

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Motor From Cleveland.
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Seelig, Cleveland, Ohio, and Mr. and Mrs. Thompson and mother, Mrs. Trull, arrived in the city Tuesday morning after a trip of several days. They are visiting Mrs. Seelig's sister, Mrs. Katie Womack, 3739 Indiana avenue, and were here guests at breakfast at the Tavern cafe on Tuesday.

Musical-Vaudeville-Dance.
Don't forget the great benefit for the Massachus Industrial school in Virginia, which will be given at the 5th Regiment armory, 25th and Giles avenue, on Monday evening, Oct. 2. Judging from the advance sale of tickets there will be standing room only. This is the first time in the history of the school that such a large number of stars have been assembled for such charity's sake. There will be stars from "Plantation Days," "Plantation Days," "Plantation Days," and other features, all under the personal direction of that well-known producer, Lawrence Deas. Mrs. Antoinette Edwards, general manager, and Mr. B. Anderson, master of ceremonies. Program begins promptly at 8:30 p. m. and dancing until 11. Music by Tommy Watson's famous orchestra. Admission 50 cents. Don't forget the date—Advertisement.

To Speak at St. Louis.
Dr. George C. Hall has been invited by the St. Louis branch of the St. Louis Y. M. C. A. to make an address at that association early in October when St. Louis will open up a campaign for the work of the Y. M. C. A. in that city. This is the second visit Dr. Hall has been called upon to make to St. Louis in the interest of the Y. M. C. A.

New Yorkers Entertained.
Counselor A. J. Gary, executive chairman of the West Harlem Republican club, of which Alfordman George W. Harris is president, accompanied by his wife and Mrs. Bernard Davis, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. Clinton Jones, 4343 Vincennes avenue. A series of motor and dinner parties will be given by the hosts. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Robinson, 3601 Giles avenue, the aunt of Mrs. Gary, gave a luncheon party for them. They motored to Gary, Ind., where they were the guests of Counselor Alfred Casey at States hotel. On Monday evening, Sept. 11, they entertained at the Garys' home, the Appomattox club. The party left Tuesday aboard the Manhattan limited.

Idelwild Ready for Winter.
Idelwild hotel, 50 East 33d street, is now ready for the winter. The steam boiler has been repaired, passed city inspection, contracts made with the city for coal, and the hotel is throughout the entire winter and an army blanket and quilt on each bed makes this hotel very much sought by those who wish comfort. The lobby has been redecorated for the winter—Advertisement.

Attress Has Birthday Party.
Miss Peggy Burnett, Columbus, Ohio, who is making such an enviable reputation in the "Plantation Days" company, now playing at the Avenue theater, was given a birthday party Monday night, Sept. 18, at the home of her mother, Mrs. E. L. Burnett, 31st and State street. Miss Burnett wore a handsome gown and received a number of costly and beautiful presents. Among her girl friends who were present were Misses Bernice Wilson, Dempsey Braxton, Margaret Burns, Ethel Hill, Susane Brown and Flora Brown. The wardrobe mistress at the Avenue theater, Mrs. E. L. Burnett, and several members of the Elgar orchestra.

Convicted for Drish Assault.
May Brown, 316 East 33d street, was given 30 days in jail and a fine of $25 and Ben Brooks, driver of the automobile which the Brown woman owned, was given 30 days in the bridewell for assault on Thomas Drish, Sr., 555 East 33d street. The Brown woman struck Mr. Drish over the eye when the chauffeur came to collect a bill after using the vilest of language. The case has been continued several times, but the court has refused to try it. Following the conviction, the woman tried to break free from the hallit when Detective Hurley of the 48th Street station arrested her and she was given an additional sentence.

Mrs. Crenshaw Returns.
Mrs. Victoria Crenshaw, Fairfield, Ala., who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. A. Crenshaw, and niece, Mrs. Medames E. A. Presty and L. Amos in the Windy City, left for her home Sept. 16. Many social affairs were given by friends in her honor.

Three Big Carnival Nights.
The three big carnival nights, Oct. 2, 3 and 4, at the University of Music, 3672 Michigan avenue, are arousing much enthusiasm among pleasure-seekers of the season. The brightest lights, the grandest music and the Mardi Gras costumes will certainly bring about an amazing scenic spectacle. There will be plenty of prizes for the winners. Monday, Mardi Gras night, will be a novelty and Tuesday is surprise night for the children. Wednesday, the climax night, will be devoted to special features. The carnival buy a season ticket and get three nights of fun and laughter. Tickets are being sold rapidly and the wise ones are getting them early.

