

CINCINNATI, O.

By MARION HUBBARD
 4 Lincoln Terrace

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Dec. 5.—Dinner was served Friday to M. C. Clarke of Madisonville who had been honored at a testimonial dinner in Cleveland, by the following persons, members of sponsoring committees, namely: D. C. Chandler, general chairman; Robert Pinn, secretary; Dr. J. A. Owen, and Mrs. Lena G. Brown, A. G. Frazier, Alexander Lyons, Dr. J. E. Wallace, Rev. Sylvester Williams, E. M. Halvey, Wm. Harrison, Miss Grace Carver, Harry Basey, Mesdames Glenn Stewart, and B. B. Chauncey, J. F. Morning, Miss Martha Frye, Mrs. Alice Pier-son, W. O. Walker, Ormond Forte, Eugene Cheeks, Miss Jane Fuster, Mrs. Emma Crawl, C. M. Chauncey, and John C. Cobb.

Mr. Clarke who has capably filled his duties as examiner in the state insurance department was honored by the addresses of Hon. Mayor H. H. Burton of Cleveland, Hon. Robert L. Bowen, Supt. State Insurance Department, and many other prominent persons who are active in the civic affairs of Ohio.

Thrilled over the anniversary of their marriage in October, Mr. and Mrs. Lovelle Burton who had been engaged so Cincinnatians thought for nearly three years, informed their friends of their marriage.

Chester Lewis and Dr. Leo Robinson were guests last weekend.

Sorors Entertain

Thursday the Alpha Kappa sorority entertained the new students on the U. of Cincinnati campus and also sister in Cincinnati who are: Misses Indian sorors who are making their residence Nash, program secretary at the Y.W., and Henrietta Bonaparte, Girl Reserve secretary; Mrs. Edna Gaither Harris from Atlanta, Ga., and Mrs. Render from Chicago, Ill. Mrs. Mary Finley was chairman of the program, her assistant who gave very interesting contribution to the program are Mrs. Laura Turner and Miss Virginia Jones.

Mrs. Emma Horner, society matron of Cincinnati, was hostess to a birthday party at the Cotton Club on Thursday in compliment to her husband's anniversary. Dr. Chas. Horner was surprised.

Junior Miss Athletes

At the end of the soccer season there were a number of awards of memberships made to those members of junior high school who have earned enough points to qualify for membership in the Walnut Hill high school Girl's Athletic Association. Three of our youngsters made the average in the "FFic" class were: Ezel DeHarte Hubbard, who has the distinction of the youngest girl in the school to be awarded to date this year; Eloise Turpin, and Ella Francis Kennedy.

Frank Giles of Chicago, Ill., was a visitor here last weekend.

Miss Dorothy Early has taken an apartment on Chapel street.

Atty. Elsie Austin is hostess to the Baha'i group which meets at her home each Monday.

Prominent Teacher Dies

Miss Salino Mayo, daughter of the late Prof. W. H. Mayo, principal of the Frankfort public school, who for some fifteen or twenty years taught domestic science in the school at Frankfort, died Friday at the home of her niece, Mrs. P. W. L. Jones. Last year she came to Cincinnati making her home with her cousin, Mrs. Tiny Griffith who since died. She was a sister of Dr. W. H. Mayo, a prominent Chicagoan. The remains were laid in Crittendon Jones funeral home until Monday when they were escorted to Frankfort, Ky., for funeral services at the Corinthian Baptist Church. In addition to her brother, Dr. Mayo, and niece, Mrs. P. W. L. Jones, Miss Mayo leaves three nephews, Dr. R. Kenneth Jones, Paul Jones and William Jones, three cousins, Misses Hazel and Valerio Griffith and Mrs. Spotwood Greene, and a host of other relatives and friends.

Wheels of Progress

Mrs. Myrtle Grandison was hostess to the Wheel of Progress on Thursday. Mrs. Alice Showes and Henry Grand-son were the speakers.

Prof. Mordecai Johnson

Friday an appreciative audience was to see the end of a very enjoyable and educational program of which Prof. Mordecai Johnson was the speaker. The Union Baptist Church housed the event.

The members of the Young Men's Progressive Social Club were royally entertained on Friday at the residence of Albert Goings who together with Brackenridge Crittendon were hosts for the meeting. The dance the club gave at the Cotton Club was a success. Prizes were offered club members who would sell the largest number of patrons tickets. Each member of the club was given a minute in which he expressed his sentiment toward the organization.

Mrs. Elnora Moore, daughter of Mrs. Sara Parrott, is very ill at the Cincinnati general hospital.

Tournament

The Pathfinders have divided their membership into a number of groups, each one of which must raise a definite quota. On Friday under the chairmanship of Mrs. Lucille Brown, the group No. 1 sponsored a bridge tournament.

Mrs. Anna King who is president of the Pathfinders Club, was removed to the Christ Hospital on Thursday for a goitre operation.

Hostess To Tea

Sunday the Optimist Club entertained at tea at their club house on Stanton avenue. Miss Virginia K. Jones, executive secretary of the West End Branch Y.W.C.A., and Mrs. Gladys Calander graced the tea table.

Bridge Clubs

Miss Margaret Palmer was the solicitous and thoughtful hostess who entertained the Rose Maries and their escorts. Her guests were elaborately served at the Candle Light tea room afterwards.

The O.D.T.'s were Mrs. Margaret Spivey's guests on Tuesday. Her guests other than club members were: Mrs. Nona McDowelle, Miss Martha Williams, Mrs. Sur Birch, and Mrs. Pearle Greene.

Lucky Seven Card Club was Mrs. Minnie Howard's guest on Wednesday.

The Bolivian Art Club was royally entertained by Mrs. Gussie Bowen of Elmwood. This was the social evening and the members were happy to have with them Mrs. Theresa Irwing, who has been absent for more than a year because of her position. Bridge was the afternoon's pleasure for this was a social meeting.

Manless Wedding

The Daughters of St. John presented an entertaining sketch at the St. John's A.M.E. Church on Monday. A splendid enactment of a manless wedding was received by an appreciative and enthusiastic audience.