

THE BUCKEYE STATE

CLEVELAND NEWS

By ALEXANDER O. TAYLOR
Office 2525 Central Ave.
Phone Main 3539

Cleveland, Ohio, Nov. 15.—The Cleveland Tuskegee association met with Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Harrison of 6802 Blaine Ave.

Miss Alice Taylor of 1192 Parkwood drive entertained the members of the Left Six-Astrants club Saturday evening.

Mrs. Nettie Hope of 10411 Garned Ave. and Mrs. Carrie Street of 2113 E. 46th St. are in Cleveland among the students.

Following the regular business meeting of the Officers' council of the A. U. K. and D. of A. a committee composed of Daughter Dora Wallace graciously entertained the members and guests in the dining room. It most excellent queens and knights, together with their officers, assembled on this occasion to pay their respects to National Vice Grand Master Thomas H. Butler and Daughter Anna Ray, national deputy. About 75 guests enjoyed the sumptuous repast and enjoyed the evening immensely. Sir Knight Butler and Daughter Ray sat in opposite positions at the table and made timely remarks. Other distinguished guests present were Attorney William H. Saunders, Attorney Lawrence Payne, councilman-elect, and Dr. Leroy N. Bundy, councilman-elect. The committee deserves special praise for arranging this outstanding affair. W. M. Clarke, reporter.

Attorney and Mrs. Alexander H. Martin and sons, Alexander Jr. and Stewart, motored to Columbus for the week-end and visited their daughters and sisters, Misses Lydia and Sarah Martin, co-eds at Ohio State U.

The annual dinner given at Cory church proved to be the most successful in the church's history. Mrs. James Allen won the first prize for having the most artistically decorated table. Mr. and Mrs. Allen reside on Gooding Ave.

The Friendship septet of Friendship Baptist church, with the pastor, Rev. A. Hawkins, motored to Massillon and held services for Friendship church of that city Sunday. M. M. Lewis and A. H. Harroless are popular members of the organization.

Mrs. Russell Brown of South Blvd. entertained the Whistaria club. The honor guests for the occasion were Misses Helen Whiting, E. F. Rucker and George Hinton. Prizes were awarded to Misses Willye Shook and Ida Gray for the club and Mrs. Ben Whiting for the guests.

Col. and Mrs. Butler Entertain. The beautiful home of Col. and Mrs. Thomas H. Butler, 2229 E. 36th St., was the scene of one of the delightful A. U. K. and D. of A. entertainments on Wednesday evening. Ada Harris company of ladies' uniformed department, sponsored the affair. A fine repast was served. "On to Louisville" is the slogan of the company. A splendid crowd was present, and they say the treasurer is already complaining of the weight of the money he is forced to carry from time to time. Sir Knight Butler and wife are a most gracious host and hostess. They know just what is required to entertain guests properly. W. N. Clarke, reporter.

Mrs. Clarence Fitch, 2172 E. 73d St., is recovering from a serious illness. The Housekeepers' Art and Study club met with Mrs. Mary Robertson of Lakeshore St. Plans were completed for the club's tea. All members are requested to attend the next meeting. The visitors were Mrs. John Washington and Mrs. Josephine Johnson, sister of Mrs. Robertson. After the business session a delicious luncheon was served by the hostess. The next meeting will be with Mrs. J. L. Scholer, 2322 E. 90th St. Thursday evening, Nov. 21. Mrs. J. L. Scholer, president; Mrs. Katie Irvin, secretary; Mrs. Mable Early, reporter.

The local Kappa Alpha Psi fraternity is sponsoring a festival to be held at Mt. Zion Congregational temple by Dr. W. W. Whitfield, Cleveland's noted baritone, who returned from Europe two months ago after taking a year's special training from one of the leading French teachers. The doctor has been in New York since returning from abroad, and his visit to his home city will be welcomed with the greatest enthusiasm.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Chauncey of Pierpont Ave. are giving the congratulations of their friends over the arrival of their baby boy. Mrs. Chauncey and son are doing fine.