Chicago Doctors Return.
Dr. Count J. Toffner, physician, 3538 South State street, and Dr. John A. Framan, dentist, 4709 South State street, arrived Tuesday morning in Chicago on the famous Broadway limited on the last lap of their journey home after spending four months in France and Scotland. They took postgraduate courses at the University of Edinburgh and at the University of Paris. Their travels took them to all parts of England, Italy and Germany. The tourists arrived in New York Friday afternoon, Sept. 29, and after seven days at sea on the palatial steamer, La France, a fuller account of their trip will appear in next week's issue.

Mrs. Jenifer in City.
Mrs. Eva Jenifer, formerly of Chicago, but now of Hot Springs, Ark., is in the city for an indefinite stay as the guest of her granddaughter, Mrs. Edna Lewis, 3438 Vernon avenue.

Mrs. E. T. Wilson Entertains.
One of the season's most elaborate social affairs was the six-course luncheon given by Mrs. E. T. Wilson, 3764 Prairie avenue, Thursday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Lula Howard, St. Paul, Minn. Those present were Mesdames Langston, H. L. Taylor, Des Plaines, Ill.; F. R. Evans and Julius N. Avondorph.

Noted Chemist in City.
William L. Haynes, Omaha, Neb., assistant chemist of the Union Pacific Railroad Co., spent last Friday in our city on route home from Indianapolis. There are six chemists employed by the above named company and Mr. Haynes enjoys the distinction of being the only Race man in the number. He has been traveling making tests for the company.

Men Freed of Serious Charge.
Through the representation of Attorney Will N. Johnson, Henry Nacy, 3248 State street, and Jesse Haskins, 3216 South Lusk avenue, were given their freedom by Judge John F. Haas. Fred Bostick, 4727 Champlain avenue, stated that he had beaten him and taken $20 from him. The men claimed the beating was assaulted because he had committed an offense in front of one of the men's wives.

Twenty-Day Bazaar.
A 20-day bazaar will be given at the Bethlehem Baptist church, 4942 Wabash avenue, beginning Monday, Oct. 2, and ending Oct. 27. There will be a great variety of goods under excellent supervision. Oct. 9 Mrs. E. Williamson will speak of her trip through Los Angeles and the Middle West, accompanied by Ernest H. Williamson, son of William A. Robinson, lawyer, will speak of "Our Duty, Politically, Morally and Financially," accompanied by Jesse Binza, banker, and the Rev. F. J. Jordan, pastor.

Declared a Suicide.
The mystery surrounding the death of William Frank, 40, 514 North Wood street, was solved when a coroner's Bahai movement meets every Sunday at 3:30 in Masonic temple, corner Randolph and State streets. All welcome.

Jury returned a verdict declaring Frank a suicide. While despondent on account of ill health, Frank shot himself through the temple in a rear room at 1766 Carroll avenue.

Assault a Mystery.
A yellow cab brought George Hayes, 50, 5301 Dearborn street, to the corner of 5th and State streets. He was suffering with lacerations of the scalp, and a possible skull fracture. He could not tell where, how or when he was injured. He is confined at the county hospital.

Fractures Skull With Brick.
While arguing over money matters with Richard H. Harts, 18 North Artesian avenue, Edgar Dorris, 20, 2407 Fulton street, was struck over the head with a brick. It is believed that his skull is fractured.

Spree Nearly Kills Her.
The police are responsible for the statement that moonshine whiskey and an over-dose of aspirin nearly caused the death of Mrs. Hattie Clark, 45, 521 Bowen avenue. While suffering with a headache resulting from a moonshine spree, Mrs. Clark took the aspirin to relieve a headache and was taken violently ill.

Blow Fractures Jaw.
A man, telling his name as Althea Benjamin, 39, 4818 Wabash avenue, wandered into the police station at 45th street and declared that he was struck by a white man with his fist, which resulted in a fractured jaw. He was sent to the county hospital.

