordially welcome. Election of officers and program will be rendered.

Returns to Kansas
George Burns of Topeka, Kan., who spent several weeks by the sick bed of his sister, Mrs. Louise Killion, and as the visitor of his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Killion, 3142 Calumet avenue, has returned to his home.

To Be Out Again
Mrs. Sarah H. Benton, 1431 West 109th place, Morgan Park, who has been confined to her home and the hospital for 14 weeks, is to be out again as soon as the weather will permit.

May Visit Hot Springs
Mrs. Lou Ella Young, 4114 Calumet avenue, is thinking of making a flying trip to Hot Springs, Ark., to spend several weeks.

At St. Luke Hospital
Mrs. Martha Henderson, 10510 Glenroy avenue, Morgan Park, is not at St. Luke hospital where she is undergoing an important operation. She is much improved.

Bible Lecture
Bible lecture, auspices International Bible Students' association, subject, "The Object of the Lord's Return," by S. S. Jacobs, Sunday, Feb. 18, at 3 o'clock p. m., at the People's Movement club, 3140 Indiana avenue. All are invited. Seats are free. No collection.

Rev. Clemens Dies
The Rt. Rev. S. J. Clemens died Jan. 30. He leaves a wife, who will continue the missionary work at 3631 Vernon avenue, and a number of friends to mourn his loss.

Notice
The El Progresso club's mid-winter dance, which was to be Feb. 22, has been postponed to March 1st on account of misunderstanding of hotel management. Those holding tickets for that date may present same on March 1st.

Petitioned for Divorce
Mrs. Mary Nooe, 3364 State street, flat 6, has led petition for divorce from Jasper Nooe, through Attorney S. A. T. Watkins.—Advertisement.

Slaughter System Shop
Visit the Slaughter System beauty shop; hairdressing, manicuring and unearring. Miss Clara B. Sims, prop. Laura G. Gibbs, mgr. 3102 Indiana avenue, apartment A. Douglas 1840.—Advertisement.

Entertain Visitors
Mrs. Mabel Barrett and daughter, Miss Lillian Barrett, 25 E. 44th street, entertained at dinner last Saturday in honor of Richard D. Barrett of St. Louis and his sister, Miss Mae Barrett, now of this city. Eight guests were present. Mr. Barrett is in the city in the interest of the new Paul Dunbar theater he is planning to erect in St. Louis. Miss Barrett is an accomplished pianist and has a large class of pupils in this city.

League Opens Dunbar Hall
The United Christian Benevolent league will present Hon. Eugene J. Marshall with an all-star musical program at the Dunbar hall, 5001 South State street, Sunday, Feb. 18, at 3:30 p. m. The public is invited. No admission. Platform guests: Attorneys Wm. L. Latham, Wm. H. T. Moore, Benj. W. Clayton, Hon. J. Mayo Williams, Dr. R. G. Martin and visiting ministers. An interesting program will be rendered every Sunday afternoon at 3:30 p. m. The offering taken will be used to assist the poor in civic betterment.

Mrs. Morae Ill
Mrs. William A. Morae, 5523 Grove avenue, has been confined to her home on account of illness for the past four weeks.

Lois Heard Dies
Lois Leveda Heard, 3558 Giles avenue, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Heard, died Tuesday, Feb. 13. Funeral was held Friday, Feb. 16, at 10 a. m. from the residence.

Removal Notice
Dr. A. B. Turrell announces the removal of his office to 3601 South State street, hours 2 to 4 p. m. 6 to 8:30 p. m. Telephone—Victory 4678. Residence telephone, Douglas 4726.

Suffers Broken Leg
When a horse, which he was driving, became frightened and ran away, William Jones, 27, 2552 Dearborn street, was thrown off of the seat of the wagon to the street. He sustained a broken leg and had to be carried to the County hospital.

Shot While Drunk
While under the influence of moonshine whiskey, Morris Peters, 33, 2517 Dearborn street, became abusive to everyone who went into the soft drink parlor at 3031 Dearborn street. He was shot in the hip and the foot by Fleming Johnston, 3020 Dearborn street, during a quarrel with him.