"Torgy," another of our leaders among race shows, will be at the Ohio theater the week of Nov. 24. It is reported. The artists are all members of the race.

St. James gym class gave a very enjoyable party in the church gym. The suit case relay was one of the most interesting and amusing features of the program so wonderfully planned and carried out by Miss Mable Early, director of activities.

First Beulah Baptist Church

6411 Quincy Ave.

Rev. J. B. Wilder, Pastor

Morning services were conducted by the pastor. His subject was "Prophetic Service," drawn from the text, "There make ready for us." The regular communion service was held in the afternoon. The week's program: Rose of Sharon club gives an entertainment Saturday night with Mrs. Bessie Taylor; the Willing Workers meet Tuesday with Mrs. Jones, 2172 E. 83th St.; the Busy Bees club, Tuesday with Mrs. Johnson, 2327 E. 93d St.; the Woodland Ave. club, Tuesday with Mrs. Nichols, 8119 Quincy Ave.; a "tiny tot" wedding will be given Thursday, Nov. 14, at the church, under the auspices of the Sunshine band. Deacon Adams, 2555 E. 61st St., a faithful member of the church, was taken suddenly ill Friday night. Alberta Wright, reporter.

Antioch Baptist Church

Central Ave. and E. 25th St.

Rev. W. H. McKinney, pastor

Our services were under way Sunday with an enthusiasm and fervor that bode fair to make this one of the greatest evangelistic meetings in Antioch's history. Prof. J. H. Smiley of Louisville, Ky., our special gospel singer, sang at all the services, accompanied by his wife, Mrs. Smiley. Rev. S. T. Eldridge of New York, the special preacher for the revival, preached his first sermon Monday evening. Devotional services are held at 7:30 each evening and preaching begins at 8 o'clock. Rev. Eldridge will speak and preach next Sunday. Atty. Clayborne George, chairman of the highways and byways committee, is making a strenuous effort to have a large number present to hear Dr. Eldridge.

Mount Zion Temple

Rev. Sam Lucas delivered the morning sermon at the temple Sunday. The Busy Bees gave a musicale-tea in the afternoon at the residence of the Misses Fields. In spite of the inclement weather, a large crowd attended.

Many interesting numbers appeared on the program among them a number by Miss Florence Cole-Talbert. Sunday, Nov. 17, Rev. John M. Brown, pastor of Shorter Chapel A. M. E. church, Denver, Colo., will be the guest of his brother, Rev. Russell Brown. It is their first time to meet in the pastorate of the younger brother. On the sick list are Mrs. E. M. Helvey, at the City hospital, and William Chaney, at his home. A new ball has been purchased by the service center committee for the boys in the gym. Contesting basketball games will be played during the winter.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Willbur Wright, 2705 Central Ave., a fine son. Mother and son are doing fine under the care of Dr. J. D. Merida.

Miss L. Ruth Trigg, oldest daughter of Attorney and Mrs. Andrew A. Trigg, 2365 E. 126th St., and president of the popular Jay Dee club, left Sunday for Detroit, where she continues her duties as tutor to the Perry brothers, ages 14 and 16, ten dancers in the production of "Blackbirds." The Perry boys are sons of the manager of the show. Miss Trigg is guest of her aunt, Mrs. Maudie Marshall, 5503 Tillman Ave., during her stay there.

Mrs. Mabel Jackson and Mrs. Rena Carpenter, Columbus, Ohio, visited the former's sister, Mrs. William Callaway, Mrs. H. Hooker and Dr. Freda Rogers. The bi-monthly meeting of the Talladega Alumni club was held at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Garland L. Haynes, 401 Central Ave. The meeting was short-spiced and well attended in spite of the bad weather. Plans are being laid to make the Cedar Y. 77th and Cedar, the permanent headquarters of the club, beginning with the meeting Nov. 15. Every loyal Talladegan is urged to be present, as plans will be formulated for the coming social function to be staged for the benefit of a million dollar endowment campaign for the greater Talladega.