Cuts Wife in Back.
The police are scouring the city in an effort to locate James Williams, 47 East 29th street, who is wanted for assault upon his wife, Mrs. Belle Williams, 20, 2211 Lake street. Mrs. Williams stated that she and her husband had been together for some time, upon her refusal to make up with him when they met at Lake an elevated street, he stabbed her twice in the back.

Elliott Cuts Saddle.
According to a statement issued by Miss Sadie Paddon, 23, 546 East 45th street, she will secure a warrant for the arrest of "Rice," the Appomattox club. She stated that Rice who had been living with her, cut her under the eye during an argument.

Assaulted With Bottles.
During an altercation with a man known only to him as Steadman, David Bruce, 26, 4518 Dearborn street, was cut under the eye and between the eyes when Steadman, with a steady hand, threw a bottle at Bruce.

Heart Disease Claims Him.
A coroner's jury decided that death was due to organic heart disease in the case of Grant W. Fortune, 50, 2557 Park avenue. Fortune died suddenly while working in his restaurant.

Accidentally Shoots Self.
While removing a revolver from the inside of the front of his trousers, Oscar Williams, 30, 4156 Wabash avenue, shot himself in the groin when the gun was accidentally discharged. He was carried to Provident hospital.

Found Dead.
Mrs. Florence Johnson, 30, 4554 Indiana avenue, was found dead in bed at 3:30 a. m. Thursday at her home. Her father, Hillard, 3321 State street. Mystery surrounds the cause of her death.

Mrs. Thompson Returns Home.
Mrs. Jennie Thompson, Frankfort, Ky., who was in the city to attend the funeral of her son, Walker Thompson, has returned to her home. While here she was the guest of Miss Nell D. Callaway, 3500 Rhodes avenue.

Miss Coleman Entertained.
Miss Anetha Robinson, East 45th place, served a 6 o'clock luncheon in honor of Miss Bessie Coleman, the aviator. Those present were Mrs. C. Howard, Mr. Mitchell, Samuel Hilliard, Jacob Lowe and S. A. Robinson.

Appomattox Smoker.
A cabaret party and smoker for members of the Appomattox club will be given in the clubhouse Saturday evening with Messrs. Creamer and Layton and associates of the "Strut Miss Lizzie Co. as guests, and the Misses Sipp, Hunter and Smith and James Johnson of "Plantation Days" entertaining.

Surprises Wife.
Leonard Roane, 721 East 40th street, surprised his wife, Evelyn Estelle, with a party honoring her birthday, Tuesday evening, at the residence of Mrs. Nelson W. Coleman, 4240 Indiana avenue. Cards and dancing were the features of the party. The guests were themselves until the wee hours of the morning. Charles Fiddling, Charles Settles, R. O'Farrell Edwards and Leonard Roane rendered several solos.

Rock Islanders Entertained.
Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Woodward, 630 East 41st street, entertained a few friends Friday evening in honor of Capt. and Mrs. Rowan Clayton of Rock Island, Ill. Music and dancing were the features of the evening. Among those present were Miss Marjorie Crelins of Lima, Ohio; Mrs. Wicks and Mrs. Crumley of Los Angeles, Calif.

Leave for the East.
Mesdames Mary E. Mosley, Baltimore, Md.; Prudence Penn, Philadelphia, Pa.; Mary A. Hopkins, Martha Garrett, Mary E. Turner, Hattie Bell, Rosa F. Patton, Fannie R. Davis, Kate De Tascanna, all of New York; Mrs. Irene E. Moore, Haywood, Conn., and Mrs. Margaret Goodley of Brooklyn, N. Y., left for the East after spending several pleasant days in the city attending various lodge meetings and visiting friends.

William Brown Dead.
William Brown, 4744 Langley avenue, husband of Mrs. Panchina J. Brown, known the country over as "Big Boy" by Pullman porters, railroad officials and the traveling public, has gone. Mr. Brown was taken sick Thursday, Sept. 14, and died with the double pneumonia on Sept. 19 and was buried at 12 o'clock in the Metropolitan Community center, 3119 Giles avenue. The Rev. Alonzo J. Bowling, assistant director and pastor, officiated. Prof. J. Wesley Jones, famous choir rendered several pieces of music and Prof. Jones acted as master of ceremonies.

Moonshine Causes Fight.
According to the police, both were under the influence of liquor when Theodore Washington assaulted Mrs. Marie Bailey, 22, 4113 Federal street, at 4th and Federal streets. Mrs. Bailey was much the worse for wear at the end of the battle.