Saves Brother Officer
While Officer Roscoe Johnston was seeking to quell a disturbance at a local affair, and was trying to make Bert Wallis, 24 East 44th street, preserve order, Wallis' brother, Fred, 414 East 33d street, slipped up behind Officer Johnston and attempted to stab him with a knife, according to the officers. Officer Oliver saw the attempt to be made upon his partner, and wrenched the arm of Fred. The brothers asked for a jury trial.

Make Important Arrest
Sergeants Middleton, Stark, Scott and Smith of the detective bureau arrested McNeil Edwards and Edward Keating, 26 East 24th street, and charged them with holding up with a gun and robbing William Gorce and Anthony Dade, 232 East 55th street, of $200. Gorce had just won the $200 from Neal Burton, a proprietor of a saloon, playing pool. Edwards was the bartender and Keating the porter in the saloon.

Bullets Nip Fingers
During a quarrel Sunday morning between Henry Landis, 30, 115 East 43d street, and Richard Hipps, 4059 Prairie avenue, in the Boles hotel, the latter drew a gun and shot the fingers of the former's right hand. Landis was taken to the Chicago hospital and Hipps placed under arrest by the third district police.

THE UNIVERSAL RELIGION
The Bahai assembly, next Sunday, will meet in St. John hall, 18th floor, Masonic temple, Randolph and State streets, at 3:30 p. m. Basic Bahai principles will be discussed. Bahai meetings open to the public are held every Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Emma Ellington, 4736 St. Lawrence avenue.

Shoots at Blind Woman
Mrs. Julia Moore, 28, 2807 Calumet avenue, was arrested by Officers Finn and Donovan and charged with assault with a deadly weapon. Mrs. Moore, a blind woman, who charged that Mrs. Moore fired two shots at her, failed to appear to prosecute her.

Uses Toy Pistol
A little toy pistol looked deadly in the hands of Charles Wilson, age 39, 25 West 37th street, as he poked it at Clarence Gordon, 2801 Ellis avenue, and told him to throw up his hands. Officers Abbott and Brady heard the command. Wilson was arrested and held to the grand jury under $3,000 bonds.

Who Bought the Furniture?
The wisdom of Solomon will be required when the case of Durant and Lloyd will be tried in court. Lloyd claims that after he bought the furniture and placed it in 3205 Cottage Grove avenue, where Mrs. Julia Durant presided as his housekeeper, that Mrs. Durant wanted to put him out. Mrs. Durant claims that the furniture and home was hers, and she only wants Lloyd to let her alone.

Beaten Inseparably
While in a state of intoxication Barnes West, age 28, 130 West 18th street, was beaten inseparably by some unknown persons, and left lying on the sidewalk. He was unable to tell how, when or where he had been injured.

Auto Skids Into Car
An automobile, in which Clydes Alexander, 22, 4114 Calumet avenue, was riding, skidded into a State street car at 13th street, as the car stopped suddenly. Alexander was painfully injured.

Attorney Anderson Ill
Attorney Violette N. Anderson, assistant city prosecutor, is confined to her home, 4133 Indiana avenue, suffering with pneumonia.

Entertains Newlyweds
Mr. and Mrs. Walter Speedy, 35 West 22d street, entertained with dinner in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Riley Jones, 4435 Indiana avenue, newlyweds of the week. Mrs. Jones was formerly Miss Anna B. Scott, Louisville, Ky. Other guests were Mesdames Lillian R. Gikerson, Spring Valley, Ill., and Mrs. Genevieve L. Wimp.

Sent to County Hospital
The following persons were sent to the County hospital this week: Miss Lucinda Pines, 18, 4753 Wabash avenue; Peter Calhoun, 21, 605 Bowen avenue; Mrs. Lucella Thomas, 31, 4506 Vincennes avenue; Claude Taylor, 20, 4149 Federal street; Mrs. Earl Brown, 20, 5746 Grove avenue; Mrs. Etta Aford, 24, 4745 State street; Mrs. Martha Harvey, 41, 4211 Wabash avenue; Mrs. Emma Blanchard, 22, 6315 Dearborn street; Henry Love, 21, 4439 Evans avenue; Herbert Goosley, 4, 4825 Federal street; Percy Goosley, 2, 4825 Federal street; Burnette Elizabeth, 21, 5249 Federal street; Mrs. Elizabeth Hawkins, 78, 5522 Lafayette avenue; Mrs. Louise Carroll, 16, 3528 Cottage Grove avenue; Herbert Collins, 30, 47 West 31st street; Mrs. Cora Walker, 29, 3615 Wentworth avenue; Mrs. L. Evans, 42, 225 Alexander street; Mrs. Jewel Lewis, 27, 2351 South Park avenue; Henry Berry, 34, 131 West 27th street; William Harris, 25, 2563 Wabash avenue; William Belmont, 22, 775 State street; Mrs. Corrine Brown, 38, 448 East 35th street, and Joe Smith, 55, 2706 Dearborn street.