The beautiful Case home on E. 89th

St. presented a scene of mirth and trifle when Miss Myrtle Wiggins, Dr.

Freda Rogers, Mesdames Emma Met-

calff, Geraldine Burks and Emma Miller

staged a Halloween party. Dancing predominated with Mrs. Andra Underwood at the piano, her relief at intervals by a majestic hour. Refreshments were served during the entire evening, and at a late hour the guests were ushered into the side yard, where they enjoyed a weiner roast. Mr. Harris took flashlight pictures of the jolly crowd.

Mrs. U. S. Mayson, 2329 E. 89th St.,

returned from a three months visit in Chicago, Jackson, Miss., and other points South.

Mrs. Julius Johnson, E. 97th St., underwent successful operation at Mt.

Sinai hospital last week. Her many friends wish her a speedy recovery.

The stork specially visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Williams, 2325

E. 93d St., and left fine baby daughter recently.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Hubbard, 2163 E.

83th St., have a fine baby daughter, who arrived last week at Maternity hospital of Western Reserve university. The baby has been named Lorraine Ann Livingston, after its mother, who was Miss Lorraine Livingston.

The late Honorable Theodore E. Burton, left $1,000 to Tuskegee institute in his will just probated. Cleveland Tuskegeans regret that the amount was not $10,000 instead.

Culbreth R. Cook Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Culbreth R. Cook Sr., 7. 89th St., was home from the University of Cincinnati for the week-end, attending the St. Xavier-Western Reserve football game.

The Ladies East End Art club gave a Halloween party at the home of Mrs. Ward on E. 93d St.

Oliver Taylor, Pittsburgh, Pa., a former Cleveland, motored to Cleveland and stopped at the Central hotel for the week-end.

Misses Johnnie Mae Bell, Lillian McCall and Cleona Donan will be the first of our group to graduate from the beautiful new John Hay high school of commerce 107th and Carnegie. They will come out in January.

Little Miss Lucille Boyd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene E. Boyd, Drexel Ave., is in the honor role at Patrick Henry junior high school, having been advanced five divisions in a very short time. Lucille is a promising pianist, being a pupil of Mabelle Clarke Blair. She participated in one of the local musicales Sunday afternoon.

The Junior Federation of Girls Clubs held one of its enthusiastic meetings at the Cedar Y Thursday. A basketball team is being organized with Ohio Dawson of Western Reserve "U" as coach.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Tuck motored to Cleveland for the week-end, being dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Hill. Their daughter, Dana Marie, accompanied them.

It is interesting to note that Paul Sissle and Robert Perry, known as "The Bokum Lads," have been engaged to broadcast Tuesdays and Saturdays over the new WTAM station also over WJAY Saturdays. They had the honor of being on the program of the dedicatory program of the new WTAM last week. They will be featured again with Emerson Gill's famous band at the new Lake Shore hotel. They are being sponsored by Manager Frank Hines (white) of Keith's Palace theater.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Basey, 3696 E. 144th St., entertained a group of friends Saturday night with dancing after which a bounteous repast was served.

The Jay Dee club was entertained Sunday at the home of Rozel Threat with Miss Clara Anderson as hostess.

Thomas Johnson, tenor, a product of the New England Conservatory, Boston, Mass., was the guest of Louis V. Jones, violinist, at his home, while passing through en route for a recital in West Virginia State college, Institute, W. Va. His itinerary has included already Rochester and Buffalo, N. Y., Pittsburgh, Akron, Columbus and Wilberforce.

Mrs. M. E. Fishback, E. 93th St., is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. E. Moreland, New York city, seeking a much needed rest.

Dr. D. O. Walker of St. James church, performed the marriage ceremonies of Edmond M. Rice and Edna M. Thomas, at Charlie Dorsey and Edith Brewster, recently.

The annual meeting of the local branch of the N. A. A. C. P. will be held Friday evening, Nov. 22, according to announcement of the president, Atty. Charles W. White. Dr. William B. Pickens, Mrs. Mary B. Martin, newly elected member of the school board, and Mrs. Daisy Lampkin, assistant field secretary of the national body, are announced as the speakers. The place will be held senior in the next issue.