Injured in Collision.
Willie White, 24, 3658 Indiana avenue, is confined to his home suffering with injuries he received when an automobile struck him at 27th street and Indiana avenue.

Fall Injures Man.
Suffering with two severe scalp wounds, Thomas Deas, 3508 Rhodes avenue, was carried to the hospital for treatment. He stated that he only knew that he was walking in some strange place when he slipped and fell.

Assaults Woman with Brick.
While quarreling with Mrs. Ruby Ralston, Mrs. Ada Voss, 30, 3418 Calumet avenue, was hit on the head with a brick. She is confined to her bed suffering with a deep scalp wound. Mrs. Voss, who states that she is a special investigator, will apply for a warrant for Mrs. Ralston.

Little Boy Injured.
Little 6-year-old James L. Rue, 3100 Ellis avenue, was painfully bruised when he ran from the sidewalk driven in the path of an automobile driven by Frank Lester, 5623 Prairie avenue.

Cut by Unknown Man.
An unknown man, who appeared to be under the influence of liquor, cut Ezekiel Bell, 246 East 32d street, with a knife, as he was walking in Vernon avenue. The assault was made without a word of provocation.

Gets Other Man's Beating.
While walking in front of 4723 State street, Winston Davis, 22, 4442 Evans avenue, was assaulted by two unknown men. Davis stated that the men evidently mistook him for some one else, as they called him by an unknown name. Davis received a broken nose.

Julian Penn Injured.
An automobile crashed into the car of Julian Penn, 33 years old, 44 West 47th street, as he was nearing the corner of 47th and Wabash avenue, and he was painfully injured in the collision.

Assaulted by Husband.
The screams of a woman brought the police to the corner of 5222 State street and they found that the wife, Amanda, 18 years old, had been beaten up by the husband, Henry, 20 years old. She was suffering with bruises on the neck and mouth. No arrests were made.

Wife Shoots Husband.
Because he upbraided his wife for being out later than McGowan, 35, 221 West Oakley avenue, was carried to the hospital, suffering with a bullet wound. He stated that his wife, Sarah, had shot him, but would not allow the police to arrest her.

Mrs. Dunham Dies.
Internal hemorrhages caused the death of Mrs. Ella Dunham, 47, 637 East 1st street, at the Provident hospital.

Declared Insane.
John Houston, 30, 3427 Park avenue, and Mrs. Frances Flint, 34, 147 North Leavitt street, were carried to the Psychopathic hospital this week suffering with forms of insanity.

The Rev. Scott Returns.
The Rev. T. L. Scott, evangelist and pastor of Grant's A. M. E. chapel, 4600 Evans avenue, a great financier of the Pentecostal movement, who raised over $15,000 during the past year for the connection, has been returned to Grant's chapel for another year. He received a great ovation at the hands of his members. The Chicago Association for the study of the life and influence of Jesus, Buddha, Mohammed, Christ, Bahá Ullah and Abdul Baha.

Mrs. Knight Enjoys Vacation.
Mrs. F. Knight, teacher in the public schools of this city, who spent several weeks in Toronto and other parts of Canada during the vacation season, is back in the city looking the picture of health. Accompanying Mrs. Knight on her long trip were the Hopson sisters, teachers in the public schools of St. Louis, Mo., and long friends of each other.

Stop En Route.
Mr. and Mrs. Davis of Roanoke, Va., stopped en route from the B. M. C. at Cleveland, Ohio, to their home in Roanoke, Va., where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Young, 414 Calumet avenue.

Convention Closed.
The first annual grand session of the Knights and Daughters of the B. M. C. in Illinois and Jurisdiction, which was held at Berean Baptist church, Sept. 15 to 21, has closed and the delegates have gone home to meet in 1924 at Baltimore, Md. This was a very successful convention, with representatives from New York, Pennsylvania, Connecticut, Rhode Island, Massachusetts, Iowa, Nebraska, Missouri, West Virginia, as well as Illinois. A Morris Williams, Imperial regent, together with his executive officers, deserve much credit for the splendid work accomplished during the first year in the fraternal order. The future of the B. M. C. is bright and brighter future for the race through the medium of this organization. Delegates returning to their homes expressed themselves as being highly satisfied with the hospital, citizens and jurisdiction. The citizens of the "Windy" City.