The following persons were sent to the county hospital last week: Eugene Ford, 22, 550 State street; Charles Thompson, 18, 271 Praland street, Memphis, Tenn.; Simon Cook, 33, 1910 State street; Mrs. Dora Fejes, 55, 658 East 42d street; William Gilson, 6, 5227 Wabash avenue; William Hard, 50, 5630 South Park avenue; EA Parks, 24, 4193 Prairie avenue; William Allen, 22, 4021 Dearborn street; John Bass, 37, 5241 Federal street; Mrs. Samantha Lewis, age 42, 21 East 57th street; Mrs. Fannie McCurdy, 30, 529 Bowen avenue; Mrs. Katie Bell, 80, 5523 Wabash avenue; Mrs. Cleopatra Holliday, 29, 4555 Indiana avenue; John Williams, 51, 4254 Langleigh avenue; Mrs. Della Wilson, 21, 3650 Vincennes avenue; Mrs. Beatrice Patterson, 34, 3638 Rhodes avenue; Willie Sledge, 20, 502 Aldine square; John Davis, 51, 415 East 33d street; Ben Goodwin, 20, 3407 Dearborn street; Richard O'Toole, 39, 2557 Eden avenue; Edward Ester, 49, 2608 State street; Herman Bush, 3751 Federal street; Clara Burton, 3, 3516 LaSalle street; Mrs. E. Wallace, 66, 3238 Wentworth avenue; Fred White, 2, 4552 Dearborn street; Mrs. Alazora Baker, 19, 3915 Cottage Grove avenue; John Gorton, 8, 131 West 27th street, and McKinley Walter, 21, 3018 State street.

Prominent Women Speakers
Mrs. Irene Gains, 2942 Prairie avenue, member of Illinois Joint Legislative committee, was hostess Friday afternoon to a number of women who were entertained by Miss Agnes Nestor, who spoke on the Women's Eight Hour Day Bill, and Miss Lena Watters Hall, who addressed them on "Our Women in Washington."

Visit Defender Plant
Among the delegates to the meeting of the United States Railroad Labor Board held in the city last week were William King, St. Louis, Mo.; L. W. Fairchild, Poplar Bluff, Mo.; and Arthur Warren, Little Rock, Ark. They visited the Defender plant while in the city.

Little Mitchell Laws Dead
Little Mitchell Laws, 2 years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland Laws, Robins, Ill., died Friday of last week at the County hospital.

Recovering
Mrs. Sadie Harris, 4524 Indiana avenue, is able to be out again after a serious illness.

Appointed Librarian
Mrs. Ethel Jewell Thompson, formerly of Lincoln Center branch, has been appointed branch librarian at the new Forestville branch of the Chicago Public Library. Mrs. Thompson is the wife of Dr. William R. Thompson, popular Chicago druggist.

Officer Strouthers Very Ill
Police Officer Everard Strouthers, 3601 State street, third floor, is confined to his home seriously ill. Officer Strouthers was assigned to the Cottage Grove avenue police station at the time of his taking sick, but was long connected at the 45th street station.

Taxi Ride Brings Blood
When Miss Emma Quinn, 21 years old, 5136 State street, stepped into a Checker cab at 1 o'clock Sunday morning, she did not think that the ride would end at a hospital with her as the victim for a physician. But it did. She was riding with John Harrington, whose address she refused to give, when a quarrel developed between them and he drew a knife and slashed the wrist of her right hand. The girl left the cab at 42d street and Cottage Grove avenue, according to the police, and was taken to the South Side hospital.

Demented
Mrs. Catherine Bond, 23, 1651 Fulton street, was taken to the Psychopathic hospital Saturday to be held for observation. She is thought to be insane.