St. James senior choir gave its 26th musical hour Sunday afternoon. On the program were Miss Marguerite Pennybacker, soprano; Olaf C. Collins, baritone; St. John's quartet and the choir, who were at their best under the direction of Harry E. Thompson, with Miss Marguerite Sanford at the organ.

Mrs. Edith Lee, 2258 E. 47th St., entertained at breakfast recently for Mrs. Alice Dunbar Nelson, who was the house guest of Mrs. Thomas W. Fleming. Other guests included Mrs. F. D. Webster and Mrs. A. O. Taylor.

The Sunshine Social club gave a party at the home of Mrs. Nettie York, Arthur Ave., the decorations being in accord with the Halloween season.

"The Widows' Parade" at East Mt. Zion Baptist church, Dr. Ernest Hall, pastor, was a mammoth success, standing room being at a premium. Dr. Hall is planning to raze the present structure at Cedar and E. 103d St. next week and replace it with an entirely new building. Dr. Hall and his congregation foresee for his church the opportunity of rendering great service to the church in the East End section. His congregation is growing by leaps and bounds.

Mrs. Ed Helvey is very ill at the City hospital. Mr. Helvey, with the Domestic Life in St. Louis, was expected at her bedside Sunday night.

Mrs. Thelma Stanhope Moon, former bookkeeper at the Empire Savings and Loan Co., is recovering rapidly at the Warrensville sanitarium. She was on a three-day leave which permitted her to cast her vote for Congressman Clayborne George in the fourth district, Nov. 5.

Mrs. W. R. Jackson, Everton Ave., had as dinner guests Dr. and Mrs. House, Roanoke, Va.

G. E. Newlin, 2369 E. 40th St., has as a guest his brother, F. O. Newlin of Columbus, Ohio.

Mrs. Hazel Mountain Walker, whose petitions for member of the city council were filed and afterward withdrawn, entertained her workers and a number of her in-doorers at luncheon at her home in E. 79th St. Saturday. About 25 guests were present, among whom was Dr. D. C. Walker, pastor of St. James church. A tasty menu was served. By the way, the popular school-teacher, Misses Ella Mae and Lena Jimmie Donald, were present.

Women's Federation to Meet

The Cleveland Federation of Women's Clubs will hold its regular monthly luncheon at the P. W. A. Monday, Nov. 18, at 2 p. m. The executive board will meet at 1:30 p. m. All clubs are urged to send a representative to the luncheon-meet. Plans will be inaugurated for entertaining the national body in 1932.

Mrs. M. M. Gibson, president; Margaret Carroll, chairman publicity.

The Ante Meridian Breakfast Ridge club met with Mrs. Carl Millin of Crennell Ave. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Rowland of Fairmount Blvd.

The Nightingale Social club met with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ross, 2772 Lakeshore Rd. Mrs. Daisy Shields of E. 103d St., a member of the club, is visiting her grandmother in the South.

Mrs. Jennie Robinson entertained the Golden Rule club at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Marie Sims, 2255 E. 53th St. Mrs. Sims has as house guest Miss Inez Evans, Brownsville, Pa.

Miss Evans was a visitor at St. John church and Sunday school, this Sunday school being one of the largest in the city.

The Las Amegas gave a party at the home of Miss Louise Cheeks in Carillon Ave., East Cleveland. About 50 guests attended. Dancing and bridge featured the pastime.

The Lea-A-Han dramatic club gave a Halloween party Thursday night. Arthur Swenson is director of this club.

The masquerade Halloween ball at the Caterers club Friday evening was probably the most picturesque of last week. The hosts and hostesses included Adele and Elton Reed, Jean Lee, Marjorie McKenzie, Vivian Alston, Carlett Davis, Pete Duff and James Harper. About fifty guests attended and snappy dance music was played by La Vere's Harmony boys. Out of town guests included Ruth Davis, Youngstown, and a Culbreth Cook, student at Cincinnati "U."