Visitors from Arkansas.
Mrs. Florence McCamey of North Little Rock, Ark., is visiting her mother and sister-in-law, Mrs. Sallie McCamey, Ora Williamson and Nicy Lucas of Morgan Park. With her are Jessie, Almeta and Lee McCamey, her daughters and son.

Memorial Services Held.
There was a great meeting held Sunday afternoon at the Wendell Phillips high school in memory of the late Bishop Samuel Fallows, pastor, minister, citizen and humanitarian. Upon the rostrum and in the building were representatives of citizens from every walk of life. The program was given through the courtesy of Julius E. Taylor, editor of the Broad Ax, chairman of the committee on memorial services. Mr. Taylor presided at this meeting. Among those who took a part in the program were: Dr. M. D. Oak, Miss M. Horner, Judge of the probate court, Hon. Walter M. Farmer, Hon. James G. Cotter, E. S. district attorney, Miss S. Stone, Hon. Patrick H. O'Donnell, the Rev. E. J. Sonne and Prof. J. Wesley Jones, conductor of Metropolitan Community choir.

Entertains in Honor of Guest.
Mrs. Lou Ella Young, district grand mother, noble governors of Eden Grand District Household of Ruth, No. 18, Illinois, Wisconsin and Jurisdiction, 4114 Calumet avenue, entertained on Wednesday evening, Sept. 27, a score of friends and the drill team of the Household in honor of Mrs. Bettie DeTascanna of New York and Mrs. Prudence Penn, Philadelphia, Pa., grand matron of Pennsylvania, who were delegates to the first annual session of the Knights and Daughters of Honor, held in this city, and who were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Young. A fine program was rendered and each guest was served before leaving for their homes.

Visiting Daughter.
Mrs. Eliza Caldwell of Mount City, Ill., is visiting her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Smith, 1465 West 112th place, Morgan Park, where she will spend several weeks.

William Overton in City.
William Overton of St. Louis, Mo., brother of Mrs. Jodie Coburn, 3606 Wabash avenue, is visiting his mother, Mrs. Elzora Taylor of Blue Island, Ill., and little daughter, Florence Overton.

Men Stage Fight.
Although he was armed with a revolver, according to the testimony, Joseph Jones, 21, 4432 Indiana avenue, received much the worse of the fight in which he engaged with Henry and Pasco Landry, 5015 Dearborn street. Jones was fined $25 and costs, while the Landrys were discharged.

Interferes with Officers.
When Sergeant Green and Officers Steadman and Holmes were attempting to arrest some pickpockets at 35th and State streets, Matthew Bolden and his daughter, Lola, attempted to interfere. According to the testimony of the officers, Miss Bolden received a lacerated finger, while her father suffered a wound on his cheek. They were each fined $1.

Catches Murderer.
He was quite safe as long as he stayed in Indiana Harbor, but when he ventured into Chicago, the eagle eye of Sergeant Andrew Lavin ferreted him out. He recognized the likeness from a picture in his desk. The man was Paul Andrews, alias Charles Weaver, who had been living at 2912 15th avenue. He was wanted in Sedalia, Mo., for the murder of John Buddy Wells, whom he alleged he killed there last March 23.

Tries to Kill Wife.
Alleging that he had to draw his gun on John Wells because he would drop an ax with which he was trying to kill his wife, Officer George Mazon also added that Wells had placed his child in a trunk. The wife stated that her husband was crazy with moonshine whiskey and did not know what he was doing. The Wells live at 102 West 35th street.

Sent to County Hospital.
The following persons were sent to the county hospital this week: Miss Marie Harris, 15, 3742 Langley avenue; Harry Roy, 3, 201 East 31st street; Mrs. Lucy Smith, 42, 4219 Wabash avenue; and Ernest Glover, 23, 414 South Wabash avenue.

Struck by "Vamp" Auto.
Although pedestrians stated that a certain man had struck Mrs. Fannie Kennedy, 21, 3429 Federal street, with his automobile, he jumped from the car and vehemently denied that he had hit the woman as she was crossing the street at 11th street and Wabash avenue. At the approach of the police, he drove away. Mrs. Kennedy suffered a fractured knee.

Crushed to Death.
While at work on the I. C. R. R., John Moss, 3041 Ellis avenue, was crushed to death by an engine as he was attempting to cross the tracks at 16th street.