Cope Victim Is Poisoned
Because of her serious illness that seemed to have come from an unnatural cause, Mrs. Charlotte White, 41 years old, 229 North Oakley boulevard, was taken to the County hospital Sunday afternoon suffering from what is believed to be poison from use of narcotics. According to the police, Mrs. White is supposed to have been taking dope. She was attended by Dr. Peter Cameron, 2300 Lake street.

One Bullet Wounds Two
A .25 caliber automatic revolver proved treacherous in the hands of Jeff Anthony, 23, 1741 Carroll avenue, while he was examining and showing it to his friend, Ike Jordan, 45, 1735 Carroll avenue, who was visiting him Sunday evening. The weapon exploded accidentally and a bullet entered Anthony's left thigh, passed through and struck Jordan in the left leg below the knee, making another exit. The wounds of the two victims are not serious; and they are being attended by Dr. Halloway, 1656 Lake street.

Narrowly Escapes Death
Eugene Washington, a 10-year-old schoolboy, living at 716 East 42d street, narrowly escaped being crushed to death Friday afternoon when he attempted to jump from a Ford auto truck after stealing a ride on the side of the vehicle. When the truck reached 42d and Lawrence avenue, the boy attempted to leap from it when his coat caught in its side and he was thrown under the machine and his right leg fractured. He was taken to Providence hospital by a witness to the accident. The truck was owned and driven by John Brown, 3758 Grand boulevard.

Autos Collide
Andrew Walker, 41, 3642 State street, suffered bruises about his face and right hand when the automobile in which he was riding northbound collided with a westbound Ford car, owned and driven by John Henry, 231 Bethoven place. The other auto, which was a Hudson, was owned and driven by Phil Anderson, 3000 Wabash avenue, and the two collided at 47th street and Wabash avenue.

Money Causes Bloodshed
Following an argument over a sum of money between William Scott, 35, 2857 Vernon avenue, and Haywood Thompson of the same address, the latter attacked the former, who is a plasterer, and cut him on the left side of the head with a knife Saturday evening. Scott was taken to the South Side hospital. Thompson escaped and is being sought by the third district police.

Rifle Used as Club
Frank Miller, 41, 413 Federal street, suffered lacerations about his face and the back of his head Monday morning following an altercation with Ben Bransen, a roomer in the Miller home, when Bransen struck him over the head with a rifle. Bransen escaped and Miller was advised to procure a warrant for his arrest.

Con Man Sentenced
Officers Majors and Erwin arrested Grady Stenson, 3735 Indiana avenue, who had four charges of confidence game against him. He was sentenced to 60 days in the house of correction and fined $5 and costs.

Wife Beater Fined
Sol Carter, 1824 Federal street, who was arrested by Sergeants Doyle and Grace for beating his wife, Lula, was fined $10 and costs.

Caught in the Act
Officer Itaph Phelps caught John Brewin, 3020 Wentworth avenue, in the act of holding upONEY Johnson, 4939 Federal street, with a gun. Brewin was held to the grand jury under $1,000 bonds.

Sentenced for Assault
Leon Davis, 8 East 55th street, who was arrested by Sergeants Gallagher and Folcuster after he had beaten up Noel Cheatham and Clara Harris, his sweetheart, was fined $25 and costs, and sentenced to 10 days in the house of correction.

Whips Sweetheart
It cost James Lundy, 2709 State street, $25 and costs for beating up his sweetheart, Minnie Woods, 2607 State street. She complained to Officer Joseph Owens who arrested Lundy.

Held to Grand Jury
George Perkins, 3452 Wabash avenue, who was arrested by Officers Ward and Cogger, was identified by Henry Smith as the man who assaulted him with a knife and took $4 from him and two pawn tickets. He was held to the grand jury under $5,000 bonds.

Fails to Appear
Although Officer Aaron Knight arrested William Earl, 3725 Elmwood avenue, on the complaint of Miss Laura Craft, 5663 Indiana avenue, that he had insulted her in a local theater, yet she failed to prosecute him.

Dr. White Recovering
Dr. May B. White, 4311 Indiana avenue, is reported recovering from an attack of near pneumonia. Dr. White is widely known professionally, and is an important figure in church affairs and social service work.

Wonderful aesthetic dancing. Margaret Reynolds, the beautiful dancing girl interprets a new spring dance at the Fashion show, Eighth Regiment armory, Feb. 22.—Advertisement.