Miss Winifred Towse, 2250 E. 84th St., has been selected as dancing instructor at Kingsley Arter center of the P. W. A. E. 100th St.

The Adel Phi club had charge of the mammoth Halloween program at the Cedar Y Thursday evening assisting the leaders.

Miss Edith Lee, coed at Ohio State university, spent the week-end in Cleveland with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lynell Lee, 2258 E. 74th St.

Mrs. Hazel Mountain Walker was the interesting speaker at St. James forum Sunday afternoon. Her subject was "Education in Travel." John Henry Early Jr. gave a violin selection.

Dr. Arthur S. Scott, prominent dentist, returned from an interesting hunting trip in Michigan last week. Among his captures were partridges, snakes, a raccoon and skunk. Friends are asking the doctor what became of the skunk.

Mrs. R. H. Riffe and Mrs. George G. Jones have returned from an enjoyable season at Idlewild.

St. James choir will give its monthly "musical hour" in the church, 81th and Cedar, next Sunday from 3 to 5 p. m. Miss Marguerite Pennybacker, pianist, will be featured along with other excellent talent. Harry E. Thompson is director of the choir.

St. John church is making preparations to celebrate its 100th anniversary early next year. Rev. Henry P. Jones, D. D., is pastor.

One of the outstanding affairs of the fall season was the reception given by the Junior Federation of Girls club in honor of the mothers and members of the Federation of Women's club at the Metropolitan club, E. 92d St. Sunday from 3 to 7 p. m. The dining room was daintily decorated with the club colors and cut flowers. Among the speakers were Mrs. L. M. Gibson, president of the Federation of Women's clubs; Mrs. Thomas W. Fleming, president of the State Federation; Mrs. Alysie Dunbar Nelson, Mrs. Mary B. Martin and Mrs. Cora West Robinson. About fifty guests attended. The Junior girls presented a very interesting program with Miss Weltha Lipscomb, chairman and Mrs. Gertrude Fisher, sponsor.

Lucille Mitchell, contralto, will be presented in a vocal recital by the Lacy School of Music at St. John church Tuesday evening, Nov. 19. The affair is sponsored by Stewardess Board No. 1 of the church. The Treble Clef club and Ellen Johnson, pianist, will assist.

Mrs. Thomas Jones, Montgomery, Ala., is guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Marie Jones, 220 E. 71st St.

Mrs. Ida Nichols, 2183 E. 71st St., left Tuesday evening for Buffalo, N. Y., where she will visit her sister, Miss Willa Frazier, social worker at the Friendship Home, 300 Jefferson Ave., for an indefinite period. Mrs. Nichols has been an active worker in St. John church, being president of the student ardeas board a number of years. Her departure is regretted.

The Las Amegas girls held their last meeting with Miss Emmaline Hart, 1200 E. 111th St. Miss Marjorie Drexel Ison gave her second lesson in etiquette and Miss Gertrude Lang talked interestingly on beauty. The next meeting will be with Miss Ethel Harris. Rehearsals were begun on the pantomime.

Kappa Beta Kappa of St. Andrews' Episcopal church gave an enjoyable masquerade Halloween party in the parish house Friday evening. Orrin Southern is president, Miss Marie Porter secretary, and Miss Seals adviser.

Gradually the store of the East end operated by the other groups are opening their doors of employment to members of our group. Miss Louise Lucas, 2218 E. 70th St., is employed as saleslady in Sack's department store, 71st and Central. It is reported the same firm will soon open another store in Woodland Ave. in which all the employees will be members of the race.

One of the most enjoyable and brilliant masquerade parties of the Halloween season was given by Misses Louise French and Fannie Foster at the former's home, 8607 1/2 Cedar Ave. Dancing and games featured the pastimes of the evening.