Has Birthday Party.
Mrs. J. J. Jones occupies the fifth apartment at 1033 State street, was pleasantly surprised on her birthday when her husband invited some of her friends in honor of the occasion. The occasion was beautifully decorated with the color scheme being yellow. Mrs. Jones was the recipient of many handsome and useful presents.

Injured Severely.
When an automobile driven by John Frye, 6002 State street, struck a State street car at 51st and State streets, Mrs. Pearl Washington, 20, 5358 Dearborn street, a passenger on the car, was severely injured. The collision caused her to be thrown to the street from the front platform.

The Universal Religion.
Albert Vill will speak next Sunday at 3:30 p. m. in St. John's hall, Masonic temple, on "What is Truth?" a cordial invitation is extended to the readers of the Defender to attend all Bahai services. A series of five lectures will be given by Mr. Vill, at the home of Mrs. Corinne True, 5338 Kenton avenue, Thursday evenings, at 8 o'clock, beginning Sept. 29, on "How to Recognize a World Prophet." These lectures will study the life and influence of Moses, Buddha, Mohammed, Christ, Bahá Ullah and Abdul Baha.

Makes Correction.
Colonel J. L. Reasley, commanding drillmaster of the Daughters of the Patriarch, wishes to correct an error that appeared in the last issue of the Defender relative to the competitive drill in Cleveland at the B. M. C. Captain A. Bowland is in command of the team that will take part in the public school per cent on each number. A. O'ford was first lieutenant, I. Englehart second.

Soloist at Forum.
Miss Florence Louise Clarke of Fresno, Cal., will be soloist at the People's Forum Sunday morning.

Musicians to Meet.
The Chicago Music association of the National Association of Negro Musicians will meet Wednesday, Oct. 4, at the Y. M. C. A., 3763 Wabash avenue, at 5:30 o'clock. Mrs. Martha B. Mitchell, chairman of the program committee, has arranged a very interesting program. An illustrated lecture on the Requiem Mass by Mrs. Pelagie Blair, assisted by Walter E. Gossett. Illustrations taken from Verdis' and Mozart's Requiem Masses.

Free Organ Recital.
The Metropolitan community center, 3120 Giles avenue, will present Prof. Walter E. Gossett in their regular monthly organ recital, Thursday, Oct. 5, at 4 o'clock. One of the big features of the program will be the solo of Mr. Banks of Pittsburgh, Pa. This will be his first appearance in Chicago.

Quicker Than Lightning.
Although he bears the name of Willie Lightning, yet he was not quick enough to dodge the bottle which was thrown at him by an unknown man at 2950 Dearborn street. Lightning, who is 34, and lives at 3645 Indiana avenue, received a cut out on the side of his head.

Cut by Unknown Boys.
While engaged in a quarrel at 37th street and Vincennes avenue with two unknown boys about 15 years old, William Smith, 20, 3716 Langley avenue, was cut in the back and shoulder by one of them.

Accidentally Injured.
Richard Tahr, 11, 448 Bowen avenue, received a contusion on the forehead when he was accidentally hit by a swinging wheel of James Moore, 2445 Giles avenue, was swinging when the boys were at play at the Doolittle school playgrounds.

Shorty Wields Knife.
Claiming that he did not know why he was assaulted, Leroy Spears, 20, 2123 Dearborn street, was carried to the hospital with a deep cut on the temple and cheek. He stated that while at 32d and State streets, Walter Hancock, alias Shorty, assaulted him with a knife for an unknown reason.

Bitten by a Mother.
A nameless and ownerless dog, who was protecting a litter of pups, resented the interference of 4-year-old John Ford, 3239 Dearborn street, and bit the child.

Suffers Broken Leg.
Louis Carson, 14, 2833 Indiana avenue, suffered a broken leg when he was hit by a yellow cab while attempting to cross the street at 29th street and Michigan avenue.

Claude King Exonerated.
At the coroner's inquest Claude King, alias Claude Holliday, 17 years old, 21 East 31st street, was exonerated for the death of Bernstine Kimball, 17, 5121 Wabash avenue. Kimball died at the Provident hospital from a knife wound inflicted by King while the boys were fighting at 31st street and Michigan avenue. King, who was represented by Attorney Robert Cantwell, Jr., stated that he went to the rescue of Miss Margaret Johnson, 5263 Dearborn street, who was being handled roughly by Kimball.