Wife Cuts Husband
A struggle for the possession of a knife ended victoriously for Mrs. Van-kis Williams, 2903 Dearborn street. She stabbed her husband, Leslie, in the shoulder and chest with the knife. Mrs. Williams exhibited 21 cuts on her body where her husband had cut her at different times. Her eye had even been split open.

Spills Lip Open
While quarreling with Willio Clay, 2639 Federal street, Rufus Roberts, 40, 5112 Wabash avenue, had his lip split open with a knife. Clay has not been apprehended.

Batters Face in
As he was walking in the vicinity of 50th and Dearborn streets, Dan F. Albright, 27 years old, with no home, had a quarrel with two unknown men. They battered his face in, running his eyes, nose and mouth together.

Shot By Wife
During a quarrel at their home at 12 West 24th street, flat J, Fred Roberts, 27, was shot in the back of the neck and in the side by his wife, Sadie Roberts, alias West. She was arrested and released on bond pending the outcome of his injuries.

Off for Hot Springs
Messrs. Walter Speedy, 35 West 22d street, and Peter Kosz, 3236 State street, left Thursday for Hot Springs, Ark., where they will take the baths at the Pythian bath house.

James Lewis Ill
James Lewis, great grandchild of Mrs. Rachel Roy, 2228 Dearborn street, is confined to his home with illness. He is being nursed by his great grandmother.

Assaulted by Roomer
Exhibiting an ugly razor cut in his cheek, Ernest Hudson, 26, 3215 LaSalle street, told the police that he had been cut by a roomer, Eugene Clark, while they were quarreling in their home.

Stabbed in Eye
A quarrel staged in front of 3539 Michigan avenue between Winston Stewart, 23, 3453 State street, and Luther Woodfolk, 3924 Indiana avenue, resulted in Stewart being stabbed in the eye by Woodfolk. Stewart is confined in the county hospital.

Shot in Abdomen
While cleaning a revolver in his home at 3641 Federal street, Fred Brown, 35, accidentally shot himself in the abdomen when the gun suddenly exploded.

Struck by Auto
As she was attempting to cross the street at 35th street and Indiana avenue, Mrs. Bessie Harper, 25, 3365 Indiana avenue, was struck by an automobile in charge of Arthur Reese, 3647 Prairie avenue. Mrs. Harper, who was painfully injured, is confined at Provident hospital.

Internally Injured
Suffering with internal injuries, Ed Payton, 40, 2016 LaSalle street, was carried to the county hospital. Payton was injured when he fell from a ladder while painting a house at 2960 Shields avenue.

Betrayed by Watch
A watch, which he was alleged to have gotten in a holdup and then made a present to his landlady, Mrs. Mattie Adams, 2629 Federal street, was the cause of Clarence Williams falling into the hands of Officers Kumbac and Mercer. The watch belonged to J. W. Turner, 2728 Wabash avenue. Williams was sentenced to 60 days in the house of correction and fined $5 and costs.

And Six Below
For passing a forged check for $14 upon Fred Smith, 3518 Indiana avenue, Albert Grant, 2812 Indiana avenue, was arrested by Officer Erwin. Grant took off his overcoat in court and gave it to Smith to hold good until he could make good the check. As evening progressed it was six below.

Cuts Brother-in-law
The police of the South Clark street district are searching every nook and corner for John Smith. Smith escaped after inflicting a four-inch cut on the neck of his brother-in-law, Louis Hardy, 25 years old, during a quarrel in their home at 2010 State street.

Falls Off of Car
According to the police, Ralph Swagerty, 22, 1310 Frederick court, was under the influence of liquor when he fell off of a 31st street car at South Park avenue. He suffered a severe scalp wound on the back of his head.

Fractures Foot
While standing on the front porch of her home at 2234 Dearborn street, Mrs. Belle Robinson, age 36, mislaid her footing and fell down the steps. She sustained a fractured foot.

Uses Razor in Fight
A razor was used with telling effect upon the head and face of Alphonus Johnson, 29, 2963 Wentworth avenue, during a quarrel he had with William Greathouse, 2301 Wentworth avenue. The men refused to state the cause of their quarrel.

Dies From Operation
William Marton, 50, 3544 Wabash avenue, died at his home this week. Death was supposed to have been due from the effects of an operation which was performed at the county hospital a few days ago.