Miss Bolden Writes of Success

Miss Anita Bolden, missionary who returned last year from five years' labor in the fields of French West Africa, writes: Cleveland friends of her splendid reception at the annual missionary convention held in the Christian and Missionary alliance in South Phillipsburg, Pa., and other visits in various sections of that state. In the special Sunday afternoon service she spoke of her work, especially among the "lush" people of the far interior of French West Africa. She said that she had seen in "The Gospel of Jesus Christ is the power of God unto salvation, whether in America or in the heart of Africa, to all who will believe it." This is a different field of labor, but God has given a harvest of many converts, she also said. She brought many stirring message to the convention and told of some very wonderful cases where the natives were transformed by power divine and they turned from demon worship to genuine true and living God. Thousands have never heard the story and are pleading for missionaries to come and give them the Gospel. Miss Bolden while in Cleveland is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Golden, Eastham Ave. Miss Bolden will be in Pennsylvania until the 24th, when she will come to Cleveland. It may be interesting to note that she spoke at the North Ohio annual conference of the A. M. E. church in Lorain Co. last month.

Deaths Reported by E. F. Boyd

Mrs. Martha McDade, 59, 2328 E. 25th St.; William Crowell, 20, at city hospital, remains shipped to Lisman, Ala.; Ade Bentley, 3610 Scoville Ave., services at 2396 E. 37th St., conducted by Rev. Walker, Lorain, Ohio; Jasper Betts, 41, Columbus, Ohio, services conducted by Rev. Yewell, assisted by Rev. McKinney; William Washington, 35, at city hospital; Mrs. Lillie Brown, 47, 2330 E. 62d St., services conducted by Rev. McNary; Leola Brooks, 8 months, services conducted by Rev. Yewell; Mrs. Laura Williams, 10709 Arthur Ave., funeral services at St. James A. M. E. church, conducted by Rev. D. O. Walker; Mrs. Ida Jackson, 43, funeral services at Antioch Baptist church, conducted by Rev. McKinney; James Blackman, 4211 Holyoke Ave.; Philip Marzette, 21, at city hospital, services conducted by Rev. McNary; Ross Joy, 2, services conducted by Rev. Henry P. Jones; Mrs. Mattie Dorsey, 29, services at Second Emmanuel Baptist church, conducted by Rev. H. R. Jones; Helen Hall, 2655 E. 53d St., services conducted by Rev. J. P. Foote; Howard Higgins, 2256 E. 103d St., at Oberlin, Ohio, services conducted by Rev. Foote; John Warren, 61, in Eloise, Mich.; funeral services at Antioch Baptist church by Rev. W. H. McKinney; Mrs. Mabel Kellogg, 24, at Mt. Sinai hospital, remains shipped to Florence, S. C.

St. James S. S. Elects

St. James Sunday school has elected the following officers for the ensuing year: General supervisor, Mrs. Alice Jones; superintendent, J. B. Simmons Jr.; assistant superintendent, E. D. Lee; secretary, Mrs. Mary Parker; assistant secretary, Miss Emily Wright; treasurer, Miss Thelma Stokes; Librarian, J. E. Fudge; pianist, Mrs. Azella Williams; director of orchestra, Ellsworth Harris; cradle roll department, Superintendent, Mrs. Willa Gaines; beginners department, Mrs. Clara Boggs; assistant superintendent, Miss Ethel Johnson. Primary department: Superintendent, Mrs. Equilla Morris; assistant superintendent, Mrs. Lillian Panton. Junior department: Superintendent, Mrs. Esther Pierce; assistant superintendent, Mrs. Mattie Stone. Intermediate department: Superintendent, Mrs. Zennade Dempsey; assistant superintendent, S. A. Wade. Young people's department: Superintendent, Mrs. Henry Granger. Adult department: Superintendent, M. J. Synes. Rev. Dr. D. O. Walker is pastor.

Dr. Whitfield in Concert

Dr. Walter W. Whitfield of Cleveland, Ohio, who has just returned from Paris, France, where he has studied under Marcel-Rush and Jacques-Jaume, the latter director of the French opera, "Angelique," of which Dr. Whitfield was a member, will appear in recital in his home town at Mt. Zion Congregational church Nov. 22, under auspices of Kappa Alpha Psi fraternity. His many friends will turn out to greet him.