Takes Lysol.
While despondent over a love affair, Miss Mabel Harris, 21, 2818 Dearborn street, took lysol with suicidal intent. Miss Henrietta Johnson, 20, 2826 Vernon avenue, also attempted suicide while despondent. Both of the women will recover.

Refused to Treat.
Because he refused to treat four men who solicited drinks, John Everett, 45 years old, 5 East Division street, was treated to a rough beating by them. While at 30th and Federal streets, he received a two-inch cut in the forehead by one of the men.

Grace Cuts Harry.
When they were visiting at 3013 State street, Harry Elliott, 21, 3647 Rhodes avenue, and Grace Coleman, 2024 Calumet avenue, engaged in a fight and Grace wielded her knife on Harry.

Mr. and Mrs. Robinson Here.
Mr. and Mrs. Nell Robinson of New Orleans, La., are in the city for two weeks as the guests of Mrs. Ruth Smallwood, 4949 South Wabash avenue. Mrs. Robinson spent a month in Detroit, Mich., en route to Chicago, and Sunday afternoon, Mrs. Allie Smith, Monday, Mrs. Robinson was the guest of Mr. A. L. McBride at luncheon.

Back to College.
After a pleasant stay in Cody, Wyo., the following students are returning to their respective colleges to resume their work: V. Reeder, G. Talley, E. Donaldson, Lincoln university; T. Clark and J. Jones, Kansas university; and C. Holman of Iowa university.

Avondorph Entertains.
Mrs. Mamie Jackson of Houston, Texas, who is the guest of Mrs. Robt. Hurd, 4213 Champlain avenue, was the guest of Mrs. Julius N. Avondorph Saturday afternoon at the matinee for Mrs. Pauline Frederick in "The Guilty One." On Friday evening, W. G. Haynes of Omaha, Neb., traveling chemist for the Union Pacific railroad, dinner guest, and Sunday afternoon, Mrs. Washington and Master Steward Betts, dinner guests.

Return From Funeral.
Mr. and Mrs. John Smith, 625 Vincennes avenue, have returned to the city from Fort Smith, Ark., where they attended the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Lela Johnson, 4227 Prairie avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Dudley E. Smith at Little Rock, Ark.

Enters Wheaton College.
Miss Miss R. Curtis, a talented musician, Wheaton, Ill., has entered Wheaton college. Miss Curtis is the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex W. Curtis, formerly of Chicago.

Physical Training in Demand.
Recent records show that since the war, 40 of the 48 states in the Union have made physical training compulsory in the public schools. This means several hundred teachers are needed, specially trained in physical education. Why not interest your boy or girl in specializing in this field after finishing high school? A normal course in physical education is now being given at the Chicago University of Music, 3672 Michigan avenue. Carlebel Cole Plummer, the director. The course includes both theory and practice. Phone Boulevard 3406 before 1 p. m.—Adv.

Given Birthday Party.
A surprise party was given by Fowler Graves Thursday evening, Sept. 21, at his home, 443 Vincennes avenue. Mrs. N. A. Graves, assisted by Mme. J. P. Evans. The host chair was adorned with flowers and covers were laid for 53. Out-of-town guests were: Mrs. C. M. Vickburg, Miss Maye Barrett, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Carroway, St. Louis, Mo. Dancing and cards were the features of the evening with Miss Effie Elbert at the piano.

Slaughter System Beauty Shop.
Have you visited the Slaughter System Beauty Shop, 3100 Indiana avenue, apartment A? Phone Douglas 1810. Mme. Lydia Slaughter-Wilson, prop.; Laura Gibbs, assistant.—Adv.

