

IN CHICAGO AND ITS SUBURBS

Our Local Department—Personal Mention—Religious—Social and other short paragraphs—Read it over carefully, somewhere you will find a line or two about yourself or your friends.

Read our "sick list" and go and see your friends.

Mr. Charles Green has gone to Oklahoma to spend the remainder of the winter with his people.

Mrs. Lulle Cooper, 17 East Thirty-eighth street, has gone to Versailles, Ky., to the bedside of a sick sister.

Miss Eloise Cook, the pastor's youngest daughter, of Quinn Chapel, secured the high mark of 97 per cent in her recent musical examination.

Mr. G. H. Fagan, 3540 Dearborn street, gave a surprise party in honor of his wife's twenty-sixth birthday. An elaborate luncheon was served afterwards.

The W. A. Wallace Bakery Co. make the "Kentucky Loaf" and Wallace Rolls.

Tuesday afternoon, February 20, at 2 p. m., the Douglass Center Women's Club will meet. A Lincoln and Douglass program will be given.

Mme. Anita Patti Brown and Mrs. Lou Elsie Smith arrived home Thursday evening from a tour of British West Indies. After a short rest they will tour Texas.

The Bates-Emanuel wedding will be graphically described in our next issue. Order your paper in advance.

The way to get good bread, ask for the "Kentucky Loaf."

The First and Second ward branches of the Women's City Club will meet at the Douglass Center hall Monday afternoon at 2:30 p. m., for the consideration of the location of a portion of the school welfare exhibit soon to be placed in this vicinity. The purpose of this exhibit is to interest the parents in bettering conditions which influence our children.

The North Shore Men's Club will give their first annual St. Patrick masquerade party March 18 at Phoenix hall, Sedgwick and Division. Good music by the Twelfth regiment band.

Miss Elizabeth Slaughter, visiting in Kentucky, reports a continual round of gayety. Letters to friends make no mention of her return.

We Repeat It.

A dozen photographs will endear you to twelve friends. Make an appointment today for your Christmas photo. Peter P. Jones, 3519 State St.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander C. Manning of 5135 Lake avenue left the city Wednesday afternoon for Mobile, Ala., where they will spend two or three weeks. They will be guests of Mrs. Manning's brother, Mr. Thomas Tobin, assistant superintendent of carriers in the Mobile postoffice.

The attention of the Cornell Charity Club and kindred organizations is called to a family with several children whose home, 5006 Armour avenue, was completely destroyed by fire Saturday night. For information apply to Rev. Higgins of St. Mary's church.

Do you want good plain rolls? Ask for Wallace's.

Mrs. Cella Parker Woolley addressed the Volunteer Workers, a charity organization, at the home of Mrs. Webster Wednesday afternoon in their Lincoln and Douglass celebrations. This society will give a George Washington program at the Frederick Douglass Center Thursday evening the 22nd for the benefit of their work.

We took considerable comfort in 300 promises to pay subscriptions at the office by the first of the month. Up to this writing we have failed to see any of these persons. This is the last notice. Overdue subscriptions will be cut off the list.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Morris left the city Wednesday night for New York, from which point they will sail on a trip which will cover all the important European countries and will last until the last of June.

Dainty Compliments.

The daintiest compliment you can pay a near and dear friend is to send a picture of yourself as an Xmas greeting. Peter P. Jones, 3519 State St.

The best furnished rooms are advertised in the Chicago Defender.

Mrs. Alberta Bryant, 3448 Dearborn street, has returned after a visit of six months in Riverside, Cal.

Miss Claudebelle Hall left last Tuesday, February 6, for a trip south to visit relatives and friends in Montgomery, Ala., Tuskegee, Columbus, Ga., and also the doctors' convention to be held in Jacksonville, Fla.

Mrs. Julius N. Avendorph and two sons left the city on Tuesday afternoon, February 13, for Mobile, Ala., and New Orleans. They will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Allen while in Mobile, where they will spend about three months with the exception of a week or ten days in New Orleans. Mr. Allen, who is in the undertaking and livery business, is said to own more rolling stock than any other colored man in the business in the United States.

Mr. Charles Mackey, 3159 State street, and brother, Virgil Mackey, 3810 Prairie, were called away suddenly by the death of their mother, Mrs. Margaret Mackey, of Richmond, Ky., who died last Friday, February 9, and was buried Sunday.