Shoots Self Accidentally
After examining his gun, William Cook, 33, 3356 Indiana avenue, accidentally shot himself in the leg as he was attempting to put the gun back in its holster.

Men Models—you hear me! Will be there with bells on at the Fashion show, Feb. 22, Eighth Regiment armory.—Advertisement.

Mrs. Jackson Ill
Mrs. Penelope Jackson, who was to have given a recital at Lyon & Healey hall, was forced to advance the date to April 13, on account of illness. Her condition is much improved and it is expected that she will be able to receive her friends within a few days.

Old Settler Dies
Mrs. Florence Wolridge, widow of the late James Wolridge, and an old settler of this city, died Feb. 9 and was buried Feb. 13 from the undertaking parlors of Kersey, Morsell and McGowan. She leaves a daughter, Blanche Wolridge.

Avendorph, Jr., Ill
Julius N. Avendorph, Jr., a sophomore at the University of Illinois, Champaign, Ill., was brought home by Earl Mead, another student, very seriously ill last Friday.

Mid-Nite Show
Big Mid-Nite show by Musicians Union, Local 208, at the Grand theater, Wednesday, Feb. 21. Those appearing will be Eighth Regiment band, Vendome orchestra, Sunset orchestra, Cook's orchestra, Mary Stafford, Alberta Hunter, Joe Jordan, Madril Thompson, Dr. Giles, president local 208.

Arnold Hill at Luncheon
T. Arnold Hill, secretary of the Chicago Urban league, met with the Chicago Council of Social agencies at a luncheon in the Morrison hotel Thursday to discuss ways and means of accomplishing the annual budget of the council. The annual report of the council's activities for the past year was read by Miss Elizabeth H. Webster, associate director. It detailed the work the organization had performed in connection with other social agencies. One of the aims of the council is to make a study of the way in which Chicago social agencies are financed.

Drinks Disinfectant Liquid
What the police thought at first was a case of attempted suicide by Mrs. Mary Robinson, 24, 4016 State street, turned out to be a mistake caused by her drinking the contents of a wrong bottle. She drank a quantity of disinfectant liquid for some cough medicine, while at 1712 Michigan avenue. She is confined at St. Luke's hospital.

Shoots Both in Thighs
True love was not running so smoothly in the home of Mrs. Ola Davis, 22, 530 State street. She quarreled with her sweetheart, Thomas Johnson, who roomed with her. James, the brother of Thomas, attempted to separate them when they came to blows. Thomas drew his gun, shot Ola in the right thigh, and his brother in the left.

Assaults Officer
Mrs. Georgia Huntington (white), 2856 Wallace street, reported to be ex-wife of Jack O'Keefe, the prize fighter, sought to try some of a prize fighter's tactics upon Officer Gazelle Whitely when he ordered her to move on while she was intoxicated. She kicked the officer in the stomach, and sought to whip Police Matron Wiltz when locked up. She was fined $10 and costs by Judge Joseph Schulman.

Arrivals at Idlewild
The arrivals at Idlewild hotel the past week: The Rev. Moore, Pittsburgh, Pa.; W. M. Hill, New York City; Y. Y. Pomeze, Chicago; W. L. Wilson, Norfolk, Va.; W. M. Hickney, Ft. Worth, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Finch, Cincinnati, Ohio; L. A. Tobin, Toronto, Canada; Joe Williams, Chicago; Leonard Mitchell, Chicago; E. R. Jones, Gary, Ind.; Willie Rhodes, Alco, Tenn.; John Harris, Indiana Harbor, Ind.; J. C. Martin, San Francisco, Calif.; W. M. Cole, Hammond, Ind.; Mich Wayne, Pittsburgh, Pa.; T. Bennett, Libertyville, Ill.; Best Watson, Indianapolis, Ind.; Miss Bernice Wilson, Jamestown, Ohio; G. H. Duncan, Memphis, Tenn.; Abe Carter, Peoria, Ill.; L. B. Lillif, Grand Rapids, Mich.; A. R. Legg, Minneapolis, Minn.; John Baker, Portland, Ore.; Jack Mahoney, Indiana Harbor, Ind.; Hardin Baker, Detroit, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Thompson, Des Moines, Iowa; Billy Henderson, Georgetown, Ky.; Miss Mildred Folks, Spokane, Wash.; W. G. Allison, New York City.