Visitors at Defender Plant.
Those who registered at the Defender plant the past week are: Roy Wilkins, St. Paul, Minn., stopping at the Y. M. C. A.; Mrs. Pauline Booz of Pittsburgh, Pa., visiting Mrs. H. O. Seams, 4815 Langley avenue. Mrs. Ora Dennis, Annapolis, Mont. T. E. Smith, Ft. Scott, Kan., registered at the Y. M. C. A.; Dr. M. Royl, Columbia, Tenn.; Mrs. Lester L. Glenn, Roanoke, Va. H. B. Moore, Kansas City, Mo., guest of sister, 6202 Elizabeth street. L. A. Ritchie, Asheville, S. C., guest of Mrs. George M. Marvial, 4227 Prairie avenue. Mrs. C. Dickerson, Niagara Falls, N. Y., the guest of Mrs. Fennings, 4505 Dearborn street. William H. Harrison, Cincinnati, Ohio, L. D. Deboro, 4238 St. Lawrence avenue, Julius J. Alexander, Montgomery, Ala., visiting J. W. Brown, 564 East 37th street. Mrs. Lila Calloway, Knoxville, Tenn., the guest of David Falls, 1515 East 4d street. Mrs. Edward Reed, Knoxville, Tenn., guest of Mrs. Falls. Mrs. Lucinda McCarrall, Greenwood, Miss., visiting Mrs. E. W. Brown Nunery, 3719 Vincennes avenue. Dr. Mary Rockwith, Cleveland, Ohio, the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Charles H. Minor, 4134 Vincennes avenue. Mrs. Irene E. Moore, New Haven, Conn., the guest of Mrs. L. J. Goonly, 6329 Rhodes avenue. Mrs. P. Williams, 6329 Rhodes avenue. Mrs. M. W. Dale, Birmingham, Ala., guest of Herbert Wells, 5836 Indiana avenue. Arthur H. Howe, Columbus, Ohio, registered at the Idelwild hotel. Mrs. A. J. Gary, New York City, visiting Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Jones, 4343 Vincennes avenue. Mrs. B. P. Davis, New York City, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Jones. Mr. and Mrs. Mason, Greenville, Miss., guests of Mrs. G. L. Ashworth, 3707 Indiana avenue. Mrs. Calvin Davis, Greenville, Miss., visiting Mrs. M. Hoffman, 3558 Rhodes avenue. Mrs. Carol Jarrett, Denver, Colo., guest of Mrs. Anna V. Freeman, 4434 Vincennes avenue. Mrs. E. W. Jarrett, Denver, Colo., registered at the Vincennes hotel. Thomas Garcia, Bartlesville, Okla. J. W. Harrie, Ft. Worth, Texas, visiting P. E. Terrell, 2445 Indiana avenue. Mrs. Lula McLarin of Memphis, Tenn., visiting Mrs. Davis, 227 East 55th street. Miss Ruth B. Prince, Atlanta, Ga., visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Prince, 6551 Champlain avenue. Meredith A. Conley, 4502 St. Lawrence avenue. Georgetown Harvey, 4502 St. Lawrence avenue. Mrs. Loretta Thomas, 4411 Prairie avenue. Mrs. Lucilla Knox Mitchell, Indianapolis, Ind., the guest of Mrs. Pearl Young, 3910 Prairie avenue. Mrs. Josephine M. Norcom, Cincinnati, Ohio, the guest of Mrs. Hattie Chavis, 3560 Vernon avenue. Mrs. Etta C. Forte, Cincinnati, Ohio, the guest of Mrs. Hattie Chavis, 3560 Vernon avenue. Mrs. Mollie Pryor and granddaughter, Mary Rose Norcott, Hot Springs, Ark., visiting her daughter, Mrs. Cora M. Vinson, 4558 Prairie avenue.

Arrivals at Idelwild Hotel.
The arrivals at Idelwild hotel the past week: Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Mills, Birmingham, Ala.; Rob. Hildy, James Bacon and Charles Peterson, New York City; Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn, Paris, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. William Coleman, St. Louis, Mo.; L. G. Malone, St. Louis, Mo.; E. W. Moore, Pittsburgh, Pa.; J. C. Curry, Davenport, Iowa; W. S. Morris, Cleveland, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. C. Brown, Detroit, Mich.; F. Kavanal, New York City; Jesse Parker, Kansas City, Kan.; Arthur Johnson, Indianapolis, Ind.; Solomon Martin, Detroit, Mich.; William Asir, Ypsilanti, Mich.; A. H. Howe, Columbus, Ohio; Joe Anthony, Los Angeles, Calif.; W. R. Slaughter, New York City; M. R. Hubbard, Ft. Madison, Wis.; Miss Mary Stewart, Knoxville, Tenn.; Ralph Richardson, Superior, Wis.; Nelson Johnson, Petersburg, Va.; Howard Thornton, Ft. Wayne, Ind.; Richard Yates, Bloomington, Ill.